SANDYSTON.

The article on the editorial page of the Wagoner Recorder in relation to justice of the peace last week is one of the best I have seen. The office, in N. J., is not a business to the possessor, and just because justice in Newark and Paterson have been guilty of extortion, an effort is to be made to abolish the office. As it is today with notaries public and commissioners of deeds and affidavits there is little for the country justice to do, beyond now and then a petty suit. Having been justice for two years, I have had two petty suits and one criminal case. It cannot be said that the rural justice is getting rich out of his office. Thanks Mr. Recorder for your kind words in behalf of the J. P.

Our hunters are now looking after the foxes and the record is two the past week. Frank Major shot a fine grey one on Christmas, and Lester Heister, while going to his work on the 23rd, found a red one fast in a trap along the road. But he found the owner of the trap and generously divided up with him.

James Fuller, Jr., and Miss Grace Rosenkrans were united in marriage on the 24th inst at Port Jervis. Both are well known members of society in this town.

Ralph Vansickle and Bertie Kintner of the state normal are at their respective homes for the holiday vacation.

Tennants are looking up their places of abode for the coming year, and there will be quite a number of changes April 1st. D. B. Lattimore will move to the house recently purchased of Thos. Clark at Branchville. Will Heister, recently married, will occupy the house vacated by Mr. Lattimore just above Centreville. Mrs. Porter Layton of Layton was taken to New York on Friday for an operation. Dr. Hughes also went the next day, returning Sunday.

Landlord Montross is having his shed reshingled, and should judge the work was pretty cold.

The Christmas tree entertainment in the chapel at Bevans on Christmas Eve brought out a full house as usual. Everything passed off nicely and the tree was fairly loaded with good things for the little folks, and some valuable presents for the older.

Eston O. Vansickle of Newton spent Saturday and Sunday at home nursing a large boil on his neck. Some time ago he had an attack of blood poison on his hand. He is having his share of bodily ailments.

Blace Cole is at home for the holiday vacation. He is attending a medical university at Philadelphia.

Miss Allie Gunn, who has been sojourning at Newark and Perth Amboy, N. J., returned to her home at Layton on the 24th inst.

J. J. Vansickle is spending a brief visit to his home here, and will return to his business in Ohio after the holidays.

Johnny Major, who has been confined to the house from an attack of muscular rheumatism, is slowly improving and will soon be out again.

The Rev. Rush W. Lake and bride arrived at the parsonage at Halberville Friday evening where a large crowd had gathered to welcome them home, and all had a good time.

LEDGEDALE.

The high winds of the past week have made quite a confusion on the telephone lines of Hudson River and Wayne and Pike county.

The cold wave struck this place Saturday afternoon and caused the thermometer to drop rather suddenly and plenty of wind and snow came with it, making it a very bad time for funerals and wedding.

Rev. Father Winters of Hawley came to Ledgedale Thursday night in answer to a telephone message to visit Patrick Slattery, an aged resident of this place, who had been sick for some time. Mr. Slattery died on Christmas night. Funeral was held Tuesday morning at St. Mary's church. He is survived by six children. The family have our sympathy in this their sad affliction.

Mr. and Mrs. Friend Simons and children spent Christmas with R. H. Simons and family on East side Salem. Mrs. Rachel Reid entertained at her home on Christmas day Mr. and Mrs. Ase Jones and daughter of Eastside Salem. Mrs. Kellam and sons, Charles F. and Fred D. Kellam.

Peter Foulkrod and wife of Eastport are guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Foulkrod.

We are pleased to know that our neighbor, M. A. Biddy, has been appointed judge of election in Greene to fill vacancy caused by the removal of B. F. Kapp.

WANTED - AN ENTERPRISING FARMER in this section to manage during the fall and winter among the farmers in this vicinity. Must be active, capable and honest. Work will prove profitable to a good man and will be made a source of regular and steady income each year. To be made we must see at once how to proceed. If interested write AT ONCE to T. M. G. Box 14, Albany, N. Y.

SEND US A COW,

MATAMORAS.

Miss Anna Koerner of New York spent Christmas with her mother here.

Misses Tassie and Katie Biggs of Paterson, who have been visiting with Mrs. E. Lord, returned home Wednesday.

John Corwin of Elizabeth, N. J., visited his mother here Christmas. He is stenographer for a large copper refining works.

Frank Orce is improving from a long illness.

Bert Nichols of New York, Lorin Langton, Eugene Cochrane, J. Wallace Van Gorder and friend J. Forsyth of New York and Miss Nellie Langton were visitors here for the holidays.

Miss Ella Driller and Harry J. Kramer were married at the bride's home Tuesday, December 29th.

Mrs. Amanda Kimble is quite ill at her home here.

Mrs. S. D. Weeler and two sons, Frank and Milton, on Washington street, have gone to visit relatives and friends at Beach Lake Lake, Pa.

Isaac Squires of Matamoras left town Thursday to visit his brother, Oliver D. Squires, at Highland, N. Y.

Letters have been received in Matamoras from Henry Haines, of Chicago, a former resident of this village. He has just passed his 78th birthday and is well, and can see to read without the aid of glasses. He frequently fishes in the lake at that city one mile distant and walks it without difficulty. Mr. Haines was one of the oldest citizens of Matamoras and left for his western home about six years ago.

John Koerner and Miss Bertha Bell, students at the E. S. S. Normal, are home for their vacation.

Miss Sarah Knapp of Hawley is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. S. S. Speers.

William Hackett and wife of Rothford spent Christmas at Mrs. A. Billman's. Mr. Hackett returned home Sunday evening, but his wife will remain during the week. Mrs. Hackett will be pleasantly remembered as Miss Emma Billman, before her marriage.

Ben Lilley, who is with the Borden Condensed Milk Co., arrived in town Thursday night to visit his mother, Mrs. C. Lilley. He is looking well, and his friends are pleased to see him again.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Ridgeway left town Friday to visit relatives at Rowland, Pa.

Frank Seybold of Boston spent Christmas with his parents in Port Jervis. Frank called on his old friends in Matamoras on Christmas afternoon. He is looking well and is pleased with his school.

Miss Lulu Prescott, a teacher at Warwick, is home for the holiday vacation.

Miss Edna Van Akin, a teacher in one of the grammar schools in New York City, is at her home for the holidays.

Rev. and Mrs. C. F. Wendner spent Christmas in Goshen with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan McPeak of Paterson and little son, Charley, spent Christmas in Matamoras. Mrs. McPeak will spend two weeks in Matamoras.

CONASHAUGH

Milo Weeks was called to Middletown, N. Y., last Saturday to visit his mother who is ill.

A. W. Jefferson of Brooklyn is visiting Halsey Cottage for a few days.

H. L. Davenport is fixing his ice house with a fine quality of ice.

We wish all Penna. readers a happy New Year.

Liver Pills

That's what you need; something to cure your biliousness, and regulate your bowels. You need Ayer's Pills. Vegetable, gently laxative.

DINGMAN'S FERRY.

Cold has checked egg production here.

Charles Person has an ice house nearly completed near here and will erect a slaughter house, pig and hen house on the premises.

George Wilson is around again all right and appears livelier than before his illness.

The M. E. congregation seems well pleased with the services of the new pastor and is prosperous and happy.

From the accounts we read of so many laborers in the cities being laid off, it would seem that country boys would do well to consider before going to the city for a job.

There is work next spring for the supervisor on the road at W. C. P. Swartouts.

Reports say about 500 tins were deposited on lands of W. P. Hornbeck last fall by the frost. The have no marks and so he will have something to compensate him for damages.

Hill farmers cannot very well attend the institute these short days without being out late at night.

Some farmers here in anticipation of the institute were discussing the fruit business and concluded from experience that owing to the late and early frosts apples was the only fruit profitable and safe to grow. There are four means of making money here, however, if they are carefully studied—apples, dairying, poultry raising and keeping boarders.

Will Benson is very busy sawing wood and he can cut a large pile in a day.

Some make money out of chickens and the only secret is to learn how to do it and then give the necessary care and attention.

The proprietor of Pine Hill Farm in Sandyston is said to have some coops of fine white leghorn hens for sale at an easy price.

Dusenbery, as an adjunct to his candy and cigar store, has flour and feed and keeps as a specialty a full line of chicken foods.

A. D. Brown is doing a flourishing business this winter and has turned out several sleighs.

John Hood has reroofed his house with slate.

W. Richard, by reason of his broken arm, has not been able to fill his contract with a Chicago electrical company. We are sorry for him but glad to have him remain here.

From the amount of meats handled by Butcher Kintner he must be doing a large business.

John Van Eiten has resumed building on his lot which has been enlarged by purchase of another piece of land.

Outsiders who sample too much juice in Milford sometimes pay $5 for the fun, and insiders who annoy the council pay $1. This may keep both the town and council room quiet.

A Bargain For Farmers

The New York Tribune Farmer, a national illustrated agricultural weekly of twenty large pages, has no superior as a thoroughly practical and helpful publication for the farmer and every member of his family, and the publishers are determined to give it a circulation unequalled by any paper of its class in the United States.

Knowing that every enterprising, up-to-date farmer always reads his own local weekly newspaper, The New York Tribune Farmer has made an exceedingly liberal arrangement which enables us to offer the two papers at so low a price that no farmer can afford to lose the opportunity.

The price of The New York Tribune Farmer is $1.00 a year and The Penna. is $1.50 a year, but both papers will be sent for a full year if you forward $1.85 to The Penna. Milford, Penna.

Send your name and address to The New York Tribune Farmer, New York City, and a specimen copy of that paper will be mailed to you.

How to Prevent Croup

It will be good news to mothers of small children to learn that croup can be prevented. The first sign of croup is hoarseness. A day or two before the attack the child becomes hoarse. This is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the rough cough appears, and it will dispel all symptoms of croup. In this way all danger and anxiety may be avoided. This remedy is used by many thousands of mothers and has never been known to fail. It is, in fact, the only remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Balch & Son, Matamoras, all good stores in Pike county.
