The result of the election in this Borough and School District simply indicates that the people have grown in independence and intelligence and are willing no longer to ratify the acts of the few who presume to prescribe candidates and party methods. No healthier sign can be found in any community than the courage of citizens to elect men as officials who will do their duty without fear or favor and for the best interests of the people.

The Miss Floercke who killed herself with a revolver last week in Philadelphia was a guest in Milford some years ago and is well remembered by several here. Miss Nancy Olmsted died at the home of her niece in this borough last Saturday afternoon aged about 88 years. Her former residence was in Dingman township where she lived with her brother the late F. R. at one time an Associate Judge. The funeral was held Wednesday and interment in Milford Cemetery. The ladies of the Presbyterian Congregation will have a turkey supper in the church parlors next Tuesday evening. A very attractive repast will be provided at a very modest price and it will pay to take note of the occasion. Rather Dubious. "Yes, ma'am; this is genuine spring lamb," declared the butcher. "Which spring?" asked the careful housewife.
