MATAMORAS.

The 15 cent Tea under auspices of the L. A. H. connected with Epworth church took place at the home of Mrs. Frank Halstead Tuesday evening and was quite well attended notwithstanding the unpleasant weather and a nice little sum realized for the society.

Everett Mead's dancing class met Tuesday evening at Prescott's Hall. About 25 were present, good music was furnished.

The choral union met Monday night and quite a number were in attendance.

George Bunnell, the postal clerk who was injured some months ago, is now able to walk out with the aid of crutches.

Joshua Hifferty, who has been ill at his home, is slowly improving.

Mrs. J. A. Bunnell, who has been very ill at her home, is now able to sit up in a chair a few hours each day.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Rose Cotton of Boston, Mass., and Roy Scott Gilchrist of the same city, which will take place at Miss Cotton's home on the evening of Nov. 26th at 8 o'clock. Miss Cotton was formerly a resident of Matamoras. Her young friends here tender their congratulations.

Miss Leola Stearns is visiting at the home of George Sawyer of Mill Hill. Mrs. Sawyer has been very ill but is much better now.

Mrs. S. S. Spears of Main street has returned home from Brooklyn. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Ivy.

Mrs. Wm. Knapp and daughter of Hawley are guests of Mrs. S. S. Spears.

A flower drill will be one of the features of the last evening of the L. C. U. fair at Prescott's Hall, Nov. 20, composed of 14 young ladies. This alone will be worth the price of admission.

Mrs. Fred Percival and daughter, Rachel, are visiting relatives and friends in New York City for a few days.

John Corwin of Weehawken spent Saturday and Sunday with his mother on Cunningham street.

George Martin spent Sunday in Matamoras.

Mrs. Reuben Ball has just returned from the Stroudsburg Normal school where she has been visiting her daughter, Bertha, who is a student there.

A great many from Port Jervis and Germantown visited the ferris Sunday.

Little Alfred Lilly, son of Harry Lilly on Front street, Port Jervis, is ill at his home.

There will be a chicken supper the first night of the L. C. U. fair, which takes place Thursday at Prescott's Hall.

The ferryboat for wagons that is to be used above the iron bridge arrived at Matamoras Sunday. It is fitted up with side-paddle wheels propelled by a small gasoline engine. By the last of the week the ferry will probably be running. Both wagons and foot passengers will be carried. It came up the Delaware river Sunday.

E. J. Lord was very pleasantly surprised Saturday evening at his home in honor of his birthday. About 15 were present.

DINGMAN'S FERRY.

There is dissatisfaction among the patrons of our telephone with the way it is managed and rumor says a number will put up private wires having a central at Darragh's. While Miss Darragh had charge of central she rendered excellent service but since the removal customers have been disappointed in the way business has been conducted.

By reason of the poor health of his wife John Van Etten will remove from his farm at Longmeadow to Dingmans.

The bidders are still on vacation and in consequence our merchants pay 35¢ a dozen for the few eggs brought in.

Irving Angle is with his nephew Ralph, and team busy getting out and husking corn in the swale on Will Horbeck's farm. The stouts came down with the flood mixed with fence rails, timber and trash and they have quite a job but are getting some very fine corn out of the debris.

M. B. Pitney, who bought the drift corn on the Shoomaker place for $10, has taken out over 100 bushels. Beans, collars and corn cobs are scantily filled this fall. One farmer along the river who raised 500 bushels potatoes thinks he will have to buy for his own use as his are all rotting.

Mill potatoes, the few there are of them, seem to be keeping quite well.

There was quite an excitement here last Saturday evening when a blaze shot up from the Ardorsiah farm which lighted up the surrounding country until by means of the phone it was learned to be a large pile of rubbish burning on the golf grounds.

SANDYSTON.

The Supreme court of this state handed down a decision Nov. 9th in the New Jersey Zinc Company case of taxation. The court set aside the action of the Sussex county board of assessors in increasing the assessment of the New Jersey Zinc Company in that county from $1,145,000 to $3,545,000. The court holds that the Constitution does not permit any tax exemption to persons, so that today's decision applies equally to veterans of the Civil War, their widows and members of the National Guard who have been allowed exemptions and, exempt firemen. The decision relating to the zinc company of Hardyston will give us high taxes, as the county will have to pay the amount assessed upon the higher valuation.

Mrs. Mary Simpson of Chatham, N. J., spent a few days visiting in Sandyston the past week.

Victor E. Bevans is now able to go out of doors and will soon be able to go about as usual. Friday after eating he felt something hard in his mouth, and upon getting it out with his finger found it to be a buckshot well fattened up.

The Farmers Institute will be held in the Centreville church December 7 and 8th. I have not received the program yet, but they will be here in a day or two for distribution. They are very interesting for all and I hope to see a large attendance.

I had a pleasant call from Thomas Clark Sunday last. He disposed of his personal effects Saturday, and is ready to start for California about the 23rd inst. Tom's many friends wish him success in his new venture.

It was amusing to see the antics of two fellow youth parade up and down the road awaiting the appearance of their girls who were visiting Sunday afternoon. About sundown the girls appeared, and the little boys walked right along, I suppose as far as the Dingman bridge. Well, it was really laughable.

This town is literally overrun with city hunters, something like 25 being located so far. All report game as being scarce and those returning to their city homes were purchasing game, a pretty evident fact that they killed little if any game themselves. Boundary lines were ignored, and they hunted anywhere they wished without regard to posted notices.

The first fox killed, so far as I can learn, was captured by Floyd E. Course Saturday last. It was a red one.

William Campbell of Port Jervis visited friends in this town the past week. Will is a member of the Port Jervis Salvation Army.

Geo Warner has removed from the farm of his father near Bevans to the homestead of Victor E. Bevans.

The new road up along the Flatbrook is in process of building, and efforts will be made this week to finish it.

Bert Dalrymple, of Tuttle's Corner, is going into the goat raising business and he now has 12 fine specimens of the goat family. J. J. Vansickle will go into the business more extensively the coming spring.

PAUPAC.

Miss Adelia Woodard was called to Hawley to attend her sister, Mrs. John Ames, who is suffering with a severe cold.

We are sorry to hear B. F. Killam had the misfortune to lose his grey horse Sunday last.

Fred Killam spent institute week with his parents in this place.

The fashion—Bell's for the school houses. There will be an entertain ment and box social at school house No. 4 Saturday, Nov. 21st, to raise money to get a bell.

Mrs. Joseph Stinson is visiting her parents A. J. Kimble and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Killam, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Simons, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Martin, Charles Soumer and Lizzie Crump all of Trafton spent a very pleasant evening last Thursday at the home of G. W. Wilson where a graphophone entertainment was furnished "free of charge." They were so amused by the sayings of "Uncle Josh" that the hours seemed all too small and they returned home in the early morning much pleased with the evening's entertainment.

Henry Bennett has again left for Scranton to make his fortune. All wish him the greatest success.

B. F. Killam and daughter, Yolande, visited his daughter, Mrs. Edson Green, in Scranton a couple of days last week. A. V.

THE GIST OF THE BIBLE

A course of lessons in Bible study conducted by Rev. Y. A. Wood on Monday evenings at the Methodist Parsonage.

LESSON VI

Division 1. Gen. 25:26. Mark the most important events as follows and be able to describe them in your own words: (1) Age, death and burial of Abraham ch. 25. (2) Isaac selling his birth-right ch. 25. (3) Isaac's wealth and well digging ch. 26. (4) Jacob's strategy to obtain his father's blessing ch. 27. (5) Jacob's dream at Bethel ch. 28. (6) Jacob's marriage to Leah and Rachel ch. 29. (7) Jacob's flight and Laban's pursuit ch. 31. (8) Jacob wrestling with an angel at Paniel ch. 32. (9) Meeting of Jacob and Esau ch. 33.

Division 2. Read Luke 5. Miraculous draught of fishes. How long had the fishermen toiled? With what result? How many fish were caught when Jesus was present? Under what conditions will revival efforts be successful? The leper healed. What is leprosy? Was any disease incurable to Jesus? What about the leprosy of sin? How was the cleansing wrought? The paralytic healed. Describe the event. Which did the man need most, healing or forgiveness? Whose faith brought the healing? What faith was found with Jesus? Did the healed man keep silence? Should we be silent about what Jesus does for us, or is witnessing a duty? (See Acts 1:8) Feast at Levi's home: Why did Jesus say his disciples should not fast?

Division 3. Read Rom. 11 and 12. Discussion in chap. 11 is concerning the final salvation of all the true Israel including Gentiles. What faithful remnant of Israel in Elijah's time? Word "jealousy" v 11. Cf. Deut. 32:21. Do verses 1 and 15 agree? The "casting away" was partial and temporary. vs 17-25 are a warning against vain pride on the part of the Gentiles because of their acceptance with God and Israel's rejection. For what does the apostle adore God? Chap. 12 treats of the duties of believers. Underline each duty for study. How many apply to your own life? What grand summary to these exhortations? v 21.

SILVER LAKE

George Wheeler and wife of Milford visited at Huntingtower a day last week.

Mrs. Andrew Snyder and daughter, Millie, of near Dingman's spent Sunday with Mrs. August Mercier.

W. H. Layton, our school teacher, has moved from his place at Centre to H. W. Adams' house.

Miss Emily Jagger has returned to Dingman's.

Warren Van Gorden of Dingman's and a party of friends were on a hunting trip in the Nichecronk Lake vicinity last week.

The Misses Winans have closed their cottage and returned to Astoria, Long Island.

Francis Mercier of Dingman's is visiting his son, August, this week. John Dandas has returned to Philadelphia after spending a month with his parents at Colos.

Stepped Against a Hot Stove

A child of Mrs. George T. Benson, when getting his usual Saturday night bath, stepping back against a hot stove which burned him severely. The child was in great agony and his mother could do nothing to pacify him. Remembering that she had a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the house, she thought she would try it. In less than half an hour after applying it the child was quiet and asleep, and in less than two weeks was well. Mrs. Benson is a well known resident of Keller, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic liniment and especially valuable for burns, cuts, bruises and sprains. For sale by Balch & Son, Matamoras, and general stores in Pike county.

Now that things have gotten around again onto a clean and honest basis in New York it is not impossible that the health of the Hon. Richard Croker may demand his return to this country.

According to ex-candidate Clark's (Ohio) speeches of four or five weeks ago, we should be in about the first stages of convalescence from his predicted national financial collapse.

The Best Remedy for Croup

From the Asthma, Kou, Daily Globe.

This is the season when the woman who knows the best remedies for croup is in demand in every neighborhood. One of the most terrible things in the world is to be awakened in the middle of the night by a whoop from one of the children. The croup remedies are almost as sure to be lost, in case of croup, as a revolver is sure to be lost in case of burglars. There used to be an old-fashioned remedy for croup, known as live syrup and told, but some modern mothers say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better, and does not cost so much. It cures the patient to "throw up the phlegm" quicker, and gives relief in a shorter time. Give this remedy as soon as the croupy cough appears and it will prevent the attack. It never fails and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Balch & Son, Matamoras, as all general stores in Pike county.
