Slate Producing States

The States producing the largest amount of slate are Pennsylvania and Vermont. Pennsylvanians whose output in 1908 was valued at $2,902,958, furnishes more than half of the roofing slate and of the millling stock and is the only State reporting a production of blackboards and school slates. About one-fifth of the millling stock and more than one-third of the roofing slate were quarried in Vermont, whose output in 1908 was valued at $1,707,616. The other States producing slate in 1908 were Maine, whose output was valued at $213,707; Virginia, with an output valued at $194,356; New York and New Jersey, with an output worth $133,494; Maryland, which contributed $102,180 to the total value for the country; California, whose production was valued at $80,000; and Arkansas, with an output valued at $2,500.

SHERIFF'S SALE

By virtue of a writ of Levari Facias issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Pike County, to me directed, I will expose to sale by public vendue or outcry at the Sheriff's Office in the Borough of Milford on at 2 o'clock p. m. the following real estate, situate in the County of Pike, in the State of Pennsylvania, in the township of Delaware, and bounded and described as follows:

Being the north or northwest one-half of a 252 acre tract of land surveyed on land warrant issued by the land office of Pa., granted to Luke Brodhead and numbered on the Commissioners' Books in said County as lot No. 15, said part hereinafter conveyed being 249 rods long by 96 rods wide including a strip of ground on the northeast line of the said 252 acres extending from the southeast corner of the above tract along said northeast line to the turnpike running through said lot No. 15, said strip of land to be thirty (30) feet wide and included in the above boundary, making one hundred and twenty six acres be the same more or less and being the same land conveyed to me by J. A. Dougherty and wife by deed dated Feb 7th, 1901.

Henry VIII's Anthems Sung by Cathedral Choirs—Prince Albert's Works.
"The first of the English sovereigns who won fame as a composer was Henry VII. Many of his anthems are sung to-day by cathedral choirs. He also wrote a melodious effusion, 'Now Payre, Payrest off Every Payre,' to quote the original title, for the marriage of his sister Margaret with James IV. of Scotland, said Miss Alys Lorraine.
"Charles I. was another composer and I am including in my programme his effective setting of Thomas Carew's poem 'Mark how the Blasphemers Morn.'
"I think everybody knows that Queen Victoria was a fine singer and a good pianist, and the late Prince Consort was most zealous in popularizing the art in this country. The majority of Prince Albert's compositions have been collected and published. Of the present members of the royal family the most distinguished as a composer is Princess Henry of Battenberg.
"Turning aside to foreign courts the German Emperor has won some fame for his 'Song to Asgtr,' which is included in my programme. The late Duke Ernst II. of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha the brother of the Prince Consort composed several operas.
"Marine Antoinette will be represented in the programme by her setting of Florian's 'C'est Mon Ami,' and from the many works of the Brown monarch Anthony the Good, who died in 1836, I have chosen a song he composed in celebration of the birth of his nephew, Prince Clement.
"Who was the greatest royal composer? Well, I should think that honor might fall to the nephew of Frederick the Great, Prince Louis Ferdinand of Prussia, who was killed at the battle of Saalfeld."

Inventor of "Skat."
Skat, which has become the rival of bridge, and has displaced it in some circles, is a purely German game and Altenburg is its home. The earliest records on the subject show that it was evolved out of other-card games in 1817 by one Hoppel, a professor at the Altenburg college.

The Hand Eloquent.
A recent novel had the following passage: "With one hand he held the beautiful golden head above the buffeting waves, and with the other called loudly for assistance."

He Doesn't Need That Kid.
A man can generally get along very well without the respect which he loses for insisting on having what he is entitled to.

Downsday Book.
A book of the general survey of England, commenced in the reign of William I. (the Conqueror), about 1080, some say about 1085. It was intended to be a "register to determine the right in the tenure of estates, to discover the extent of any man's land, to fix his homage, and to settle the question of the military aid he was bound to furnish.

New Way to Make Hair Curl.
Quince seed tea is one of the newest recipes for making the hair curl. It is made by putting a tablespoonful of quince seed into a pint of water and boiling it. The clear tea then is drained off. Use this to moisten the hair before putting it into curlers. The glycerine and rosewater treatment suits certain hair. To make it, a teaspoonful of glycerine is added to half a cup of rosewater, and used in the manner already described. Orange flower water sprayed upon the front hair before it is waved will help to keep the coiffure a good shape. But the dampness must be well dried before the hair is curled or the tresses will scorch and change color. Hair that hangs limp can be made braver by a good shake in the air. It also may be sprinkled with tepid water and fanned dry. Obstinate hair in some cases is beneficially treated by the use of olive oil poured upon the hair and permitted to remain on for a quarter of an hour. The hair then is combed out and ventilated, after which it is lightly sprayed with hot water to remove the superfluous oil.

Notice of Application for Charter
Notice is hereby given, that an application will be made to the Governor of Pennsylvania, the same, as required by law, being first submitted to the Water Supply Commission of Pennsylvania, and having received the approval, or the approval of a majority, of the members thereof, on Thursday, the third day of June, A. D. 1909, by Philip F. Fulmer, Harry L. Brace and Warren R. Van Gorden, under the Act of Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations," approved April 25th 1874, and the supplements thereto, for the charter of an intended corporation to be called, "Dingman's Ferry Water Company," the character and object of which is the supply of water to the public, in the district comprised within the boundary of the township of Delaware, in the county of Pike and state of Pennsylvania, and for that purpose to have, possess and enjoy all the rights, benefits and privileges of said Act of Assembly and the supplements thereto.
