SANDYSTON.

Albert S. Rosenkrans and wife of Norfolk, Va., have been visiting relatives in this county for the past fortnight.

Ralph Vansickle and Bertie Kintner of the state normal are spending their Thanksgiving vacation at their respective homes at Layton.

Miss Maud Mayberry and husband spent Thanksgiving with her parents at Hainesville. They reside at Passaic, N. J.

Johanne Major of Layton is down with muscular rheumatism, and at present is a pretty sick boy. His many friends hope to see him restored to his usual health.

A few days ago I visited Milford, and I must say that the scene of desolation presented near the Milford bridge is enough to make any one heart sick, and the owner of that land surely has the sympathy of all in his affliction.

Work has stopped on the Macadam road across the mountain, and nothing further will be done until next spring, and I hope it will be completed in time for the Fourth of July.

All interested in agricultural matters must not forget the Farmers Institute at Layton Dec. 7 and 8.

Messrs. John C. Kitchen and John J. Vansickle, comprising the firm of Kintner and Vansickle and as shippers of hay and grain, are doing the largest direct shipping trade of any firm in the United States. Located as they are in Ohio and Indiana they still find time to buy Jersey farms in this beautiful valley and now they have an acreage of over 800 acres, all in one body and of that nearly one-half is meadow land of good quality. Mr. Kitchen on Friday last purchased the Salmon W. Bell farm of 100 acres, and will erect the most complete and up-to-date fish hatchery in the U. S., hatching for the U. S. government as well as for individuals. They will plant 2000 willows along the streams passing through their lands to beautify the same and for the protection of the speckled beauties. Next summer they will build one of the finest club houses in the state, and the site is one commanding a fine view of the valley for miles. The farms will be stocked with cattle, sheep and Angora goats and the stock will be brought from the west, such as are not raised in this section and that will do for export trade. Other farms are in view and the end is not yet. May their efforts meet with success.

Game is scarce and high. When it comes to paying a dollar for a partridge, twenty-five cents for a quail, and twenty-five cents for rabbits it is time to fall back on chicken, the best meat of all.

Saturday last Miss Gertrude Raser, daughter of John Raser of Layton, was united in marriage to William Heister of this town. The happy couple have the best wishes of their numerous friends. Rev. A. J. Myers officiated.

The ceremony at Bevans has raised the price of milk twenty cents on a can, the raise to commence on December 1st.

A Sandyston party shipped a barrel of cider to Newark via the D. L. & W. and the strangest part of it is that the barrel reached its destination, but it was empty. Somebody on that road likes cider as well as the Newark party.

Pretty cool weather with the mercury marking from 3 to 8 degrees above zero for several successive mornings last week. The skating is fine, and the young folks are making the most of it.

Henry E. Montross, the popular landlord of the Centerville hotel, will give a grand shoot Thursday, Dec. 10. Lovers of the sport will find turkeys, ducks and cash prizes to be shot for.

Rumor has said that James Fuller Jr., has rented the farm of Mrs. Mettler ever along the river, and from that Dame Rumor says the wedding bells will ring very soon.

Some change is likely to be made at the Bevans creamery for the coming year. Nothing definite has yet been decided upon but a day or two will settle matters.

John W. Bookwalter of Ohio is brought forward by Bryan's Communion as the latest ideal candidate for the presidency. The Communion says that he is a farmer, a manufacturer, honest, a pioneer tariff reformer, and a leader for bi-metalism. This is certainly a strong showing and had the Communion not espoused Mr. Bookwalter's cause, it is very probable that he would have received the nomination.

WANTED—FAITHFUL PERSON TO travel and acquire the trade of sales people and make collections for manufacturing house. Straight salary $20.00 a week and expenses. ## MATAMORAS.

All that was mortal of Miss Emma Gohardt was laid to rest in Laurel Grove Cemetery Friday afternoon. The funeral services were held at her late home in Matamoras at 1.30 o'clock, and at St. Peter's Lutheran church in Port Jervis at 2.30 o'clock. The Rev. H. C. Wassmund officiated at both services.

During the services the choir sang in German "Lead, Kindly Light," and Misses Lizzie Schlund, Marie Gessenhetmer, Rev. H. C. Wassmund Louis Schauer sang in a quartet with pathetic tenderness, "Abide With Me."

The flower bearers were Misses Anna Dunker, Minnie Keating, Ruth Seybold and Hattie Wilkin.

Mrs. David P. Ayers, of Bellville, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Rougger.

H. W. Weidner, wife and daughter, of Goshen, spent Sunday with Rev. and Mrs. Weidner at the parsonage. They returned home this morning.

The ferry for foot passengers at the foot of Pike street will be running again on Tuesday. A much larger boat than the former one is being built by Irving Courtright.

Miss Caroline Holbert of Hoboken is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Holbert, on Adams street.

Miss Ida Wood spent Thursday at Arlington, N. J., with relatives.

Mrs. William Hackett, of Rutherford, N. J., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Harry Lilley of Port Jervis, and also her mother, Mrs. Alfred Billman, has returned home. Mrs. Hackett was called here on account of the serious illness of the little son of Mrs. Lilley.

Alfred Billman and wife, who have been at Sharpesville, Pa., and other places in Pennsylvania, returned home this morning.

Frank Orca, who has been confined to the house for sometime, is slowly improving.

Mrs. Mary Byder, who has been ill, is reported some better.

George Langton is confined to his home with sickness.

Miss Bertha Roberts, who has been spending two months at White Sulphur Springs, N. Y., returned home Saturday evening.

Mrs. Robert Skinner and two daughters, Nellie and Della, and two sons, Clarence and Russell, of Middletown, spent Sunday with Mrs. M. Reinert.

Miss Eva Wonnacott of Flehkill-on-the-Hudson arrived in town on Saturday evening, and was the guest of Miss Emma B. Hill until Wednesday.

Miss Mary V. Squires is visiting her brother, Oliver D. Squires, at Highlands, N. Y.

Frank Wehinger, one of the victims of the Barrett bridge wreck, is slowly recovering from the accident. His limb is healing and the doctors think he will have the use of it, but it will take time.

Master Joe Diger, another victim of the Barrett bridge, is now able to walk out with the aid of crutches.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Harding of Montgomery, N. Y., and Osborne Harding of New York City were guests of William Lawrence and wife, on Jefferson street.

Dress making in all branches. MARY LUDWIG, Broad St., Milford, Pa.

WANTED—AN ENTERPRISING FARMER in this section to manage the late fall and winter among the farmers in his vicinity. Must be active, capable and honest. Work will prove profitable to a good man and can be made a source of regular and really earned income each year. To be devoted as much as the little time as desired. If interested write AT ONCE to N. M. G. Box 74, Albany, N. Y.

Bilious?
Dizzy? Headache? Pain back of your eyes? It's your liver! Use Ayer's Pills. Gently laxative; all vegetable. Sold for 60 years. BUCKINGHAM'S DYE

KIMBLES

The centre of attraction Nov. 18 in the quiet little village of Kimbles was the wedding of Lena, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Kelly, and Stephen McCoy of New York City. Rev. F. C. Card of the Hawley Baptist church officiated. The ceremony was performed at the home of the brides parents at 12 o'clock noon and took place under an artificial arranged arch of evergreen and holly. The wedding march was played by Carrie Edwards of Port Jervis. The bride was handsomely attired in a suit of white silk null trimmed with lace and ribbons and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The groom wore the customary black. After the ceremony the guests, about thirty in number, enjoyed an elegant wedding dinner. The home of the newly wedded couple will be in New York City where Mr. McCoy is employed, a station agent on the elevated railroad. The bride is one of Kimbles' progressive young ladies, who will be missed from this place by her large circle of admiring friends. She is also well known and highly esteemed in Hawley, and has been for some years past a devoted member of the Baptist church of that village and an ardent worker in the cause. Those who attended the wedding from out of town were Carrie Edwards of Port Jervis, Mamie Kellam of Summitville, N. Y., Louis and Lucy Rowland, Lena Williams, C. W. Shields and Mrs. James Curran of Hawley, Mr. and Mrs. A. Griswold and two sons, F. Cortright of Rowlands, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holbert, Mr. and Mrs. George Holbert of Lackawaxen, Joseph McCoy of New London, Conn., Lawrence McCoy of New York and Mrs. John Kirby of Honesdale. The esteem in which Mrs. McCoy is held by her friends was partially manifested in a large variety of handsome gifts.

Four tickets sold at this station for the Thanksgiving excursion to New York.

Mrs. A. L. Cronk is making an extended visit with relatives in Scranton and Danmore.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Philip Elwanger last week a son.

George Daniels and wife spent Thanksgiving with the latter's parents, Mr and Mrs. J. E. Dodan, at Lackawaxen.

GREENTOWN.

Miss Mattie Bush of Stroudsburg is the guest of Miss Ruth Hopps. Quarterly meeting services were held in the East Sterling M. P. church Sunday.

The revival services held in the Hemlock Grove church by Rev. Lewis Snelhorn have closed with a godly number of souls won for the church.

Miss Laura Bartleson was the guest of her parents Sunday.

Mrs. T. N. Cross has been visiting in Middletown this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hoady were guests of Victor Corey Thanksgiving day.

Miss Emily Simons, formerly of this place, and Stanley Adams of Gouldsboro were married at Gouldsboro November 26.

The members of Wallenpaupac lodge, I. O. O. F., expect to visit the Wangum lodge of Hawley on Saturday evening, December 5.

A number of cases of diphtheria is reported in Greentown.

Oliver Cross, who has been working at Scranton, is spending a week at home.

Will Stermer shot a three hundred pound bear near the Burrus place on Monday.

LACKAWAXEN

A number of people from here are attending the fair at Shohola this week.

Earnest Jacobus of Parkers Glen spent Thanksgiving with his mother Mrs. L. B. Shaffer of this place.

Mrs. Ed Smith and daughter, Hattie, have returned after a short visit with friends in New York City.

Julia Compton, teacher of the Williamson school, spent last week at her home in White Mills.

There will be a teachers local institute held at Lackawaxen on Saturday, December 12.

How to Prevent Croup

It will be good news to mothers of small children to learn that croup can be prevented. The first sign of croup is hoarseness. A day or two before the attack the child becomes hoarse. This is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the rough cough appears, and it will dispel all symptoms of croup. In this way all danger and anxiety may be avoided. This remedy is used by many thousands of mothers and has never been known to fail. It is, in fact, the only remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Balch & Son, Matamoras, all general stores in Pike county.
