Judge Erdman has caused his card as candidate for the judicial nomination to be placed in all the newspapers in the district irrespective of party. When was a democrat in this section ever known to be thus non-partisan.

Our neighbor last week censured the Milford Bridge Company for delay in putting down new plank. The reason for it is that it was deemed advisable to wait until crossings are less frequent, as there must be some way to travel while the work is being done. The bridge has been examined and is deemed perfectly safe for all ordinary loads. There was no need, however, for the town council, of which our distinguished contemporary is a member, to defer building a roadway to the river, if it is desired, and in truth if those guardians of the public prosperity and welfare had been alert in the performance of their duties and had properly safeguarded the interests of the town and the people's money, a large amount of it would not have been lost by the washing into the river of the roadway at the foot of Catharine street.

A new National cash register has been placed in the Big Store.

Miss Louise Klier has been engaged to teach the higher department of the academy at Dingmans Ferry.

C. S. Ryman, D. D., of Paterson, presiding elder in the M. E. church, and wife are guests with friends in town.

E. A. Whitfield of New York, who a number of years ago was a summer visitor here, is greeting former acquaintances with his cheerful smile.

Miss Millicent Crisman of Bergen Point, N. J., who has been visiting friends here, was called home yesterday by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Frank Crisman, who is afflicted with a carbuncle on her neck.

In 1777 Vermont was an independent, self-governing republic. It possessed a council of thirteen senators who were chosen by the people every seven years for the purpose of inquiry if the constitution had been violated. It is believed that the ancestors of Senator Bailey of Texas, the constitutional authority of the United States, must have come from Vermont.

Through an oversight, undoubtedly, the last issue of the Commoner failed to bring forth a new presidential candidate. Probably Mr. Bryan was in the harvest field.

Methodist Church Jottings.

(By Rev. V. A. Wood.)

Subjects for Sunday, August 23: Morning, "Relation of Church Members to Missions, Home and Foreign." Evening, "Prepare Ye the Way of the Lord." Epworth League 8.45, subject, "Making our Lives Count." Everybody welcome to our services.

Subject for Prayer meeting, Aug. 26th, "Preparation for God's work." The Fair last evening was a thorough success. The Ladies deserve great credit for their push and energy in bringing it to such a successful issue. Several of our young people assisted with hearty good will. The pastor had constructed a mystery room which had netted $7.85 when fire from a burned out lantern demolished part of the work.

The pastor has word of the critical condition of his father. He may be summoned to his bedside at any time. Brother Cole has kindly consented to serve in the pastor's place in an emergency.

REVENGE

Wildly the night winds moan and sigh, And beat against the pane, As spirits hot and revel high, Upon the earth again.

But hush! 'Tis not all the storm! Peek, peek! 'Tis not all the knock And some one waits without!

She glances, startled, at the clock, So late! who can it be, when hark! Again she hears a sound.

And mid the dashing of the rain, A footfall on the ground. Back in her chair, fair Ethelyn sinks As the window opens wide.

And a pallid face, with burning eyes Peers wildly 'round inside Over her face, her long black hair Is streaming wildly down.

Her vest, bedraggled garments trail Around her on the ground. She stops, and one hand pushes back The wet hair from her eyes.

On Ethelyn her gaze is fixed Her woe-torn eyes are fixed. Oh, how fair, how no fear of me, I bring you things true.

Of one who to the years gone by, Was more than life to you. Lady, hush! the streamlet swift He has come in pain.

He begged me haste to you and pray, That you pardon him again, Hast'ning in you on the wings of love, In the storm he met his fate.

And now she must be brave, But is she still alive, the one Whom she has come to save?

'Oh Ethelyn, sweet lady fate,' A moaning voice now said, 'Know this, while still you hear my voice, Your lover true is dead.'

I was his wife, you need not shrink, My love was wild and mad. I made him think that you were false, Oh the happiness I had!

He loved you and he hated me, For he found my secret out. Deigned me, scorned me, worshipped you, Of that have not a doubt.

I made his life a hell on earth, His handsome face grew white His form grew hunched, his quick steps lag To me a joyous sight.

For all my love had turned to hate, The bitterest hate in life. It maddened him to think that I, Not you, should be his wife.

He left his home and traveled, far And wide o'er land and sea. But naught could save him from my hate Or part him far from me.

'Til I look upon her face once more, My little love so pure, She always helped me to do right Perhaps I can endure My hopeless life with patience still, If I take but one glimpse more Of this sweet face, then hasten death Quick to the other shore.'

I heard him murmur low one day, When he knew not I was near. So when he started, I came too, And thus we both are here.

I followed. And my rage grew hot, As I thought of his love for you. I crept upon him in the dark, My trusty dagger drew.

The lightning showed me where to strike I did not fear or start, But buried deep my da'ring true Deep, deep into his heart.

As he fell, he gave one sharp, low cry— 'The handwork of my wife, And Noli, you're done the kindest thing, To end my weary life.'

I hate you now as I hated him, 'Ethelyn' his dying lips had said. So on I came, so thro' you out Soon you too shall be dead. Then my revenge will be complete, None setnigh over me When both are dead and by my hand 'Twas happy shall I be.'

FOREST LAKE NEWS

Twice a week, now, the club house stage makes special excursions to a very pretty falls and cascades heretofore undiscovered which lie in a northwesterly direction from the club house about two miles distant. A number go down to see them for they are a very pretty sight. They were discovered by Dr. A. Hadden, president of the club.

Last Saturday evening a grotesque hop was given which was a very laughable affair. Among a few of the best costumes, or rather of the funniest were:

The Mystery—No one knows who. Miss Archer—Broadway duds. Miss Gwyn—Life in Chinese honeycomb.

Miss Alice Mackenzie—Scarecrow in Woyle of Os. Miss Sudeania Archer—Sunflower. Miss Elizabeth Avis—Japanese girl.

Miss Francis Gwyn—Show girl. Miss Louise Cavill—Show girl. James A. Fraume, Jr.—Happy Hooligan.

E. P. Taft—Poor Little Mose. E. R. Gregor—Mamma Katagami-mer.

Mr. Scranon—Shylock. Jack Davidson—Ghost. W. B. Rockwood—Aunt Jemima.

G. M. D. Kelley—Josh Holter. C. E. Haynes—H. Holter, from way down east.

Little Miss Cavill—Angel. Master Harry Brown—George Washington Jones. Master Harold Williams—Miss Petticoat.

F. E. Davidson—Court Jester. Darning was engaged in until quite a late hour. Refreshments were served during the intermission and everyone enjoyed it whether they took part or viewed the spectacle from the piazza.

Wednesday last a party of 12 young ladies, under the chaperonage of Mrs. Wm. A. Archer of New York visited Honesdale and were very much pleased and all had a very pleasant time.

Miss Bina Smith of Honesdale, who has been waitress here during the summer, left Aug. 7 and will soon resume teaching. The guests regret her departure for she was liked by all at the club and they hope to see her here next season.

Saturday evening, Aug. 15, on account of the great number of arrivals, an informal hop was given which was enjoyed by every one present.

The event of the evening, however, was the arrival from New York City of a party of four, George H. Mulligan, Sr. and Jr., Fred Laxon and R. Terry, in the first automobile which ever climbed the Pike county hills and reached the club house. The trip from New York was made in record time, the time given from Mast Hope station up over the steep hills to the club house was made in 16 minutes. It takes a stage 1 1/2 hours to come the same road. Only one mishap took place from N. Y., that being a burst tire, but with George H. Mulligan, Jr., in charge of the machine, who by the way is quite an engineer and what George don't know about a two ton Winton touring car is not worth knowing.

Repairs were speedily made and the journey continued without any more mishap. It is safe to say Mr. Mulligan, Jr., is quite the popular young man here now. The party will remain for a two weeks visit. A trip to Honesdale will be made shortly.

Sunday, Aug. 16, Rev. J. McVey of Binghamton, N. Y., delivered a very interesting sermon. He was to have delivered a lecture Monday evening, but owing to some previous engagement had to leave early in the morning.

Mrs. John Davidson is now preparing for another children's party which will take place in the near future. There will be several pretty dances by the little ones and there are quite a number at the lake this season.

Saturday, tomorrow, evening will be given a marine hop. The idea is for every one to dress in something that has some relation to the ocean, either below the sea or above it. S bells will ring and the festivities will begin. The sailors' hornpipe will be danced by an old sailor, right from the briny deep.

Not Over-Wise There is an old allegorical picture of a girl seated at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly trampling on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For sale by Welch & Son, Matamoras, all general stores in Pike county.

Eczema

How it reddens the skin, itches, oozes, dries and scales! Some people call it letter, milk crust or salt rheum. The suffering from it is sometimes intense. Local applications are resorted to—they relieve, but cannot cure.

It proceeds from humors inherited or acquired and persists until these have been removed. Hood's Sarsaparilla positively removes them, has radically and permanently cured the worst cases, and is without an equal for all cutaneous eruptions. Hood's Pills are the best cathartics. Hood's Pills are the best cathartics.

Reformed Church Notes.

(By Rev. A. J. Magee of Montague.) The ice cream social at the Montague church was well patronized, notwithstanding the rainy weather. About one hundred people attended and the net proceeds were $30.

Last Thursday the Hainesville Reformed church held its annual Harvest Home Festival. The feature of the afternoon was an exciting baseball contest between the Hainesville and Milford teams.

In the first half of the ninth inning Milford tied the score, but in the second half of the ninth Hainesville scored the winning run with one out. The pitching of Harry Cort right was the main feature of the game for he succeeded in striking out six men. A toothsome supper was served at the church with all the housewifery skill for which the Hainesville ladies are so well known. Proceeds about $75.

The writer will exchange pulpits next Sabbath with Rev. Alonzo Ransom who is in charge of the Dingmans Reformed church during the summer.

Presbyterian Chronicals

(By Rev. E. M. Smoad.)

The subjects for the sermons next Sunday morning and evening are: Morning, "Jeremiah and the Potter." Evening, "Opened Eyes for God's Wonderful Truth." We are always glad to welcome strangers at our services.

The regular services of the week will be observed as usual. It was the sad experience of the pastor to officiate at the funeral of the late Mrs. John B. Radcliffe last Tuesday afternoon. The wide-spread sympathy of the village is with those who mourn. May these things comfort the sad hearts of the bereft husband and daughter.

People Should Know How Mr. Miller Was Cured of Kidney and Bladder Trouble by Dr. Kennedy's New Medicine, Cal-cura Solvent.

MATTHEW S. N. Y., Sept. 28, 1901. Dr. David Kennedy Retires, Kennedy Row, Rondout, N. Y.

I have been troubled with my Kidneys and Bladder for three or four years and doctored with many physicians without obtaining any help.

A few months ago I decided to try Cal-cura Solvent. Dr. Kennedy's latest medicine, and am thankful to say I am now practically cured. You had not asked me for a testimonial but I wish to tell you what Cal-cura Solvent has done for me and hope that others may be so happily relieved. Yours truly,

WILLIAM H. MILLER. Remember: Only one Dr. David Kennedy ever lived in Rondout, City of Kingston, N. Y., and his new medicine is sold only in bottles which are called Cal-cura Solvent because it cures stone in the bladder by dissolving and painlessly expelling the formation, thus avoiding the surgeon's knife. Write to the Cal-cura Company, Kennedy Row, Rondout, N. Y., for a free sample bottle.

To the Voters of the 43rd Judicial District

I am informed that my failure to electorship causes many persons to believe that I am not a candidate for the office of President Judge. To correct any such misunderstanding I take this opportunity of announcing my candidacy for that office. If elected, I will perform the duties of the office impartially and to the best of my ability, and will require the business before the Courts to be transacted as rapidly as carelessness will permit and with as little expense to the taxpayers as possible.

WILTON A. ERDMAN.

Character Building

Character is not made in a day or year. It takes years to build up a business character such as we are proud to own. For twenty-eight years we've stood the test, constructing our character on fair business dealings, one price to all, money back if our printed promises are not true. These, with the best goods for the least possible price, are the main things in our mercantile experience. Each year has found us prospering--thanks to you--and each year will find us truer to your interests. This little talk is the result of some recent confusion arising in consequence of a misunderstanding with a store using a similar name and with which we have ABSOLUTELY NO CONNECTION. We are proud of our name and what it stands for.
