PROPOSAL

COMMISSION FOR THE SELECTION OF A SITE AND FOR ERECTION OF A STATE INSTITUTION FOR THE FEEBLE MINDED AND EPILEPTIC IN EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA.

The Commission for the selection of a site and the erection of a State Institution for the Treatment of the Feeble Minded and Epileptic will receive proposals for a site for said institution until noon, Friday, April 15, 1904. Said site, under Act of Assembly approved May 15, 1903, must be located in Eastern Pennsylvania, and must meet all the requirements of said act. See pamphlet Laws, 1903; page 446.

Proposals should be accompanied by a general topographical and descriptive plan of the property; its size, railroad facilities, water supply, drainage and altitude.

The Commission reserves the right to accept or reject any or all proposals; also reserves the right to accept or reject any part or parts of any proposals.

Proposals should be addressed to the Secretary of the Commission, 630 Walnut street, Philadelphia, Pa., and marked "Proposals for a Site for a State Institution for the Care and Treatment of Epileptics and Feeble Minded Persons in Eastern Pennsylvania."

Tendency of the Times

The tendency of medical science is toward preventive measures. The best thought of the world is being given to the subject. It is easier and better to prevent than to cure. It has been fully demonstrated that pneumonia, one of the most dangerous diseases that medical men have to contend with, can be prevented by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of influenza (grip), and it has been observed that this remedy counteracts any tendency of these diseases toward pneumonia. This has been fully proven in many thousands of cases in which this remedy has been used during the great prevalence of colds and grip in recent years, and can be relied upon with implicit confidence. Pneumonia often results from a slight cold when no danger is apprehended until it is suddenly discovered that there is fever and difficulty in breathing and pains in the chest, then it is announced that the patient has pneumonia. Be on the safe side and take Cham
