PAUPACK
B. F. Killam, who was making a short stay in Scranton was called home Tuesday on account of the illness of his wife. He was accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Edson Green. We are pleased to state that at present writing Mrs. Killam is improving and we hope she will soon fully recover.

Francis Killam is spending a short time at the home of her sister Mrs. Green, at Scranton.
Mrs. Clay Clark and daughter, Francis, are visiting the latter's grandmother, Mrs. W. H. Clark.
Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Pellett and children of Paterson are guests of C. A. Pellett and family.

Miss Frank Pellett returned to her home the latter part of the past week, after a short time spent with Mrs. Wilmer Hoppes at Greentown.
Miss Cranston and Mr. Long of Wilkes Barre are visitors at the home of the former's cousin J. R. Killam and wife.

Two of our neighbors left us last week. Mr. Tyler and family and Mr. Fanatta and family moved from here to York State where they intend engaging in the lumber business.
Arthur and Angell Gumble also left for the above mentioned place, where they have employment, the 23rd. We wish them all the best of success.

At the home of Miss Ester Killam on Monday evening last, a number of the young people of this place, whiled away the evening hours in "tripping the light fantastic toe" while the time slipped quickly by and another day was born, when refreshments were served and the young friends returned to their homes much pleased with the enjoyment of the few hours just passed.

The ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. Augusta Bennett, Thursday last where a very pleasant day was spent.
Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig and daughter Ruth are making a visit of a week or two at the home of Mrs. Ludwig's parents, Sri Trivelpic and wife.

D. E. Hill's Hat.
David E. Hill, former Governor of the State and Senator from New York, has a secluded habitation somewhere in the State who makes his high hats after elaborate plans drawn by Mr. Hill many years ago, and not changed since.
One night ex-Governor Odell, of New York, was giving a reception in Albany, and Mr. Roosevelt, then elected Vice-President, met Mr. Hill on the steps of the New York Executive Mansion.
Roosevelt wore a black rough rider hat and Hill had one of his peculiar skyrockets.

"Senator," said Roosevelt, "you should wear a hat like this one that I have on. They are much easier on the head, preserve the hair and are altogether better than silk ones."
Mr. Hill looked at the coming Vice-President. "My dear sir," he said, "I haven't worn a hat like that since I went out of the show business."

Corned.
Five young men went into a shop recently to buy a hat each. Seeing they were in a joking mood, the shopman said:
"Are you married?"
They each said "Yes."
"Then I'll give a hat to the one who can truthfully say he has not kissed any other woman but his own wife since he was married."
"Hand over that hat," said one of the party. "I've won it."
"When were you married?"
"Yesterday," was the reply, and the hat was handed over.
One of the others was laughing heartily while telling his wife the joke, but suddenly pulled up when she said:
"I say, John, how was it you didn't bring one?"
The Artistic Nature.
An eminent painter was once asked if he thought art students did well to go to the continent to study. He said that undoubtedly the atmosphere was more artistic in Europe than anywhere else, but that Paris, as a city to study and work in, was overrated.
To illustrate his meaning, he said that a certain rich man's son, after three years in Paris, wrote home to his father:
"Dear Father—I have made up my mind to set to work. Please let me know at your earliest convenience whether it is painting, architecture, or music I ought to Paris to study."
