J. H. VAN ETTEN, PUBLISHER.

Why certain prominent citizens of Milford insist on calling down public condemnation of their acts in the matter of trying to infringe on public property and trespassing on the rights of others is one of those questions hard to answer. The maxim of the law is to use your own as not to injure others and when flagrant attempts are made to nullify this rule the reaction generally proves detrimental to those who ignore it. A fire is easily started but often is difficult to control. The town must either progress or retrograde, morally and physically, and when we have only one source with which to build it up private greed should not be permitted to interfere with its comfort and attractiveness. There is a point where forbearance ceases to be a virtue, and when public sentiment is fully aroused it often makes itself felt in no uncertain manner. That is not a threat it is a law of self protection, which is the highest law of nature.

The settlement of the Carmens strike in Philadelphia which seemed about to be made was interrupted by the men after the transit company had practically acceded to all their demands. This action shifts the burden on the strikers.

The wave of what seems a vast revelation of iniquity now passing over the country will likely clear the atmosphere somewhat. It looks as though officials have been steeped in graft, but their exposure and punishment may operate on their successors as an incentive to civic righteousness. The example of reputations ruined and fortunes dissipated should have a deterrent effect on those who may be willing to sell themselves for a mess of pottage.

DO YOU FEEL LIKE THIS?

Does your head ache or simply feel heavy and uncomfortable? Does your back ache? Do you feel fagged out? The tonic laxative herb tea known as Lane's Family Medicine will cure your head, remove the pain in side or back, and restore your strength. Nothing else is so good for the stomach and bowels. At druggists and dealers' 50c.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any disease that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHEENEY & CO., Tol. O Sold by all druggists, 75 cents. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

KIMBLE

R. W. Kelly sold his old canal stable to a party at Honesdale who took it down last week. The old landmarks of the D & H are passing away.

Lot Daniels, who is in very poor health, had a slight shock of paralysis in his limbs last week (Friday) and does not improve.

George Decker and wife of Rowlands visited the former's mother, Mrs. R. T. Decker Saturday and Sunday.

Mae Kimble is on the sick list with no hope of her recovery. John Ploss and Herman Darling of Blooming Grove were in town Monday and dehorned M. C. Rowland and R. W. Kelly's cows.

Rumor has it that the Milford Inn has been sold to Henry and Albert Caterill.

Mrs. Isabella F. Wright of N. Y. was a visitor in town this week. Geo. R. Bull Esq. spent last Sunday with his family at Pleasant Point N. J. where they are staying with Dr. and Mrs. Reed.

Remember the entertainment in Brown's Hall next Tuesday evening March 29. Benefit of V. I. A.

Our neighbor advises everybody to clean their premises. Excellent idea, and perhaps suggested by a glance out of its back windows.

DON'T BE MISLED.

Many a life has been cut short by a cough that was not believed to be serious. Many a backache and sideache follows a coughing spell. Many a night is passed in restlessness caused by coughing. Do not be misled. If you cough, take the old reliable Kemp's Balsam, the best cough cure. At druggists' and dealers', 50c.

OBITUARY

WESLEY WATSON.

Mr. Watson a life long resident of this place died at his home in the Borough yesterday 10:30 March 24, after a long illness of general debility. He was born March 2, 1832 and was a son of the late William and Mary Cameron Watson. He served in the Civil War and was a corporal in Co. B. 151 Pa Vol and among other engagements took part in the battle of Gettysburg. He was a carpenter and worked at his trade until incapacitated by sickness. He is survived by his widow, two sons Chauncey and Harry and one daughter Gertrude. The funeral will be held Sunday and in terment in Milford Cemetery.

FARM FOR SALE.

The farm now occupied by Mrs. Joseph Carhuff in Delaware township containing about fifty four acres thirty cleared. Good dwelling, barn and other outbuildings. Also excellent fruit on the place.

For terms etc. enquire on the premises of Mrs. JOSEPH G. CARHUFF Delaware township.

Music-Loving Cows.

Music pleases man and beast. The author of the book of Job records the effects of the trumpet on the horse, and a writer in the American Naturalist tells of a herd of cows that was greatly moved by the music of a band. Twelve or thirteen cows in a herd were grazing in a large field opposite a dwelling house. One day a German band began playing on the road dividing the house from the field. No sooner did the cows hear the music than they came from the farther end of the field, and standing with their heads over the dividing stone fence quietly listened to the music. On the departure of the musicians, the cows followed them as far as they could on the other side of the wall. When they could go no farther, they stood lowing piteously. Some of them became so excited that they ran round and round the field, seeking to get out. Finding no outlet, they returned to the corner where they had lost sight of the band and remained there for a long time.

More Exclusive in Philadelphia.

The story is told of an elderly woman, a member of the "inner circle" of Philadelphia society, who was much affected by the news of the death of a man of social aspirations which had not, it is said to relate, been aided by his well known benevolence.

"Mr. Blank was in many respects an admirable character," said the old lady, "and it was a real pity that his lowly origin made impossible our recognition of him. Poor, dear, vulgar creature! We could not know him in Philadelphia, but we shall meet him in heaven!"—Lippincott's.

Women Could Stop Baldheads.

Women are to blame for everything if they did not love bald-headed men so devotedly. Bald-headed men would not be able to marry so easily and happiness would be no more, for baldness is largely hereditary, and is transmitted by the father or even by the mother if there is baldness among her male ancestry, father or grand fathers, as far back as Noah.

Test for Drinking Water.

To ascertain if water is free from organic pollution, place a lump of sugar in a bottle nearly full and cork up. If, after thus excluding the air and keeping the bottle in the light for two or three days, the milky cloud is apparent, but the water remains clear, then it may be considered free from the phosphates with which sewage water is impregnated.

Innovations in the Vatican.

In his apartments in the Vatican the pope has a piano and a phonograph. These are innovations. The violin is also a favorite instrument of the pope and in his younger days he was considered a master of the bow.—The Deileator.

Bible Chapters.

The Bible chapters number 1,189, of which 525 are in the Old Testament and 660 in the New.

The Better Part of Courage.

"I admire courage," said Uncle Eben, "but I doesn't blame a man for gettin' out'n de way when he ain't got no show. Dar wouldn't be no sense at all in a mouse tryin' to fight a cat."

Codfish and Flounder.

Some authorities say the flounder is only a codfish with a flattened head.

PORT JERVIS

Disliked Publicity.
"Young man," the rising statesman said to the reporter, "newspaper notoriety is exceedingly distasteful to me, but since you have asked me to give you some of the particulars of the leading events in my life I will comply. I do so, however, with great reluctance." Here he took a typewritten sheet from a drawer in his desk and handed it to the reporter. "I suppose, of course," he added, "you will want my portrait, and, although I dislike anything that savors of undue publicity, I can do no less than comply with your wish." Here he took a large photograph from a pile in another drawer and gave it to the reporter. "An anecdotal note concerning my self," he added, "you will find in this printed leaflet, as well as particulars of my earlier and later life. When it appears in print you may send me one hundred and fifty copies of the paper."

Children and Fools.

The boy was an idiot. His head was twice the normal size, and he would sit for hours without speaking. However, when he did emit a remark, it was sure to be startling, and couched in apt language. One day, an extremely "plain" old maid was calling on his mother. After a long period of apparently thoughtless silence, the idiot remarked suddenly, "Do you know, Miss Perkins, you are absolutely in agony, the mother turned to him. "Charlie, do not let me ever hear you make such a remark again," she cried severely. "Mother," quoth the idiot, "I never shall have occasion to."

St. Bernard Monastery.

At present the monastery of St. Bernard costs about $100 a year to keep up. This money is partly collected in Switzerland and partly derived from the revenue of the monastic order.

Misery.

The neighbor's dog sits out on the front lawn and howls dismally. The man in the window looks out and yells: "Sh-h-h, you beast!" The dog continues to howl. The man again comes to the window and this time hurls a shoe at the dog. Still the animal howls. Another shoe follows. The next day the man's wife goes around in her stocking feet because she can't find her shoes. The man hasn't the price of another pair of shoes for her, and the next night the dog howls louder than ever.
