George S. Purdy, of Honesdale Pa. Judge of the 22 district, died at Mt. Clemens, Michigan where he was for his health, Wednesday morning.

He was born in Wayne county Jan. 24, 1839.

In 1853 he was a candidate for Judge and was defeated but in 1893 was elected in the Wayne-Pike district, and in 1904 the district being divided was reelected in Wayne.

He was an excellent judge, a man of fine character and studious, methodical habits. His decisions were marked by fairness and displayed research and legal acumen. The remains were brought to his late home yesterday for interment.

The funeral will be held Saturday at 2.30 o'clock.

Mrs. E. T. Reviera is visiting in Brookline, Mass.

PAUPACK

Mrs. B. F. Killam—we are pleased to hear—is improving under the care of her doctor and a trained nurse from Scranton.

Mrs. W. H. Clark who has also been on the list of sick for the past week is improving. We wish them both a rapid recovery.

George Blossom and wife and Mrs. P. R. Cross of Hawley attended services at the church here last Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart and daughter of Scranton are guests at the home of George Ausley.

George Spangenberg moved his saw mill from opposite Mrs. M. N. B. Killam's the latter part of the week.

At the home of Henry Fowler, Saturday last a dance was given to the young people of this place. All present spent a pleasant evening when refreshments were served and the jolly crowd bade their hostess good night declaring they all had a very good time.

The Ladies Aid met with Mrs. J. G. Killam Thursday, Sept. 2nd.

SAFE AND SURE.

Among the medicines that are recommended and endorsed by physicians and nurses is Kemp's Balsam, the best cough cure. For many years it has been regarded by doctors as the medicine most likely to cure coughs, and it has a strong hold on the minds of all well-informed people. When Kemp's Balsam cures a cough we shall be at a loss to know what will. At druggists' and dealers', etc.

The Road To Success has many obstructions, but none so desperate as poor health. Success today demands health, but Electric Bitters is the greatest health builder the world has ever known. It compels perfect action of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, purifies and enriches the blood, and tones and invigorates the whole system. Vigorous body and keen brain follow their use. You can't afford to slight Electric Bitters if weak, run-down or sickly. Only 50c. Guaranteed by All Druggists.

KIMBLE

George Ansley and son Leonard of Paupack visited Elwood Williams recently.

Minnie Baker and a lady friend of Newark and Gusie Baker of Scranton visited David Burr and family last week.

Charles Mahne and wife of Poed Eddy and three children spent a few days here with relatives and returned home Monday.

Mrs. Andrew Gelderman and Mrs. F. L. Decker visited relatives at Hawley last week.

J. W. Walker and wife of New York are spending their vacation of two weeks at Fred Cassels.

Mrs. Addie Snyder of Nashville, Tenn. is visiting relatives here.

WHAT A WOMAN WILL NOT DO

There is nothing a woman would not do to regain her lost beauty. She ought to be fully as anxious to preserve her good looks. The herb drink called Lane's Family Medicine or Lane's Tea is the most efficient aid in preserving a beautiful skin and will do more than anything else to restore the roses to faded cheeks. At all druggists' and dealers', 25c.

AUDITOR'S NOTICE

Decker, Administratrix of said estate, as shown by her final account, to and amongst the parties entitled thereto, and make report at next term; etc., will attend to the duties of his appointment and meet the parties interested, at his office S. E. corner Ann and Third streets, in the Borough of Milford, Pa., on Monday, the 20th day of September, A. D. 1909, at 2 o'clock P. M., of said day, where and when all parties having claims upon said funds, or entitled to share therein, are required to present their claims, or be debarred from coming in for a share of such funds.

HY. T. BAKER, Auditor. Milford, Pa., Aug. 14, 1909.

Keeping Up His Reputation

A friend, who lived in another city had repeatedly promised our children one of his fine dogs, which, as he never lost an opportunity to remark, had an unusually long pedigree.

One day, as I was returning home, the children ran to meet me and one of them cried, Oh, sister, Mr. R. has sent the dog. Do come back to the stable to see it. It has the longest pedigree and it just wags its tail.

—The Deliverator for September.

Last Articles Department. Bridget, who had administered the culinary affairs of the Morse household for many years, was sometimes torn between her devotion to her mistress and loyalty to the small son of the house.

"Bridget," said Mrs. Morse, in a tone of wonder, after an inspection of the storeroom, "where have those splendid red apples gone that the man brought yesterday—those four big ones?"

"Well, now, ma'am," said poor Bridget, "I couldn't rightly say; but I'm thinkin' if you was to find where my loaf o' hot gingerbread is, likely thin four red apples would be lyin' right on top of it, an' I'm only hopin' his little stummick can stand the strain."

Not Included. After the dry-goods salesman had completed his business with Cyrus Craig, Centerville's one storekeeper, he asked what was going on in the town. "Had any entertainments this winter?" he inquired.

"No," said Mr. Craig. "Not one. Salome Howe's pupils have given two concerts, piano and organ, and the principal of the academy has lectured twice, once on 'Our National Forests' and once on 'Stones as I know them'; but as far as entertainments are concerned, Centerville hasn't got round to 'em yet, this winter."

Father's Joy. It is surprising how little money a man can get along on when his family needs it all, says a writer in Life. "Perkins looks very happy these days."

"He has reason to," Brown replied. "After his wife and children had been fitted out with their winter wardrobes he found there was enough left to have a new collar put on his overcoat."

He Said It. "Horace," remarked Mrs. Pigtree, "we are going to have company at dinner, and I do wish you would brighten up and look less like an honorary pallbearer. Say something humorous."

The company, and, with a few preliminary coughs and sneezes, which were intended to announce to his wife that the witicism was about to be perpetrated, Mr. Pigtree said timidly, "Mary."

"Yes, dear; what is it?" asked Mrs. Pigtree graciously.

"Have you got all of your hair on this evening?"
