MATAMORAS.

The Matamoras Ferry Company opened its ferry Friday about 11 o'clock. It is located on Adams street, one street below Pennayl. vania avenue.

Mrs. Longton and her assistant postmistress, Miss Irene Kimble, of Matamoras, have succeeded in getting the mails to and from Port Jervis every day since the going out of the los. The mail from Milford arrived on Friday.

A reception was tendered Rev. and Mrs. Weidner at the Hope church parsonage Friday evening. There was a large attendance. They were handsomely remembered with a well filled purse. William Speidel made the presentation speech. The L. C. U. furnished refreshments. Rev. Metzger, the new minister, was in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Weidner's friends regret very much to part with them, and all trust they will be pleased with their new charge.

The L. A. S. connected with Epworth church held a "sock" social on March 17th at the home of Mrs. E. J. Lord.

Rev. Metzger, the new minister of Hope church, arrived in town with his family Saturday, and they are the guests of Victor Enals.

Over 74 families took refuge in the alms house in Matamoras on Tuesday night, the day of the ice gorgo.

At Hope church, Sunday, Rev. Metzger, the new minister appointed to take the place of Rev. Weidner, preached both morning and evening.

Harry Oneil foreman in the Midletown Times office, called on Matamoras friends Sunday.

Messrs William and Duer Conkling of Newburg spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Oliver Squires. They also called on their sister, Mrs. Wm. Seylolt, Port Jervis.

First street ferry located on Adams street in Matamoras is now in operation night and day. People are taken over at all hours.

Clark's ferry for wagons and foot passengers also is in operation. Trips were made on Sunday for the first. The merchants and coal dealers can get things over for the people in Matamoras now.

OBSEQUES-FLORENCE VANDERVOORT.

The funeral of little Florence Vandervoort took place Saturday afternoon at her late home at 3 p. m. Rev. Weidner had charge of the services. There was a large attendance as little Florence was a great favorite with every one in Matamoras. Beautiful flowers were placed on the casket. The remains were laid at rest in Laurel Grove cemetery.

The pupils of the Matamoras school will dedicate the new piano Friday evening, March 18. A musical will be given in which they will be assisted by talent from outside of the school. The pupils and teachers hope to see a large attendance. An admission of 15 cents will be asked. Children 10 cents.

Miss Nettie Corey and sister, Mildred, are visiting relatives at Pompton, Pa.

Mrs. Nicholas Walsh and son, Francis, returned home on Saturday evening from visiting relatives at Monroe, Saffers and Passaic.

While all our other colonies were fighting the Indians, William Penn lived with them in perfect peace.

Spring Medicine

There is no other season when good medicine is so much needed as in the Spring.

The blood is impure, weak and impoverished—a condition indicated by pimples and other eruptions on the face and body, by deficient vitality, loss of appetite, lack of strength, and want of animation.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Make the blood pure, vigorous and rich, create appetite, give vitality, strength and animation, and cure all eruptions. Have the whole family begin to take them today.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla has been used in our family for some time, and always with good results. Last spring I was all run down and got a bottle of it, and as usual received great benefit." Mrs. BEULAH BOYCE, Stone, Vt.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

GREENTOWN.

Mrs. Abram Simpson, who has been sitting for some time, died at her home in Dreher, March 9. Rev. C. W. Clewell officiated. A husband five daughters and one son are left to mourn their loss.

Mrs. P. R. Cross and son, Carl, expect to go to Stroudsburg to attend the funeral of the former's aunt, Mrs. Helen Piphar, who died March 13.

DINGMAN'S FERRY.

The County Commissioners have kept their promises as to a reduction of mills for county tax. The rate is now 7 mills as against 10 formerly, but it is only an apparent reduction. Take cows formerly assessed at $10 now at $20. Last year the farmer would pay a tax of $1.00 on a cow this year he will pay $1.40, or really 14 mills on last year's assessment. Wont such reduction make him happy?

There was no feed famine here by reason of the rail road below supplying that commodity.

David O. Brodhead fell on the ice one day last week and was considerably bruised.

Numbers of ties here have not been delivered at the river because of the deep snow.

August Mercier will remain at the Silver Lake Club House the coming season.

W. H. Layton is preparing to remove his family from Silver Lake to his home at Centre.

William Kilsby in view of possible floods has removed his cattle to Jersey and his horses to Dingmans.

SANDYSTON.

Town meeting is past. The principal fight was over the office of freeholder and collector. The minor offices were not contested.

The vendue of R. T. Layton took place in Watpack on the 11th and was to be continued on the following day when the horses and cows were to be sold. The public not understanding this did not come and there was no sale on the 10th.

The next vendue will be that of Will Bevan at which cows and horses and farm tools will be offered for sale.

A grange has been organized at Layton by Mr. Holly organizer for this county. I believe thirteen members are necessary to form a grange, and that number was secured on Friday evening, at the first meeting.

An exhibition will be held in the Layton M. E. church on Wednesday evening of this week, and promises to be very good. Proceeds for ministers salary.

The dance at Andrew Morris' on Friday evening brought together many lovers of dancing and they made the most of it for the Centreville load of young folks did not get home until 6 a. m. all happy with their good time. That veteran "Hank" Westbrook handled the bow and it goes without saying that the music was O. K.

The condition of William Clark of Hainesville has not materially changed since my last, and he is a very sick man. It is hoped Mr. Clark will be restored to his usual good health.

An exhibition will be given by the pupils of the "Fisher" school on Friday evening of this week. Those things may be all right but not when the school is in session. Lake religion and politics, they want mix.

It will be many years before the Italians have reached the American level. The other day great consternation was created in Florence, Italy, by the appearance of a donkey in a ball room. Those Italians would probably be thrown in absolute hysterics should they attend the next national democratic convention.

More Riots

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as individual disorders of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by niter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the liver and kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic, and effective medicine and the greatest of all round medicine for run down systems. It dispels nervousness, rheumatism and neuralgia and expels malarial germs. Only 50c, and satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists.
