in particular. Snug room, snugly fur-nished; Mr. Biglow sitting on a lounge, upon which he had installed all with care through fear that the lounge might spring up on each side of him and slap his cars; green shaded lamp and a bit of mistletoe still hanging on the chandelier. Let us therefore turn to Miss Gabbleton and reflect.

Speaking boldly, then, and making no bones shout it, she was hardly anytiding else; and jumping quickly from a glare so horrible we will seek the shade of similes and hide our selves in the elysium of clusion. In substance, so be it, Miss Gabbleton recombied the fourth dimention, and when the focus of philosophy caughs the attention of her arms, reason ran riot and marvelled at the mysteries. "Why, Mr. Biglow!" exclaimed Miss

Army nursing may be revolution-ized as the result of a course of train-ing instituted at the North London does look queer, you see. It came about that Miss Bellum's resembled a mask of tragedy and sighing as though he simply had to Call or clee buryt into tears. And while this sound of sorrow is taking physical form and rippling mournful je over the plumpness of him and ever the manifold chins of him until it shakes his mighty breast with even mighter tremore of woe, let us look at Mr. Biglow and consider his case. He was, then, one of those nobise men of nature who exemplify the might, majesty and dominion of masi, and when he walked across a floor sorden discovery that she had more work than she could attend to, and from the advertisement which she promptly inserted in a morning paper.
