Succeed when everything else fails. In nervous prostration and female weakness they are the supreme remedy, as thousands have testified.

FOR KIDNEY, LIVER AND STOMACH TROUBLE it is the best medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter.

PIKE COUNTY ASSESSMENTS.

The basis for the tax assessment in this county, as fixed nine years ago when the assessment was raised $458,358 was one third to one half value, but gradually through Appeals, Adjustments, increased cost of building etc. it has been dropped in some sections to less than one third value; this was particularly true in Greene township at the triennial assessment three years ago, when the assessment on all buildings in that township was increased. The action of the board of revision for the present triennial year in adopting and setting on the following resolution:

"Whereas believing that Buildings, Houses, Barns, etc., as assessed and rated by the assessor, for the year 1910, in Matamoras Borough, are rated and assessed to at least 10 per cent lower value than like Buildings, Houses, Barns, etc., in Milford Boro. and the various townships of the county, therefore be it Resolved: That the valuations on all Buildings, Barns, Houses, etc., in Matamoras Borough, as returned by the assessor for 1910, be and are hereby increased ten per centum (10%)." — is meeting with much adverse criticism, which it would seem, is not sustained by the facts. Below are given some figures taken from the assessment of Matamoras Boro., at random, after the 10 per cent had been added; and anyone at all conversant with values, or that has gone through the ordeal of building, will rapidly see that in most instances these properties are still, rated low, and but few rated high in comparison with like properties elsewhere in the county.

MAST HOPE

When Perry Davis was chopping last Thursday, the axe glanced and out his leg quite badly just above the shoe top.

W. J. Stamp returned home Saturday from a trip thru Mass, Vermont and New Hampshire. Sunday he and his wife enjoyed a sleigh ride to Fred Schottis.

S. J. Hankins and wife drove to Lava Sunday to visit their daughter Hazel Ruptky.

Miss Maggie Dabron who has been ill with rheumatism is improving.

Sunday night was another freezing one. The eddy froze over again, so that the mail was carried on the ice Tuesday.

N. R. Hankins of Atco entertained his parents last Thursday night.

Fred Altana and Percy Hankins are suffering with frozen feet.

ARMORCLAD BIRD'S NEST.

Sixty-six Nails, Also Wire and Pins Woven into It.

"In the Argentine Republic," says a writer in the Strand, "where the summers are long and hot, it is customary to leave the windows open both day and night during the hottest part of the year.

"A bird, taking advantage of this, proceeded to build a nest in my room, fixing it firmly to one of the Venetian blinds over the window. The eggs were hatched and the young birds fledged.

"On taking down the empty nest I found it to be practically armorclad, the outer part being composed almost entirely of old rusty nails woven in among the bay.

On counting the nails I found that no fewer than sixty-six had been used, beside some wire and pins taken from my dressing table. The bird was about the size of a robin and very tame."

Ever increasing Beggars of Bombay. The nuisance caused by beggars in Bombay has assumed unbearable proportions. The Oriental practice charity as a religious obligation and relieve poverty where they find it.

Reminiscence from Kabir and Marshall never fail to touch the innermost chords of the natives with their innate reverence for spiritualism, and the fakir backs up his appeal for alms with profuse quotations from the poets. Then there are lay beggars and religious beggars, the ash besmeared ascetics who practice mendacity as a hereditary profession. Last and not least are unfortunate sufferers whom the loss of limbs or eyes or some fell disease disables for work and drives them to beggary as the last resource. These latter have genuine claim on our charity, but as there are so few asylums in India for the halt, the maim and the blind the streets and byways of towns are flooded with beggars, pitiful types of suffering humanity.—From the Rash Grafters.

His Simple Statement.

Fanny Kemble, the famous actress, was a warm supporter of "Women's Rights," and one evening at dinner she was seated next "Poodle Byng," a well-known man about town. The conversation turned on "women's rights," and Fanny Kemble expressed her views with so much vehemence that Mr. Byng took refuge in polite silence. After finishing a brilliant tirade, she turned to her neighbor and looked at her with a half smile, and answered her in five words: "I don't agree with you!"

A Boomerang. At a small country boarding-house sort "down in ole Virginie," this past summer, the girls decided to give a dance in the town hall on the mutual benefit plan, so to speak. Half of the expenses of the hall, music and refreshments, it was planned, should be borne by the men and the other half by the men. The fair chairman of the refreshment committee, in shortening the prospective dancers to make no mistake in the details agreed upon, wrote:

"The girls will furnish the sugar and the men will bring the lemons."

Coffins Made of Paper. Some undertakers, whose customers are poor people, are using coffins made of paper. The coffins are made in all styles of pressed paper pulp, just the same as the common paper buckets. When they are varnished and stained they resemble polished wood, and in point of durability it is claimed they are much better than wooden ones.

A Quandary. "A necklace of diamonds has been stolen from me!" said Mrs. Cumrox. "Aren't you going to notify the police?" "I don't know what to do. It does seem rather classy to be robbed of jewelry, and yet I hate to have people think I'd ever miss a little thing like a necklace."

The Right Place. The Tramp—"Ah, Mister, what would you do if you felt like you did not have a friend in the world?" The Rich Man—"What would I do? Why, I'd apply for a job as baseball umpire, of course."—Chicago News.

Women Draw Large Salaries. Probably the highest paid women in the United States civil service are two young women translators of French and Spanish, employed at the bureau of American republics. They receive $2,400 a year.

The Retort Courteous. Spinster—"Aren't you weary of waiting for him to come?" Matron—"And aren't you weary of having no one to wait for?"—Illustrated Bits.

Facts as to Business. A very large proportion of people think business is a gold-mine and conduct it as such. As a matter of fact, it is quite otherwise.—Judge Parry.

FOR THE CONTRIBUTION BOX.

A Convenient Arrangement for Giving Early and Often.

A custom among attendants of the Greek Church at Trebbond explains the use of certain tokens which have been presented to the American Numismatic Society in this city.

According to the Journal of the society sometimes several collections are made during the service in these churches. Even should there be but one, the visitor may desire to make a special contribution at the shrine or picture of some of the saints whose impression he desires to secure, or he may wish to purchase a candle for use in some of the ceremonials in public or private devotions.

On entering the church, therefore, he exchanges a certain sum of money with the deacon at the gate for an equivalent amount of these tokens. He is thus able to respond to the calls for the various offerings during the service or to deposit his gift at the shrine of the saint by using one or more of these tokens as he may be disposed, yet without any heavy demand on his purse. These church tokens are sometimes of brass and sometimes of paper.

Value of "Stooping." Always be civil. Try to treat rich and poor alike. Is not the poor man's 25 shillings as good as the rich man's pound? The working man's wife, with her basket on her arm, says Sir Thomas Lipton in the Strand, is entitled to as much respect as the lady who comes in her carriage. When Benjamin Franklin was ambassador at the French court, speaking to a young man, he said: "The last time I saw poor father he received me in his study. As I was leaving he showed me a short way out of the house through a narrow passage crossed by a beam overhead. Suddenly he cried: 'Stoop! Stoop!' I did not understand what he meant until I felt my head bump against the beam. He was a man who never failed to give good advice. 'You are going to be a great man, but you must stoop through it, and you will miss many hard things.' I have never failed to be impressed by this lesson of humility.

Results Becoming Manifest.

A year ago the rate of increase among tuberculosis organizations and institutions was one every other day, only one-half as fast as now. Less than a year ago there were 46 dispensaries for every hospital bed provided. To-day the number has been reduced to 30. Nearly 20,000 beds are now provided in institutions for treatment of consumption, an increase of over 5,000. The number of special tuberculosis dispensaries in the United States has more than doubled, the number of anti-tuberculosis associations has increased 65 per cent, and the number of hospitals and sanatoria 43 per cent.

First Love. It is a popular fallacy that the first love is the true one, unique in its excellence, says an exchange. As well say that the first picture of a painter is the best of all he will paint in the course of his life; that the first speech, the first book, the first statue, the first composition, will be the best of the statesman, novelist, sculptor or musician, as the case may be. First works have all the imperfections of uncertainty, of inexperience and ignorance. And it is rather by chance than by anything inherent in the nature of Cupid's ways that the first love turns out to be the greatest one.

Origin of Pasquinades.

Pasquinades is a term frequently applied to anonymous publications of a satiric or libelous nature, sometimes written and sometimes printed. They derive their name from one Pasquino, a witty tailor, who dwelt at Rome at the close of the fifteenth century, and delighted his patrons with his sarcastic humor.

Venerate the Turtle.

At a place called Kotron, on the French Ivory coast of Africa, the natives believe that to eat or destroy a turtle would mean death to the guilty one or sickness in his family.

Caused Suspicion.

"Looks like a good man," said Hawkins. "But great Scott! When I shook hands it sounded like I was shaking dice."—Harper's Weekly.

Coinage of World's Mints.

The coinage value of the gold and silver of the mints of the world in 1907, totaled $4,983,002,850.

It is getting so that it is harder to find a gentleman than a genius.—Phyllistie.

Red Sea Petroleum.

A year ago the announcement was made of the discovery of petroleum on the shore of the Red Sea. Since then a well has been sunk to a depth of 1,400 feet, the estimated daily yield of which is 300 barrels. The petroleum strata are found at Jemah, on the African shore of the sea, about 150 miles south of Suez.

Government's Perquisite.

The French government takes 15 per cent. of all the money staked at the casinos of the seaside and other health resorts on the little horses and other gambling devices. For the season of 1908-09 this percentage amounted to $943,352, the summer season naturally contributing the greater part—over $600,000.

Quality That All Admire.

Clear grit always commands respect. It is the quality which achieves something, and everybody admires achievement.

Determined to Succeed.

Napoleon had conquered Europe in imagination before he saw Jena or Austerlitz. When only ten years of age, from the military school at Brienne, he wrote to his mother in Corsica: "With Homer in my pocket, and my sword by my side, I have to serve my way through the world."
