MISCELLANY.

A PRETTY CHALLENGE.—The editor of the Philadelphia Galaxy received the following lines from a fair one:

Permit a giddy, trifling girl
For once to fill your poet's corner;
She cares not how the critics snarl,
Or beaux or macaronies scorn her;
She longs in print her lines to see,
Oblige her, (sure you can't refuse it,)
And if you find her out, your fee
Shall be—TO KISS HER—if you choose it.

KATE.

BE KIND.

A single word, a single tone
Of kindness to the saddened heart,
Like dew-drops on the desert strewn,
Is full of blessed healing art.

The soul can bear the keenest ill,
The deepest wo, the sharpest pain,
If friendship smiles upon it still
One loving look—nor e'er complain!

Unkindness is our hardest fate,
The poverty, surpassing all
That makes life drear and desolate,
And turns its sweetness into gall.

They cost not much—a word, a tone,
What heart so poor can yield them not?
And who so free, but yet may own
That smiles can cheer the darkest lot?

O, kindred as we are by birth,
And linked through all life's stormy day,
Our hearts like fragile flowers of earth
Grow bright, if kindness cheers the way.

Be kind to all! the best have erred;
The truest falter'd, and yet turn'd
To hear some gentle tone or word,
Which said "not altogether spurned."

The Home Journal is responsible for the following Parisian sketch:

A stocking merchant of Paris appeared, a year ago, with his wife, before a justice of peace. They wished the terms arranged for a divorce by mutual consent. There was one great difficulty, however. They had three children, and each parent wished to take two. By the Judges advice, they deferred the separation for another year, with the view to the addition of another child to make the division even. The year expired recently, and they reappeared before the magistrate, but in greater difficulty than at first. The instructions had been followed without loss of time, but having resulted in the birth of twins, the number was still odd. The Judge recommended another trial.

Nonsulting a Creditor.

There was a certain lawyer on the Cape a long time ago, the only one in those diggins then, and for aught I know, at present. He was a man well to do in this world, and what was somewhat surprising in a limb of the law, averse to encouraging litigation. One day a client came to him in a violent rage. 'Look-a here, Squire,' said he, 'that 'ere blasted shoemaker down to Pigon Cove has gone and sued me for the money for a pair of boots, I owed him.' 'Did the boots suit you?' 'Oh yes—I've got 'em on—fust rate boots.' 'Fair price?' 'Oh, yes.' 'Then you owe him the money honestly.' 'Course.' 'Well, why dont you pay him?' 'Why, 'cause the blasted snob went and sued me, and I want to keep him out of the money if I kin.' It will cost you something.' 'I dont keer a cuss for that. How much do you want to begin with?' 'Oh ten dollars will do.' Is that all?' Well here's an X, so go ahead,' and the client went out very well satisfied with the beginning.

'Our lawyer next called on the shoemaker and asked him what he meant by commencing legal proceedings against M———. 'Why,' said he, 'I kept on sendin' for the money till I got tired. I know'd he was able to pay—and I was 'termined to make him. That's the long and short of it.' 'Well,' said the lawyer—he's always been a good customer to you, and I think you acted too hastily. There is a trifle to pay on account of your proceedings—but I think you'd better take this five dollars and call it square.' 'Certain—Squire—if you say so—and darn glad to get it,' was the answer. So the lawyer forked over one V and kept the other. In a few days his client came along and asked him how he got on with his case. 'Rapidly,' said the lawyer—'we've nonsuited him. He'll never trouble you.' 'Jerusalem! that's great!' cried the client. 'I'd rather a gin fifty dollars than have had him got the money for them boots.'—Spirit of the Times.

WESTERN ETIQUETTE.—The Yankee out West, who recently wrote home to his mother that he had seen a live Hoosier, has sent another epistle on western etiquette. He writes:—

'Western people go their death on etiquette. You can't tell a man here that he lies, as you can down East, without fighting. A few days ago, a man was telling two of his neighbors, in my hearing, a pretty large story. 'Says I 'stranger that's a whopper.' Says he, 'lay there, stranger!' and in the twinkling of an eye I found myself in a ditch, a perfect quadruped, the worse for tear and wear.

Upon another occasion, says I to a man I never saw before, as a woman passed him, 'that is'nt a specimen of your western women, is it?' Says he, 'You're afraid of the fever and ague, stranger, ain't you?' 'Very much,' says I. 'Well replied, he, 'that lady is my wife, and if you don't apologize, in two minutes, by the honor of a gentleman, I swear these two pistols,' which he held cocked in his hand, 'shall cure you of the disorder entirely—so don't fear stranger.' So I knelt down and apologized.

I admire the western country much, but curse me if I can stand so much etiquette. It has always taken me unawares.'

Graves are but the prints of the footsteps of the angel of eternal life.

NO CURE, NO PAY.
HYDRO FASHIONIC DOCTOR.

BY the latest advices, the cholory was raging in the North, and the Lock-jaw in the North-east, carrying consternation; many were throwing away their coats, vests, &c., exciting the acutest anguish, in the minds of the benevolent; equalled only by the late famine in Ireland. Now, I do not say, that all diseases can be cured by me, but MY RULE invariably throws the patient into fits, which is probably the best remedy known for chronic complaints. And as I have had great practice, it is easy for me to tell the particular malady, by looking at the outer garment.

MORE EVIDENCE OF THE VIRTUES OF JAYNE'S FAMILY MEDICINES.

Dr. J. N. Smith, Winsboro', N. C., says—Some of your Family Medicines have reached this part of the country. They seem to do much good, and are eagerly sought after by all who are acquainted with their medicinal virtues. I should be glad to have an Agency for the sale of them, as I flatter myself, that my reputation as a Physician is such, as will promote your interest in their sale. The Exectorant appears to be in the greatest demand here.

Mr. J. H. Wallace, Milford, Pa., says—The first six months very little Medicine was sold, excepting your Worm Medicine, which was soon disposed of. It is but a short time since the Expectorant was much called for. I had used one bottle in my family, and found it an excellent Medicine for colds. This spring there have been an unusual number of persons complaining of heavy Colds, and the most of them have found relief by using your Expectorant.

Mr. Thos. M. Turner, Savannah, Geo., says—We have been very successful in selling your Alterative, and we have but a few bottles left; we wish you to send us a Gross by the first Vessel.

Messrs. Whitney & Laflin, Mount Morris, N. Y., say—We are about out of your Vermifuge and Hair Dye, and have daily calls for the Vermifuge, which stands very high in this section. The sales of all your Medicines have been good, and continues to increase.

Ezra Tuttle, Willoughby, Ohio, says—Your Vermifuge and Pills sell very readily here—I could have sold much more of them if I had them.

E. P. Steadman, Mayville, N. Y., says: I find your Vermifuge and Expectorant give good satisfaction, and we should be glad to have another lot.

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF JAYNE'S FAMILY MEDICINES.

J. W. Goodson, Bellevue, Ohio, says—Your medicines sold have given very general satisfaction, and the demand is increasing. The Carminative Balsam is selling well.

D. Beaver, Winchester, Preble Co., Ohio, says—Your Expectorant is getting very popular, and in fact taking the place of all other medicines of the kind. Your Vermifuge is deservedly popular, as also your Carminative Balsam and Pills, and require no certificate to recommend them.

D. A. Barrows, Galena, Ill., June, 1845, says—I am out of your Vermifuge, and wish you send me some as soon as possible, as I have calls for it every day.—also send more Sanative Pills. I am also nearly out of Expectorant and Hair Tonic. I have sold considerably by the dozen.

Jesse M. Allen, Columbiana, Ohio, April 1, 1845, says, You will perceive that I have sold all your Vermifuge, and I may tell you that I have been out for a long time, with a great many calls for it. Your Vermifuge particularly stands deservedly high as a Worm medicine, and has uniformly been attended with good effect. Please forward as soon as possible.

Williams & Haywood, Raleigh, N. C. June, 1845, say—Send us a fresh supply of your medicines. Your Carminative Balsam is highly spoken of by all who have used it.

C. O. Wilson & Co., Portland, Me., Aug. 20, 1845, say—We wish you to send us some more of your Carminative Balsam. Your medicines sell rapidly this summer. The Balsam and Vermifuge give good satisfaction.

A. N. Williams, Parkersburg, Va., says; Your Carminative Balsam, I tried in the case of an infant of my own, afflicted with Diarrhœa and Hepatic derangement, with marked success.

HYER'S PILLS.
The American Improved
Hygeian Vegetable Medicine.

THESE Pills are one of the best Medical Compounds in use at the present day.—As a common family physic, for administration in all temporary complaints of the stomach and bowels, head ache, colds, &c., they may be fully depended upon, and a prompt use of them on the first appearance of indisposition will invariably save much sickness. They are peculiarly adapted to all cases of weakness and general debility—any derangement of the system, and especially with females—and a steady, uninterrupted use of them, in strict conformity with the directions will very soon restore the organs of the stomach to their natural tone and action, and regulate the bowels, and renovate the whole system.

There is no disposition to give extravagant commendations of them. What is here stated, is the result of actual experience with them, and that through a period of fifteen years. It is not supposed, or pretended, that they will raise the dead; neither are they designed to be used as freely as we use our FOOD! Such is not the true purpose of medicine. Its only appropriate office is to assist nature in restoring the system to a proper tone and action, when unheedfully, or through carelessness or excess, it becomes deranged. Many are careless, and hence need this aid. And the most careful are liable to irregularities of the system. It is needless almost to say, that a prompt use of safe and effective remedies, on the first appearance of illness, is the part of wisdom. ☞ Such a Medicine the Proprietor knows these Pills to be. ☜ And he is certain that in forty nine cases out of fifty, where a fair trial is made according to the directions they will be used again as a standard medicine. He has never known an instance, where they have been thus used, in which they have not met with UNQUALIFIED APPROVAL!

Numerous testimonials may be seen at the General Office of sale, and references will be given to substantial living witnesses of their valuable curative properties.

The Pills are purely vegetable, are of two kinds, stimulant and purgative, purifying the blood, and producing a healthy action through the entire system; are a valuable Anti Bilious Medicine, and eminently useful to all lingering complaints—Weakness, General Debility, Dyspepsy, Pulmonary Affections, Liver Complaints Rheumatic and Spasmodic Affections, Female Complaints, Palpitations, &c.

No family, after a fair trial, will be without them.

They are put up in FIFTY CENT and DOLLAR PACKAGES, each having a pamphlet embracing a valuable Treatise on Disease, with full directions for use. The Dollar packages are the cheapest to the purchaser. They may be ordered through Druggists, giving the Street and No. of the General Depot.

GREAT AMERICAN REMEDY
WESTERN NEW YORK
COLLEGE OF HEALTH,
207 Main street, Buffalo, N. Y.

DR. G. C. VAUGHN'S VEGETABLE LITHONTRIPTIC ADVERTISEMENT FOR 1847.—"I CAME. I SAW. I CONQUERED," is most emphatically the case with this article. Disease has ever yielded to its most marvellous medical power.—Wherever it has gone, and South America, England, Canada, and the United States have proved the truth of this statement, the above quotation in a strong and pithy sentence, tells the whole story. Invalids, the principle upon which you are cured may not be known to you, but the result of a trial of the article is satisfactory; you are restored, and the secret of the cure remains with the proprietor. The Medicine is a compound of 22 distinct vegetable agencies; each individual root has its own particular, exclusive, medicinal property, conflicting with no other compound—each root makes its own cure—and as a perfect combination, when taken into the system, it does the work which NATURE, when her laws were first established, intended it should do—purifies, strengthens, and restores the broken down, debilitated constitution.—DROPSY, in all its characters, will be completely eradicated from the system by its use. See pamphlets in agents' hands, for free circulation—they treat upon all diseases, and show testimony of cures. GRAVEL, and all complaints of the urinary organs, form also the cause of great suffering, and VAUGHN'S LITHONTRIPTIC, has acquired no small celebrity over the country, by the cures it has made in this distressing class of afflictions. So famed, it seems, is this medicine, that it has thus attracted the notice of one of our Medical publications. In the November No., 1846, of the "Buffalo Journal and Monthly Review of Medical and Surgical Science," in an article upon calculous diseases, and "solvents," the writer, after noting the fact that the English government once purchased a secret remedy, and also noticing the purchase in 1802, of a secret remedy, by the Legislature of New York, thus pays tribute to the fame of the Medicine—"Why do not our Representatives in Senate and Assembly convened, enlighten and 'dissolve' the suffering thousands of this country, by the purchase of Vaughn's Vegetable Lithontriptic, than which no solvent since the days of Alchemy has possessed one half the fame?" Reader, here is a periodical of high standing, acknowledged throughout a large section of this country to be one of the best conducted journals of the kind in the United States, exchanging with the scientific works of Europe to our certain knowledge, edited by Flint, M D., and contributed to by men of the highest professional ability, thus stepping aside to notice a "secret remedy." You will at once understand the unknown and worthless nostrum, could thus extort a comment for so high a quarter—and consequently, unless it directly coincided with the practice of the faculty, it must have been its great "fame" which has caused it to receive this passing notice.—KIDNEY diseases, weakness of the back and spine, irregular, painful and suppressed Menstruation, Fluor Albus, and the entire complicated train of evils which follow a disordered system, are at once relieved by the medicine. Send for pamphlets from Agents, and you will find evidence of the value of the Lithontriptic there put forth. As a remedy for the irregularities of the female system, it has it: the compound a "root" which has been resorted to in the north of Europe for centuries—as a sure cure for this complaint, and as a restorer of the health of the entire system. LIVER COMPLAINT JAUNDICE, BILIOUS DISEASES, &c., are in many removed. People of the West will find it the only remedy in these complaints, as well as FEVER AND AGUE. There is no remedy like it, and no calomel or quinine forms any part of this mixture. No injury will result in its use, and its active properties are manifested in the use of a single 30 oz bottle.—For FEVER AND AGUE, Bilious Disorders, take no other medicine. RHEUMATISM, GOUT, will find relief.—The action of this medicine upon the Blood, will change the disease—which originates in the blood—and a healthy result will follow. DYSPEPSIA, INDIGESTION, &c., yield in a few days' use of this Medicine. Inflammation of the LUNGS COUGH, CONSUMPTION also, has ever found relief. SCROFULA, ERYSIPELAS, PILES, Inflamed Eyes—all caused by impure blood; will find this article the remedy. The system, completely acted upon by the twenty-two different properties of the mixture, is purified and restored; as a partial cure will not follow. The train of common complaints Palpitation of the Heart, Sick Headache, Debility, &c., are all the result of some derangement of the system, and this GREAT RESTORER will do its work. The promises set forth in the advertisement, are based upon the proof of what it has done in the past four years. The written testimony of 1000 Agents, in Canada, the United States, England and South America, in the possession of the proprietor and can be seen by all interested; is a sufficient demonstration that it is the best Medicine ever offered to the World. Get the pamphlet, and study the principle as there laid down, of the method of cure. Put up in 30 oz. bottles, at $2; 12 oz. do at $1 each—the larger holding 6 oz. more than two small bottles. Look out and not get imposed upon. Every bottle has "Vaughn's Vegetable Lithontriptic Mixture" blown upon the glass, the written signature of "G. C. Vaughn" on the directions, and "G. C. Vaughn, Buffalo," stamped on the cork. None other are genuine. Prepared by Dr. G. C. Vaughn, and sold at the principal Office, 207 Main street, Buffalo, at wholesale and retail. No attention given to letters unless post paid—orders from regularly constituted Agents excepted; post paid letters, or verbal communications soliciting advice, promptly attended to, gratis.

Offices devoted exclusively to the sale of this article; 132 Nassau-st., New York city; 295 Essex st., Salem, Mass.; and by the principal Druggists throughout the United States and Canada, as advertised in the papers.

REXFORD has made arrangements with the NEW-YORK PEKIN TEA COMPANY, for the sale of TEAS in Binghamton, and can furnish his customers, and the trade, with Teas at the same prices that the Company charge for them in New York, which is, at least, from One to Two Shillings cheaper on each pound than the Grocers sell at. And in every case, where these Teas do not give satisfaction, the money will be paid back for them.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

We have tried the Teas imported by the Pekin Tea Company, 75 and 77 Fulton-st. and if we live will try them often. They are selling the most delicious Teas we ever drank, and retail them at wholesale prices.—Evening Post.

You may be sure of obtaining at all times pure and highly flavored teas, by the single pound, at wholesale prices, of the Pekin Tea Company, 75 & 77 Fulton-st. They have probably the largest stock and greatest variety of fine Green and Black Teas of any one establishment in the United States. They are doing a large business, and are a great benefit to consumers of tea.—Atlas.

Heretofore it has been very difficult, indeed impossible, to obtain good Green and Black Teas. But now you have only to visit the ware-rooms of the Pekin Tea Company, 75 and 77 Fulton-st. to obtain as delicious and fragrant teas as you could wish for.—Daily Sun.

A word to Tea Drinkers.—The Pekin Tea Company, 75 and 77 Fulton-st. have imported into this market some one hundred thousand dollars worth of the finest grades of Green and Black Teas grown in the Celestial Empire, done up in all the various fancy packages that Chinese ingenuity can invent. It is a privilege to buy teas at this great establishment, and luxury and comfort to drink them. They sell good Teas only, and retail them at wholesale prices. Country merchants who wish to always sell good teas, can always obtain them at this place, on reasonable terms.—Emporium.
