The art of fireproofing was known to the ancients. The Greeks before the Christian Era hastily built a fort of wood to repel an invasion and coated it with alum. The enemy vainly attempted to set it on fire and were astonished that it would not burn.

Prof. R. Ogden Doremus, the renowned chemist, after the death of his daughter, who was burned by her clothing taking fire, began experiments to discover a method to prevent such calamities, and finally had all the garments of his family, after washing, treated with ammonium phosphate added to the starch solution, which made them inflammable. All wood work, flooring and stairways especially, in public buildings should be made fireproof by treating them with alum. This is inexpensive and effective, and a far better method than to fill them with combustible oils, paints and varnishes, thus making them certain to take fire easily and to burn fiercely. It is, however, too late to apply these preventives after your children have been burned to death.

Down in Stroudsburg it has been agreed to keep the schools out of politics, and in pursuance of this very sensible conclusion each party made but one nomination for the office.

Miss Gladys Vyse is on a visit to New York. Today is McKinley day. Wear a pink carnation.

Reformed Church Notes.

(By Rev. A. J. Meyer of Montague.)

A Valentine Supper will be held in the Montague Reformed church parlors Thursday evening, Feb. 11. A toothsome supper will be served. Valentines will be sold and other attractive features will be offered.

A cordial invitation is extended to the friends of the church and our Milford friends to join in having a delightful time.

The Montague L. A. S. met at the home of Miss Soony Wood this week Thursday. An interesting meeting was held.

The Dorcas Society has lately received several new members. Among them were Mrs. Harry Clark, Mrs. William Hoopy and Mrs. Madison Shay.

At the quarterly communion service Mrs. Harry Clark was received by certificate from the Matamoras M. E. church and Mrs. Fannie Betak Shay was received on confession of faith.

The topic for next Sabbath evening will be the last petition of the Lord's prayer, Matt. 6:13, "Lead us not into Temptation but Deliver us from Evil." With this service the pastor will close his series of services on the Lord's prayer.

Salmon for the Delaware The United States Bureau of Fisheries has granted the application of the State Department for several thousand Atlantic salmon eggs to be hatched for breeding purposes and the young fry will be placed in the Delaware river.

Several years ago President of the Fish Commission H. C. Ford stocked the Delaware with salmon and demonstrated that it could be made a great stream for those fish. The fry will be planted in the streams of this and Wayne county. As it takes time to bring the fish to maturity some four years will elapse before there will be much salmon fishing in the river.

Samuel Drinkhouse, Easton's oldest citizen, is dead. He was born April 15th, 1804.

Tuesday next, Feb. 2, is the day when the ground hog makes the weather for the next six weeks. He can't make it any older.

Jacob Morey, father of B. F. Morey editor of the Monroe Democrat, died at his home in Mt. Bethel Monday, Jan. 18, aged ninety-four years.

Baker George Hupp of Port Jervis is distributing very neat calendars around with a picture of an old time quilting scene. The Puras returns thanks for one.

J. B. Williamson of Branchville is seriously ill. "Harry," as he is familiarly called, is well known wherever he is assisted in erecting a number of buildings, among them the Presbyterian church.

Judging from Russia's preparations it is evident that she fears disappointment in her strenuous endeavors for peace.

Reports to the contrary notwithstanding, there is opposition in Wall Street and bitter opposition to Roosevelt. It is talked openly. A prominent Washington business man, just returned from New York, relates a conversation among a group of bankers and brokers. They expressed their antagonism to Roosevelt, admitting, however, that he is honest. Well, gentlemen, who is your candidate, said the Washington man, is it Hanna? Not much, said one. To my mind Hanna is just as bad as Roosevelt and makes all sorts of trouble. Look at his fooling with labor, in an attempt to adjust the coal troubles, Roosevelt made a play to labor at the same time, but he allowed in his Printing Office move that he was not going to be ridden down over what he believed right.

Well, how about Gorman? Oh, Gorman can not make the run. Who then, Cleveland? Yes, quickly responded a man whose name is well known throughout Wall Street, give us four years of Cleveland and we will not trouble you.

Gentlemen, name another one. But this request is still unanswered. The amount of it is, said a member of one of the largest New York banking firms, we would like to see Roosevelt defeated, and we will spend any amount of money to kill his nomination or to prevent his election, but just the same, he is going to be nominated and going to be elected.

All of which goes to show that while there is opposition to the President, it is unorganized and has little hope of its ability to attain its desired against the tremendous public Roosevelt sentiment throughout the country.

It seems probable that the democratic candidate for the presidency next year will run a good second.

It is not understood that Mr. Bryan made any comparison while in Europe of the price of wheat and silver.

The flash of his eye and the squaring of his shoulders, when the names of certain eastern democrats are mentioned, do not exactly consist with Mr. Bryan's peace talk, picked up in Europe.

Don't Worry This is a doctor said than done, yet it may be of some help to consider the matter. If the cause is some thing ever which you have no control it is obvious that worrying will not help the matter in the least. On the other hand, if within your control you have only to act. When you have a cold and fear an attack of pneumonia, buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and use it judiciously and all cause for worry as to the outcome will quickly disappear. There is no danger of pneumonia when it is used. For sale by Balch & Son, Matamoras, and all general stores in Pike county.

We will send you a little of the Emulsion free. Be sure that this picture is the same of a label on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

Strengthen the lungs as you would weak land and the weeds will disappear. The best lung fertilizer is Scott's Emulsion. Salt pork is good too, but it is very hard to digest.

The time to treat consumption is when you begin trying to hide it from yourself. Others see it, you won't. Don't wait until you can't deceive yourself any longer. Begin with the first thought to take Scott's Emulsion. If it isn't really consumption so much the better; you will soon forget it and be better for the treatment. If it is consumption you can't expect to be cured at once, but if you will begin in time and will be rigidly regular in your treatment you will win.

Scott's Emulsion, fresh air, rest all you can, eat all you can, that's the treatment and that's the best treatment.

THE WEEDS Consumption is a human weed flourishing best in weak lungs. Like other weeds it's easily destroyed while young; when old, sometimes impossible.

An Ancient Foe Feels Thirty Years Younger.

To health and happiness is Scrofula—as ugly as ever since time immemorial. It causes lumps in the neck, disfigures the skin, inflames the mucous membrane, wastes the muscles, weakens the bones, reduces the power of resistance to disease and the capacity for recovery, and develops into consumption.

A lump appeared on the left side of my neck. It caused great pain, was itched, and became a running sore. I went into a general store. I was persuaded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and when I had taken six bottles my neck was healed, and I have never had any trouble of the kind since.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills will rid you of it, radically and permanently, as they have rid thousands.

Women's Indebtedness to Col. Higginson Col. Thomas Wentworth Higginson has just past his 50th birthday. He has achieved fame in literature, in reform work, and in war, although, perhaps, he would prefer that the last should be included under "reform" for it was an abolitionist that he took part in the civil war as head of the first colored regiment. But the greatest distinction of his life, as history will look at it, is that he is one of the few men that thoroughly identified himself with the woman suffrage cause. He signed the call for the National Woman's Rights Convention in Worcester, Mass., in 1859. In 1855 he officiated at the marriage of Lucy Stone and Henry B. Blackwell, making it thoroughly an equal rights affair. When the Woman's Journal was founded in 1870 he was one of its editors and remained such for fifteen years. It meant something to the movement that a writer who had the attention of the world should give his best to a paper devoted to woman's cause. To women struggling for their rights it meant much that a warrior for freedom should consider their political freedom worthy of his sword of chivalry and justice. And so we all greet and thank Colonel Higginson.—Woman's Tribune.
