A report has been received in Washington from Oyster Bay to the effect that there is a possibility of extraordinary session, even before the date heretofore announced, November 9. This report is believed to have grown out of a statement made by Senator Aldrich in which he says "should the president call November." It is reported that the members of the subcommittee of the senate committee of finance, who have been in Oyster Bay conferring with the president with regard to the financial bill they are charged with drafting, have urged upon Mr. Roosevelt the advisability of anthorizing congress to take up the financial measure in advance of B.
