No 3 school closed April 22nd. The teacher Miss Crump is spending a few days with friends before returning to her home.

Hostesses is England are complaining this season more than ever of the personne of uninvited guests. A hostess cannot know all her guests by sight, and she seldom dares to risk offending by saking whether the supposed interioper has received an invitation. A duchess did that orce. The guest simply bowed and departed. The duchess learned she practically had turned out of her house the husband of one of her best friends. Having detectives present at large parties does not answer, as the uninvited guests are not criminals, but merely rowner mean who do it "for a lark."
