The Anti-Trust Laws Altogether the Work of Republicans

If the following statement of facts had originated in a republican newspaper they would probably be characterized by the democrats as political clap trap gotten up for campaign purposes, but, coming from such an eminent democratic paper as the New York World they must be accepted by the party as true and the credit given where it properly belongs. That organ of democracy says:

1. The anti-trest law was framed by a republican, was passed by a republican House and a republican Senate, was signed by a republican President.

2. The law remained a dead letter on the statute books during the entire second term of Grover Cleveland, a democratic President Through those four years of democratic administration all appeals an all efforts of the World to have the law enforced were met with sneers jeers and open contempt from a democratic attorney general, Richard Olnoy, who pretended that the Every one will be interested in law was unconstitutional, and who
