SANDYSTON.

An organization is being gotten up at Newton on similar lines as the Minisink Historical Society at Port Jervis. The first meeting was held on Friday last in the Presbyterian church and officers elected. Among them I noticed Judge Henry Hunt, Ex Supt. Luther Hill, Supt. Ralph Decker, Rev. Eland, Editor Stickney, Editor J. L. Bunnell, W. W. Woodward and others. The movement will be a success, and members will be added from other townships in the county.

The town committee met at Layton on Saturday, and settled up the town business for the year. Town meeting will be interesting as many of the principal officers are to be filled; collector, freeholder, two committeemen, and some others. Taken altogether there will be lively times.

The Jagger trial was begun on Monday and by 12.30 a jury was sworn and the trial, the session of the hour, was begun. Word was received here that the accused had committed suicide, and that jurors and witnesses had not come to Newton.

Later news said the injuries were not serious, and then there was an excruciating Newton, over bad roads and through the biting cold. Some entire families have been subpoenaed, some members deny knowing anything of importance relating to the case, and this wholesale calling of witnesses caused some lively bustling for help to do the work at home.

Capt. Simpson of Chatham, N. J., is spending a few days visiting in this valley. Capt. is looking well and likes his new home very well.

Sunday saw quite a rush of witnesses enroute for Newton to secure boarding places. Branchville has plenty of accommodation, and one can pay carfare and still be ahead of the game.

I have not heard of any teacher being secured for the Layton school and the pupils are having a rest.

Sunday last was the first warm day we have had in a long time. With the rain, and rise in the temperature the snow melted very fast.

John B. Stevens, of Hainesville, who was indicted for assault and battery upon John C. Sauck of this town was sentenced on Friday last to pay a fine of twenty-five dollars and costs of suit. Pretty close call for John this time.

LEDGEDALE.

The sick are all improving but Mrs. Philip Schrader, an aged lady, who is very poorly. Dr. A. J. Simons of Newfoundland is attending her.

Born, Leonard Watson and wife on Sunday, Feb. 7, 1904, a daughter.

Richard Simons and wife of East-side, Salem, with their daughters, Mrs. Jennie Williams, Mrs. Hattie Gale, Miss Louisa Simons and grandson, Roland Williams, spent Wednesday evening with their son, Friend Simons, and family.

Arthur Hopps of Soranton has been spending the past week with his parents, Anthony Hopps and wife, in Greentown, and has with him a fine graphophone, which could be heard very plainly on No. 5 line.

Mrs. Ruth Bortree of Greentown and her son, Leonard, of Hawley were guests of her son, Richard, Sunday, Jan. 31, at La Anna, Pike county.

Mrs. Kellan and son, Fred, of Ledgedale visited the same place the same day, but were guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Wolfe.

The first thunder storm of the season reached here on Sunday, Feb. 7th, which is said to be a sign of cold weather.

KIMBLES

E. L. Calkins and son, Leo, visited the former's parents, M. J. Calkins, at Atoe last week.

William Chamberlain and wife of Howlands spent Sunday with the latter's mother, Mrs. George Cortright.

Mrs. J. E. Dodan of Lackawaxen visited her daughter, Mrs. George Daniels, last week.

Our school was closed three days last week, the teacher, Kate R. Kellan, attended the funeral of her uncle, P. C. Kellan, at Hawley on Wednesday.

The rain Friday night and Saturday closed up with hard-thunder showers Sunday and very hard wind through the night and intense cold.

All Stuffed Up

That's the condition of many sufferers from catarrh, especially in the morning. Great difficulty is experienced in clearing the head and throat.

No wonder catarrh causes headache, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, pollutes the breath, deranges the stomach and affects the appetite.

To cure catarrh, treatment must be constitutional—alterative, and tonic. "I was afflicted with catarrh. I took medicines of different kinds giving such a fair trial, but gradually grew worse until I could hardly bear, taste or smell. I then concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after taking five bottles I was cured and have not had any return of the disease since." ROBERT FRANKS, Lebanon, Kan.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Cures catarrh—it soothes and strengthens the mucous membrane and builds up the whole system.

MATAMORAS.

Mrs. Edgar Johnson and little daughter, Mildred, of New York City arrived in Matamoras Sunday afternoon and are the guests of Mrs. Johnson's sister, Mrs. O. D. Squires.

Miss Mary Van Schoick of Cocheaton Centre is spending a few weeks in Matamoras with relatives.

Mrs. Joshua Corwin, who has been ill, is much better.

Tuesday, Feb. 23, the Matamoras school was photographed by Mr. Alierion, the Port Jervis artist. All the pupils of the school and teachers of the respective rooms were assembled in the front of the building. It makes a fine picture. Prof. Houck, principal of the school, will send the photograph to the St. Louis Exposition.

Rev. and Mrs. Shopy were very pleasantly surprised last week, Thursday evening, by a party of friends from Milford.

The 13th annual reception of the L. A. Society connected with Epworth church took place Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Chas. Quick. Nearly all the lady members were present and some new ones joined.

There was a business meeting in the afternoon and at six o'clock the husbands of the lady members assembled to have supper. It was a fine supper, and very much enjoyed. The remainder of the evening was spent in a very social manner interspersed with good music, both vocal and instrumental.

The officers of the association are: President—Mrs. A. Langton. First Vice President—Mrs. A. Billman. Second Vice President—Mrs. C. Quick.

Secretary—Mrs. F. Wilson. Treasurer—Mrs. G. London.

Over 20 new members joined and ten gentlemen joined as honorary members. During the past year the L. A. Society has raised $102.55. The society is in a flourishing condition. About 80 were present at the supper.

The many friends of Isaac W. Van Gordon regret to hear of his unfortunate accident Sunday morning. He fell on the side walk and broke his leg. He is resting as comfortably as can be expected. Dr. Wolfe is the attending physician.

Revival services are held every evening this week except Saturday evening at Hope church. Everyone is welcome.

John Corwin's friends in Matamoras tender their congratulations to him and his estimable wife.

A new piano for the Matamoras school has been placed in Prof. Houck's room, something that has been needed for a long time as the organ was worn out.

George Martin of the New York postoffice spent Sunday with his parents.

The Matamoras schools have sent to the St. Louis Exposition samples of study and drawing, sketching, mechanical drawing, color work, water study, botanical specimens, work in zoology, descriptions of plants, views of school and a quantity of written work.

If you want folders for leap year parties or dances, THE PAPER has handsome ones at an easy price. Just remember we do any kind of printing from a large poster down to a beautifully engraved card, and at reasonable rates. We'll be glad to have orders for veneno-bills.

PAUPAC.

That thaw the last of the week didn't improve the sleighing much, but it brought the youngsters skates into use again.

Last Sunday Mrs. George Wilson went to Tipton to take care of her daughter, Mrs. E. L. Guest.

Mrs. Sheridan is improving although not as rapidly as at last writing.

Mrs. Ludwig is visiting relatives in the far famed Shickelshin which is, we are given to understand, a land of wonders, and far more improved than our little town of Paupac.

Berman Gamble of Milford is visiting his sisters, Kate and Rose, for a few days.

C. J. Schlager called on friends here last Friday.

After visiting friends in Hamilton for a few days, Mrs. W. H. Clark returned to her home Sunday.

The "kids" had it arranged that they would have a surprise party and a first rate time on the 3rd of Feb. The surprise was for their schoolmate, Rose Gamble, it being her birthday, and the good time for all present. It turned out that both arrangements were carried out, but it was awful hard work to study the next day.

Although we didn't hear we are pretty safe in saying that the sleighing party of young folks from this place, had a very pleasant time at Knappa in Hawley last Wednesday night.

Methodist Church Jottings.

(By Rev. V. A. Wood.)
Subjects for Sunday, Feb. 14th: Morning—"Christian Warfare," Evening—"Something Worth While"

Busy and cold weeks are slipping rapidly away and we are nearing Conference.

Word from our evangelist friend, C. Hanson Arpe, says he and his assistant, brother Andrews, are looking forward to being with us early in March.

Our carpet for the basement is down and greatly improves the appearance of the room.

Prayer meetings are well attended and very interesting. Dr. Ryman was with us one evening and Rev. T. S. Molyneux of Pearl River last Wednesday evening. Slippery walks don't keep everybody away by any means.

The funeral service of Jas. Boaler one of our members of long standing, was held yesterday, 2.30 p. m., at the church. The sermon was preached by the pastor from the text Luke 2:39, 30. He was a highly honored member of the Odd Fellows and a consistent Christian. His age was 81 years, 10 months.

Of Interest in the Household
The March Delinquent contains much matter of interest and value in its household departments. One of the most excellent features is an article by Eleanor Marchan on Serving the Informal Sunday Night Supper and Impromptu Evening Refreshments, effectively illustrated. Refreshments for receptions, illustrated, as well as the unique luncheon dishes a la Planchette, will appeal to all who enjoy dainty confections.

Lent-observing housewives will find many suggestions to lessen their table difficulties at this season, including novel oyster recipes by Frances E. Peck, special lenten dishes by Alice Chittenden, and dainty souffles by Margaret Hill. In addition there are numerous other seasonable recipes and useful information for many home needs.

Pullman accommodations and meals enroute from Washington to Jacksonville and return, except that the tour leaving on March 7th, the return trip will include only the railroad transportation. Better Than Gold
"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green of Lancaster, N. B. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicine I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists.

Why He Would Not Pay.
A few weeks ago a Scotchman came to consult a Wimpole street doctor and began relating the symptoms of his ailment. When he had concluded the physician said:

"The first thing you must do is to stop smoking and the next is to cut off your liquor, and then there must be no more midnight suppers."

"Humph!" ejaculated the Scot. "I dinna like that."

"Well," said the physician, relenting. "If you must have something to eat at night take a few biscuits and a glass of warm milk about an hour before retiring; but no liquor, remember."

"And is that all?" asked the Scotchman, as he arose gravely from his chair.

"I think so," said the doctor. "Of course, I want you to come in to see me again in about a week."

"Well, good-day to ye, doctor," said the patient, as he stepped toward the door.

"Oh, I beg your pardon, my usual fee is £2 2s," said the physician, as he picked up the note of introduction from his desk.

"Two guineas, and fer what?" asked the Scotchman.

"For my advice," replied the physician.

"Then," replied the Highlander, "I'll naw pay ye a penny."

"And why not, pray?" asked the doctor.

"Because," replied the Scotchman, "I dinna intend to tak' your advice."

"Till-Bie!"
