The apparently petty complicaance of the highest cabinet officeunder the new president, have been swept away by special enactment of Congress and there now appears to be no doubt that he will be the Sec retary of State under the new admin fatration

Only about ten legislative days and nights remain for this Congress and there are a number of appropri ation bills not yet enacted. There has been filibustering in the Senate and threats of filibustering in the House. The House is restless and even recalcitrant under the despotism of Speaker Cannon. There is much talk among the insurgente and mutterings of revolts and both Democrats and Republicans. The came condition prevails in the Senate, where Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin is effectively protesting against the autocracy of Aldrich, Hale, Penross and Gallinger. During the week he has successfully resisted Senator Hale, who attempted the immediate passage of the naval dust.
