

THE DEMOCRAT

Montrose, Thursday, Nov. 11th, 1847.

WOOD! WOOD!

Will not some of our subscribers who want to pay for their paper in Wood, bring us some immediately? We are out and must have some.

New York Election.

An announced last week in our postscript, New York has gone the "whole hog" Federal, electing the entire State ticket by majorities ranging from 30,000 to 50,000, nearly all the members of the Senate, and all but twenty-eight of the members of the Assembly.

The Wilmore Proviso.

We must disagree with our able and generally correct cotemporary of the Pennsylvania when he sets down the result of the late election in this State as a verdict against the Wilmore Proviso. We do not believe that question formed the smallest part of the general issue before the people at that time.

Our Business Circles.

It would be useless to deny that the recent intelligence from Europe has produced a profound sensation in our business circles but its effects will be unusually limited.

Letter from Mr. Van Buren.

The following is the letter from Mr. VAN BUREN, to the editor of the Wilkesbarre Farmer, (in answer to one from him announcing his desire to place his name at the head of his columns as a candidate for the Presidency.)

LINDENWALD, Oct. 20, 1847.

My Dear Sir—I had the honor a few days since, to receive your friendly letter, apprising me of your desire to place my name, after the close of the then approaching canvass in Pennsylvania, at the head of your paper, as the choice of the sterling democracy of your district for the Presidency, and also informing me of a similar disposition among the democrats of the surrounding districts.

of sound political morality as of national expediency, he will regard as out of season. The war cannot now be concluded with honor, unless we receive from Mexico, a just indemnity for the past and reasonable security for the future.

Progress of Liberal Opinions.

The circumstances under which the resolution in favor of Freedom of Trade was adopted at the Herkimer Convention just held, show a very decided change in public opinion since the mitigated tariff went into effect.

M. VAN BUREN.

Two years ago it would have been impossible to obtain anything like this unanimity on the question of protection in any public assembly composed of persons from the various parts of the State.

Official Vote for Governor and Canal Commissioner for 1847.

Table with columns for Governor and Canal Commissioner, listing candidates and their votes across various counties like Adams, Allegheny, Armstrong, etc.

Total, 146,115 128,138 160,959 156,562 143,893 126,115 89,064 97,98

Pennsylvania Legislature.

The following from the Pennsylvania, exhibits the names of those elected to the Legislature, at the recent election. Those marked thus * are Federalists.

SENATE.

I. Philadelphia City—William A. Crabb, Benjamin Matthias.* II. Philadelphia county—Henry L. Benner, William F. Small, Thomas H. Forry, etc.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Adams—William McSherry, Allegheny—Lewis C. J. Noble, Henry Large, Armstrong—Lewis Brenneman, Beaver—John Allison, etc.

JOINT BALLOT OF 133 MEMBERS.

Democrats 14, Federalists 19, House 65, Senate 79.

Depreciated Bank Paper.

A number of the Banks of the interior have studiously kept their notes under lock and bought them at a discount, are now applying to the Legislature for re-charter.

What does it mean?

The North American announces that Henry Clay will speak, on Saturday next (day after to-morrow) at Lexington, on the subject of the Mexican war, its authors and objects.

Severe, Very.

The radical Democrats of New York, (comprising the rank and file of the party in the State, and the friends of SILAS WRIGHT), who could not support the Syracuse nomination, voted the following State ticket, at least those who voted at all.

STATE.

REMEMBER SILAS WRIGHT.

It is sufficient to say that the conservative or "Hunker" faction opposed Mr. WRIGHT last fall, and no doubt secure his defeat.

The Tribune's Version.

In an article headed "After the Battle," on the morning after the election the Tribune uses the following unusually cool and sensible language:

RETIREMENT.

Edwin Crosswell, Esq., editor of the Albany Argus, has published his intention of retiring from political life immediately.

The Presidency.

The Wilkesbarre Farmer, and the Columbia Democrat, have each placed, the name of Martin Van Buren at their heads for the Presidency.

THE SUPREMACY LAW.

The Supreme Court of this State, now in session at Pittsburgh, has decided the "No License Law" of Pennsylvania to be unconstitutional.

Another Senator Gone.

Hon. J. W. Huntington, Whig U. S. Senator from Connecticut, died at his residence at New Haven, on Tuesday week.

Michigan Strikes for the Country.

It is gratifying to see how resolutely a united Democracy always are. In Michigan, where the Democrats are harmonious, Federalism is utterly swept out of existence.

All Mail Jersey Bines!

This State which has been since 1844 estranged from us, has at last returned, and struck a bold decisive blow for the country and the war.

What are the reasons?

The people here are not so much attached to the Union, as they are to the State. They are not so much attached to the Union, as they are to the State.

What are the reasons?

The people here are not so much attached to the Union, as they are to the State. They are not so much attached to the Union, as they are to the State.

What are the reasons?

The people here are not so much attached to the Union, as they are to the State. They are not so much attached to the Union, as they are to the State.

What are the reasons?

The people here are not so much attached to the Union, as they are to the State. They are not so much attached to the Union, as they are to the State.

What are the reasons?

The people here are not so much attached to the Union, as they are to the State. They are not so much attached to the Union, as they are to the State.

What are the reasons?

The people here are not so much attached to the Union, as they are to the State. They are not so much attached to the Union, as they are to the State.

What are the reasons?

The people here are not so much attached to the Union, as they are to the State. They are not so much attached to the Union, as they are to the State.

What are the reasons?

The people here are not so much attached to the Union, as they are to the State. They are not so much attached to the Union, as they are to the State.

What are the reasons?

The people here are not so much attached to the Union, as they are to the State. They are not so much attached to the Union, as they are to the State.

What are the reasons?

The people here are not so much attached to the Union, as they are to the State. They are not so much attached to the Union, as they are to the State.

What are the reasons?

The people here are not so much attached to the Union, as they are to the State. They are not so much attached to the Union, as they are to the State.

What are the reasons?

The people here are not so much attached to the Union, as they are to the State. They are not so much attached to the Union, as they are to the State.