joy of your bargain, old fellow—and you'll make money out of it, if you have found out a remedy for the HEAVES-I haven't. And he put spurs to the gallant black.

Just wait till I overhanl you!" shouted the discomfitted jockey, as he started in pur-suit. But the log-pulling had done the busi-ness for his bargain, and he hadn't ridden a quarter of a mile, before the animal he bestrode was swelling and collapsing like a blacksmith's ness about this measure? Ah! The secret is bellows, while far away the "Green 'Un" was out, and "Father Ritchic" himself, unwitting-dress to the people of Pennsylvania, and of the much longer continuance in that occupation. years since some of the most zealous champions 200 feet in height and generally, rise perpenstreaking it along the road, going free and easy ly, no doubt, disclosed it too. It was "a Union, was read and adopted. We suppose the Ho has an undoubted right to condemn Direct taxes were southern politicians. We disclosed it too. It was "a Union, was read and adopted. We suppose the Ho has an undoubted to thom for alle recommendation. at ten miles the hour can boast of picking up the Great Western. He's a screamer, though, and no mistake," he well as any other kind of property, and this individuals. added with professional enthusiasm - he's would never do, in the opinion of the "venera won the stakes war, and if the story don't get ble" editor of the Union, who seems to have in the Spirit of the Times, curse me if I ever the slave interest entirely in his keeping. This say a word about it if - Spirit of the Times.

THE DEMOCRAT.

Montrose.

A RAILRO AD MEETING, (which, by the way vania," in our columns to-day.

Hon. D. Wilmot.

leading administration papers, the Washington Union and the Pennsylvanian, to crush irrevo-Representative in Congress, Hon. DAVID WIL-MOT. For a term of weeks, we may say since October last, Mr. Wilmor has been their principal target, and with scarcely a week's intermission, either one of the other of them has assailed him, either directly or indirectly, with the most malignant asperity. Some how or another, we can scarcely tell how ourselves, we have refrained almost entirely from taking up and as a decent self-respect, and respect to the say, what every body in Pennsylvania knows from papers, professedly reflecting the views Keystone State, party, especially in this district, would seem full well, that such an assertion is false and and sentiments of those whose influence, power to dictate, they have of late become even more collusive, and can find no apology except in the and patronage extend throughout the country. bitter, infuriated and malignant than ever most unpardonable stupidity or reckless dis-afford just reason to apprehend, a concerted at Scarcely a day has passed by during the last honesty. We again repeat, the Proviso was the passed by during the last honesty. We again repeat, the Proviso was the minds of all, who recognize and assert the fortnight but the latter paper has teemed with not made an issue in Pennsylvania at all, and freedom of conscience and liberty of speech. the most poignant distribes, false representa- no one here will pretend that it was. Mr. Bu- Resolved, That the recent letter of the Hon. tions, and disgusting personal abuse against Mr. chanan, it is true, endeavored in his Berks David Wilmot to the Post Master General, WILMOT, Either original in its columns, or county letter to force it upon us, but his ten- protesting against his conferring patronage on copied from the Union. Under such circum- der was not accepted. Had it been, and Gov- nised Democratic papers of this Congressional stances, therefore, we consider further silence ernor Shunk been identified with the pro-sla-district generative papers of this Congressional absolutely unpardonable, and shall speak out veryists, we feel very confident that he would racy of this county; that so far from regarding in plain terms what we think and feel in rela- never have enjoyed the 18,000 majority he the subject of that protest, as a personal mat-as the victim of the range of the last election, and to Demogratic principles in every great crisis, great sin has be committed that he must be he who pretends that it did talks without the and inflexible fidelity to the usages of the parmercy upon him !- to offer an amendment to a Shunk a largely increased majority. a revenue bill, which proposes to lay a direct tax on personal property, stocks and loans, &c., in lieu of an indirect tax on tea and coffee: and he still refuses, notwithstanding all of their kicks, cuffs and menaces, to become a servile (nothing.) or nearly so, so far as subjects of fellow-members, who have found an abundance of mercy, have done! This is the sum, the Alpha and Omega, of all his sinning. Is it not a terrible crime? one that merits volley after volley, and broadside after broadside, from these administration and semi-administration artillery?

It certainly cannot be that Mr. WILMOT made himself obnoxious to those papers by offering his Proviso at first, for both of them have repeatedly pronounced him thoroughly orthodox since that time. Few men in Penn sylvania-certainly few in this district-need be told with what intense interest both of these presses watched, and labored to carry successfully, the issue of 1846, or of his re-election by the people has also passed both Houses. and how enraptured they were when they learned of his success. And yet before this he had Lanesboro on Sunday last which came near bethrown that " firebrand," as they characterize ing attended with serious consequences. Shait, into Congress, and made one of his ablest lelabs and firearms are said to have been freely speeches in its favor. It can not therefore, be used, much to the injury of some of the partihis paternity of the Proviso, but because, like cipants. The fraces originated in a "strike." an honest parent, he refuses to abandon it, that If men are unwilling to work for the wages renders him obsorious to so much of their their employers are willing to pay, they have a abuse. If he would eschew that measure right, of course, to quit; but they have no right ried, and probable remission of even this.—

House of Representatives, in which there was £250,000 in gold arrived at London. measure which was supported by nearly every to molest and drive away those who are wil. This is the end of all the great labors of the a large majority, disregarded it altogether and The Bank has not reduced the rate of intermember of Congress from the free States both ling, and should be so taught, in the sessions of 1848-7—there is no doubt. Since the above was written we have learnbut that with others who have already been ed that order has been restored, and that the received, he would find ample forgiveness.

But his last offence, and the one that has kindled anew the fires of their indignation, is his proposition to exempt tes and coffee from Bor Gov. Sausa bas recently been quite Western, throwing his right leg over the pig. property, stocks and loans, see In other viously taken counsel of "Father Ritchie?" by a vote of 181 to 1. Astonishing!!

But seriously: what is there so wonderfully heretical about this that should so exaspeperate the sapient editors of the Union and Pennsylvanian? Why so much squeamishis the secret of the umbrage given in this moveas an audacious sipner ... a mischievous ally -whom the administration does not want!"

The truth is such conduct, even though it does come from high sources, is not only superlatively ridiculous, but highly reprehensible, stripes and stars' waved over Churubusco and calculated to call down upon those papers the severest indignation. Such bitterness, nay such arrogance, towards the People's Repre-Thursday,.... February 17, 1845, sentative, who does not go to one or two pen- sen by the people of the several townships and sioned editors to know what his constituents boroughs, on Tuesday evening, February 8th, want !- cannot and will not be tolerated by 1848. H. S. SALISBURY was chosen Presiis getting to be quite a popular affair in our the people or the press. Already has the voice dent, and Dr. E. Crandal, and S. E. Already usually staid, quiet Borough of late) was held of indignation gone forth, and it will continue Secretaries. in the Court House on Tuesday evening. For to swell in volume and power, until this outfurther particulars see the official report, and rage upon the constitutional rights of the mema communication signed "Northern Pennsylbers of the House of Representatives, and upConvention, each by a vote of 59 to 6, (for ou the people themselves, is wiped away by Wm. Elwell.) bitter penance. We have to see the first paper A capital batch of resolutions sustaining the sittle committed by Mr. Wilmot, was the proposition to raise $5,000,000 by direct taxation.—

* * * The Whigs are mad. I have my that tolerates the propositions of the state of the proposition of the state of the proposition to raise $5,000,000 by direct taxation. that tolerates the arrogant, insulting, dictato- war, the National and State administrations, The Union called this proposition "Proviso No head with humiliation and shame when I think ter class we have learned something of the in-We have noticed for some time with painful rial distribe of the Union, echoed and applaudwere adopted. The following which relate to 2; "a scheme to tax slaves;" an idle that I have been a member of their party. Mr. amous character of this apposition. He was regret, a growing disposition on the part of two ed by the Pennsylvanian. On the contrary the subject of the late attacks of the Union scheme;" and Mr. Wilmot a "mischievous ally Webster's speech has been republished here, by the Subject of the late attacks of the Union scheme;" and Mr. Wilmot a "mischievous ally Webster's speech has been republished here, by the Subject of the late attacks of the Union scheme;" and Mr. Wilmot a "mischievous ally Webster's speech has been republished here, by the Subject of the late attacks of the Union scheme; and Mr. Wilmot a "mischievous ally Webster's speech has been republished here, by the Subject of the late attacks of the Union scheme; and Mr. Wilmot a "mischievous ally Webster's speech has been republished here, by the Subject of the late attacks of the Union scheme; and Mr. Wilmot a "mischievous ally Webster's speech has been republished here, by the Subject of the late attacks of the Union scheme; and Mr. Wilmot a "mischievous ally Webster's speech has been republished here, by the Subject of the late attacks of the Union scheme; and Mr. Wilmot a "mischievous ally Webster's speech has been republished here, by the Subject of the late attacks of the Union scheme; and Mr. Wilmot a "mischievous ally Webster's speech has been republished here, by the Subject of the subject many of them have spoken their unqualified and the Pennsylvanian upon Mr. Wilmot, we not wanted by the Administration." It is more the Mexicans, in every variety of form, as well disapproval, and in such plain terms too that will copy: cably and without mercy our able and fearless the offending organs cannot fail to understand. For the present we shall say no more, except David Wilmot is unabated. That we know his Mr. Wilmot hurls his Provisos—lis "fire-cision—flattering their hopes that one of the quaintance, in this section, upon whose stateto recommend an early perusal of the portion and the rights of man; we cannot, and will not of Mr. Wilmor's defence which we print to brands"—we shall try and stand out of his way great parties of our country will arrest the pro ments he could rely, asking to be informed &c.

brands"—we shall try and stand out of his way great parties of our country will arrest the pro and the rights of man; we cannot, and will not should be ever visit this State. We are now secution of the war, and putting off forever, in be driven from his support, so long as he con satisfied that David Wilmot is an antagonist to my opinion, all prespects of an anticable settle irrely deceptive. But I give you here, fellowday, and which ably speaks for itself. If those times on the side of justice and humanity. be avoided rather than encountered and that ment of it. It seems to me that the Whig citizens, a copy of it that you may judge of the prints have made anything by their crusade Never will we assist to strike down the man his Provisos have more force in them than we leaders are guilty of the worst kind of treawe are at a loss to discover it. Such is our who strives for constitutional freedom. That at first supposed, Proviso No. 3 will give son. I have discovered, here, that some one, opinion, and such is the opinion of every one ences which are at work to prostrate him. The adroitness of the granuer in publications of the country, has been in correstant of the property o ion to such conduct. Inow does. We repeat, what every body in should have considered him recreant to his duthus dragged forth and cuffed about by these card. Mr. Wilmot was himself among the ty, confd distinction, then should not the sound self-constituted Gamaliels? What beinous most ardent supporters of Governor Shunk, and Democracy of this Congressional district, have offence against the principles and usages of his while doing all he could for him on the stump, outrage. party has he been guilty of that he must thus at the same time ably advocated the restriction be hunted down of politically ostracised? of slavery. His district, which is nearly unani-Why, he has had the temerity-heaven have mous in support of that measure, gave Gov.

> THE LEGISLATURE-We have our usual reweek, which is guests) are being legislated upon and consuming time.

A general Banking Law, similar to the Free Banking Law of New York, has been reported, a neutral paper, has the following: - Vice improvement, however, can be made in them, is but no action had upon it. The resolutions of President Dallas. This gentleman is fast be it to be rejected ?—if any auxiliary measure Mr. Small sustaining the government and the coming the most prominent candidate of the which the administration neglected to recomwar, have been further discussed but not acted democracy for President. We notice that at upon: A bill authorizing the State Treasurer meetings held in various sections of the Union, official recommendation? That the Secretary to contract a loan of $160,000 for sixty days to he is most favorably spoken of. Gen. Cass, of the Treasury is an ablo man we allow, but was lost on Friday by ayes 11 noes 16. meet a deficiency in the payment of the Feb- however has some warm friends, while Mr. all wisdom will not die with Robert J. Walker. ruary interest has passed both Houses. A bill Buchanan's strength does not appear to extend What new doctrine is this that the democracy providing for the election of Associate Judges much beyond Pennsylvania."

We learn that quite a row occurred at mutinous ones have returned to their work at former prices.

breation, and to lay a direct tax on paramal ill. He is now reported convalescent.

Congress. - Owing to the space occupied by in. "He's mine and d—d cheap too!" words, he has proposed to substitute a mea- the remarks of Mr. Wilmor in to-day's paper, "Don't you holler till you get out of the sure that would tax the people in proposed to we are obliged to defer our usual Congressionmanner, as he mounted, in turn. "You didn't their wealth, as near as may be, for one that al report this week, which, after all, is no great get him half so cheap as I did. He was a gift would tax them for the tea and coffee they loss to our readers, as but little is being done get usin pair so eneap as 1 cm. He was a gitt mode of distributing the public burdens; Company the right to cross the Delaware right look in his mouth. Good by; might consume. A monstrous heresy, truly! of public interest. The debates on the Ten Re-Great Western-when you buy a stranger's How dare Mr. WILKOT evince so much inde-giment Hill are still continued and depreciating the following language: horse, always ask for a warranty. I wish you pendence, so much effrontery, as to lisp so in interest daily. The House has passed res-"mischievous a scheme," without having pre-olutions of thanks to Gons. Scott and Taylor which will be found at the commencement of this is urged; the sole objection made is that of rocks, which extend thence up, and imme nominating James Buchanan for the Presiden-

in Mexico, at the moment when the 'glorious

Bradford County.

The Democrats of Bradford assembled i Convention in Towarda, through delegates chonow does. We repeat, what every body in ter between Mr. Wilmot and any others, we soon as they were introduced, as unworthy meeting of our convention, resolutions equally science, and the whigs. as strong, if not stronger, relative to that matter, would have been adopted by that body.

PART IV. of Eubank's Hydraulies and Me- and its agents? chanics has been received. It is an interesting and invaluable work, neatly printed, and should tration of Andrew Jackson. When Mr. Mcbe universally sought. Price 25 cts. a number, Lane was his Secretary of the Treasury, the or $1,50 entire. Greely & McElrath, Pub- administration laid down its platform of finance, lishers, Tribune Buildings, N. Y.

Opinion of the Press.

The following is copied from that able, scarless Journal, the N. Y. Daily Globe:

In speaking of the defeat of Mr. Wilmot's amendment, the Washington Union, the editor direct taxation? Is it protended that it is an granting to the New York and Eric Rail Road

[Here follows the article from the " Union, Mr. Wilmot's "explanation."]

A number of the Democratic members this language wholly unbecoming the editor of measure, an effectual measure, a measure for them almost impracticable; and if the Comof the Legislature met in Caucus at the Capithe Union. We have ever accorded to him which the people are prepared, is to be rejected pany are compelled to cut through those rocks tol on Thesday evening week, and anticipated talent and great amiability; yet many of the because of the jealousy of a handful of slave- it will probably delay the completion of the the action of the 4th of March Convention by articles which appear in the Union give evi- holders, who fear that their interests may be rail road to Binghamton some two or three dence that the time has arrrived when his repu- affected. tation, acquired during forty years' in the field Here again we must complain that politi- jectious growing out of this part of the route. cy. A rery able and somewhat lengthy ad- of newspaper literature, will be injured by a rians are taking a retrograde course. A few The Glass House rocks are from 100 to "Picked up, by shunder!" muttered the scheme to tax slaves!" Alack! Yes, "Father expression of the Taxation, but it would be better to attack the are indebted to them for able recommendations. The act of 1846, before referred to require Great Western, after fruitlessly digging his Ritchie scented it instanter. If adopted (al- individual members present, (quite a number principle with some kind of dignity, and not of that policy. We remember publishing in the company so to construct their road along the remember principle with some kind of dignity, and not of that policy. We remember publishing in the company so to construct their road along the remember principle with some kind of dignity, and not of that policy. Great Western after fruitlessly digging his Ritchie scented it instanter. If adopted (all individual members present, (quite a number call it "Proviso No. 2," or a "scheme to tax this journal some years since; a speech of Mr. this part of the route as not to a speech of Mr. this part of the route as not to a speech of Mr. this journal some years since; Pressic acid. There's a white man living that the direct was not at an on their slave property, as doings and resolves of any other assemblage of or any measure honestly proposed by one of the our heavy approval. At that time it was not at the direct was the living that the direct was the d people's representatives, cannot be urged with- political treason to say that direct taxation was glance to be almost impossible to blast out this out the proposer and the measure both being the most just and honest method of raising ledge of rocks, rising as it does generally, per-Singular Coincidence.—The Pittsburgh denounced in language like that of the Union a revenue—the slaves of the south were not pendicularly from the water's edge, sufficiently Post says: "Upon taking the vote in the referred to, then it is time the press should then in the way. Now you cannot stirk step for the track of the road, without filling the House of Representatives of the United States, or the road, without stumbling over them. Talk channel considerably with the fragments, and ment. Egregious heresy! And he should be read out of the party, manacled and gibbeted read out of the party of t forty-one patrictic Whigs in favor of the infa-mous preposition. This is the exact number away argument from his pen which feared that it may affect the interests of sla-so great importance to this region of country, of the traitors to their country, who were hung would lead to the supposition that he under-very stood the subject of Taxation. It is with him enough that a portion of the burden would fall on slaves, and, as a Southern man, he is ready to denounce every measure that indirectly or remotely touches the institution of slavery.

The Wednesday subsequent to the reply of Mr. WILMOT to the attack of the Union, the same paper prefaced his remarks with the folowing strong language:

ananimous permission of the House to make a personal explanation in relation to an attack can, he must be reckless, indeed: made upon him in the Union of the 3d inst. I believe that there can be no peace.

The annexed strictures are from the N., Y. Evening Post, a high-toned leading Demo-

We are surprised at the tone of the subjoined article in the Washington Union of Thursday night. It must have crept into that journal without the knowledge of the proper superintendent of its columns. Its insolence is so gross that we cannot bring ourselves, by any sort of self-constraint, to suppose that it came from the pen or mind of the courteous and circumspect editor of the Union.

[Here follows the attack of the Union alluded to, which is elsewhere given. Suffice it to say that its editor fathered it in a long, bitter tirade against Mr. WILMOT on the day fol-

"The administration," says the Union, "has been singled out as deserving this insult and laid down its platform," and proposed "its measures of finance." On that platform, ac- letter from a friend at Buena Vista, dated Nor will the risk by bridges be increased as al-These resolutions are plain and respectful, cording to the Union, we are all required to January 17th, stating that Bustamente is at leged. The supplement to that law, now before at the same time are a merited rebuke to those stand, whether we approve it or not No man Guanajuante, at the head of 6,000 troops; that our Legislature makes no change except to alretailers of calumny against Mr. Wilmot who his alacrity by trying to jump upon this platis to be reputed orthodox who does not show have sought to crush him, in doing which they form, even if it be at the risk of breaking both go under Urrea, and that the State of Zacatehave repeatedly represented his district as hav- legs. All other schemes of finance than those cas has raised 10,000, making 21,000 to 22,- of this State may be deprived of a connection port of the doings of this body to make this ing repulliated him for his Proviso and free- proposed by the wisdom of the administration, 000 in all. The letter also states that Santa at or near "Garpenter's Point," it is like the trade notions. We believe them to be the honthe least, are "idle;" all allies who have ideas est sentiments of the people in his entire dis- of their own, or who do not assist the governtraitor to the slavery restriction, as many of his general interest are concerned. It is true a trict. We know, at least that they reflect the ment in the prescribed manner are "mischievmultitudinous host of private bills and petitions feelings of his constituents in Susquehanna, ous." They are to be repelled with scorn and (most of which should be shown to the door a and had those attacks been made before the contumely, as audacious heretics in political other pronunciamenta, and called for 20,000 penter's Point to build and ever maintain, science, and voted down by votes borrowed from

.The recommendations of the administration are to be treated with respect, we admit, and and that if it is true, it will produce no effect. THE PRESIDENCY.—The Baltimore Clipper, can be devised they are to be adopted. If any f they are better than any thing else which are under drill sergeants, and are to march and countermarch as they are hid by the Cabinet

We must go back to the good old times for Col. Fremont's Sentence—Our Washington correspondent says. Col. Fremont's sentence tion be it spoken—and very few could be found in Congress who were inclined to stand upon The bullion in the Bank of England contininterests, and demand that they be protected interests, and demand that they be protected.

famous compromise act was adopted, and Mr. Consols are improving, and the bankers and know their base attempt to misles.

We must beg the indulgence of our McLane was left standing upon his platform bill holders were full of money, which the com-thoughts of their own on questions of finance. and to denounce those who were boid enough Citizens of Northern Pennsylvania to entertain them as idle schemes and inis-chievons allies. But what is the objection to the scheme of the Legislature of this State passed an act that it presses unequally on the poorer classes; er into the county of Pike, at some point bethat the present is not a time in which the tween Carpenter's point and the Glass house country can easily bear it? Nothing of all Near the Glass house they encounter a ledge norhans the tax may full heavily on the slaves diately along the river, nearly two miles, ren-There is evidently a degree of insolence in of the south. A good measure in itself, a just dering the construction of the road throng opposed to Direct Taxation for the support of of an acquisition of territory, and you are met thereby affecting to some extent the natural voted down in a whig house by whig votes.

"Ald and Comfort."

The following letter, from the Governor of the National Palace in the city of Mexicoonce a Whig member of Congress from Pennsylvania, but now ashamed of a party of trai ter we might well have supposed no reasonable objection could have been raised—indeed no tors-we extract from the Washington Union. Can a Mexican Whig read it, and not likewise be a proper spirit. The second unpardonable be decision in the administration; and then rather, from a few interested capitalists in that * * * The Whigs are mad. I hang my than probable that this reply of Mr. Wilmot as a synopsis of Mr. Clay's; and they have inquired into the truth or falsity of the statewill be called Proviso No. 3. If this explana- been made the foundation of appeals to the ments it contained, and to do this forwarded Resolved, That our confidence in the Hon. tion is a fair specimen of the manner in which Mexican people, confirming them in their indesatisfied that David Wilmot is an antagonist to my opinion, all prospects of an anticable settle- tirely deceptive. But I give you here, sellowwith whom we have conversed upon the subject. That when patronage and power combinetin a which this last Proviso was introduced, has pondence with the Mexican Secretary of State, crusade against honesty of purpose; daty, placed the editor of the Union on the defensive, and has transmitted to him all the articles of this we find we have been deceived. Instead by the people of Pennsylvania last fall to the by the Washington Union and Pennsylvanian, teer aid, in addition to his regular force, in all Many of them were translated and republished shis we find we have been deceived. Instead by the people of Pennsylvania last fall to the on the Hon. David Wilfnot, are abusive, false, on the Hon. David Wilfnot, are abusive, false, subsequent attacks upon the young Democration of Proviso memory, representing, in part, the Vork Express, (an appeal to the Catholics of the New York Legislature, the United Status to control of the New York Legislature, and the Pennsylvania seeking an outlet to the seaboard and proscriptive; and emanating as they do, of Proviso memory, representing, in part, the United Status to control of the New York Legislature, the United States to oppose Mr. Polk's dmin- and to the risk of TWO BRIDGES over a riistration, upon the ground that the war was a religious war—a crusade against the Catholic Bridges in or near Pike County at hest but a religion in Mexico,) has not only been published in the Mexican papers, but printed in handbil's, and circulated by thousands at all the CHURCH DOORS in the city of Mexico. Who ran tell, in view of facts like these, how much against the repeal, alteration, or any construcof the blood that has been shed in this war is tion of the existing law, by which the citizens owing to the action of such publications > WAR RUMORS. - We have no reliable information from Mexico yet. Rumors are still rife. CARPENTER'S POINT." both of peace and of war. It is confidently stated and believed that the Mexican Government has accepted the proposals of our Gov- produce, is entirely false that its evident obernment for terminating the war, and that des- Legislature and the public. And, (as my time patches to that effect are on the way or at and space are limited) I will just say here, that Washington. This is the chief burden of all the proposed alteration will not subject the intelligence from the city of Mexico. On the contrary the Richmond Republican publishes a will remain just as it is under the law of 1846. there are 1,500 at San Luis, 3,000 at Duran-low the road to cross the river a mile or two go under Urrea, and that the State of Zacatas Anna had landed at San Blas, with probably rest of that paper, entirely devoid eftruth. No the purpose of joining the forces under Busta- one, except such unscrupulous opponents, immente.

> men to renew the war. The correspondent bridge over the Delaware to make the conecwriting this adds that he discredits it entirely The Washington Union quotes but discredits the prominent facts in the case. You can these rumors entirely.

> CAPITAL PUNISHMENT Mr. Sanderson. from the Judiciary Committee, reported a bill these repeated outrages upon your interests?

From Europe.

The general intelligence is not of much im- mainly to build public works, the operations portance.

low the quotations by the Acadia. ensier. The active circulation of the Bank of full share of the benefits of equal and just which was formally recommended in his Tren-sury Report. A surry platform it was, with important changes in the market for American Lot positions circulate freely. Send in to the Court Martial that sat more than two months.—

The Bank has not reduced the rate of inter-your interests of their mask of fraud and falseown—while in the Senate the platform of their est, but in the street, money could be had at hood, and add them up, the public three and a half per cent.

The Bank has not reduced the rate of inter-your interests of their mask of fraud and falseown—while in the Senate the platform of the three and a half per cent.

advertising patrons this week. Matters of alone. At that time there was a journal at mercial demand was not sufficient to employ deep interest to our citizens, which come in at. Washington supporting the administration, but Affairs in Switzerland and Italy continue to it did not think it to remind the members of exercise a sections influence on the movements ter our paper paper was up, have compelled us Congress and the democratic party generally and motives of European governments.

to defer quite a number of their layors.

that it-was not proper for them to have any The Queen of Spain is in excellent health.

For the Northern Jen -Atlend to your Interests!

It is well known that in the spring of 1846 years, to say nothing now of other serious ob-the Company at the present session of our Leg-But after all, the scheme of a direct tax is islature have sked to be allowed to cross the Delaware at or near "Bolton's Basin," a point some mile and a half or two miles above the "Glass House," and above the rocks above referred to and a bill for that purpose has been

To this request so reasonable in its characreasonable objection can be made. But ob. icctions of the most unreasonable and outre. On Monday last Mr. Wilmot obtained the hang his head in shame? If there is one who geous character have been raised, and the most strenuous and persevering efforts are now put forth and will be to defeat the bill now before quarter. I will not say all, for there are honorable exceptions, and it is from one of the latthe "remonstrance" to a gentleman of his acfalse thing for yourselses!

"To the Honorable the Senate and House Representatives of the Commonical T Pennsylvania, in General Assembly mely. Tuz.undorsigned citizens of Philadelphia s vicinity, respectfully remonstrate against any teration of the present grant to the New ORK AND ERIE RAILROAD COMPANY, whereby, the whole trade and travel of Northern Pennsylvania seeking an outlet to the senboard Bridges in or near Pike County at best but a precarious dependence, and where no such risk is incurred under said law.

We would further respectfully remonstrate of this Commonwealth may be deprived of the right they now possess of connecting with the New York and Eric Railroad, "AT OR NEAR

Now I hesitate not to say, that this "remonstrance," in the impression it plainly seeks to ject and intention is to mislead and deceive the

As to the closing insinuation that the citizens he purpose of joining the forces under Busta-agines any such thing. On the contrary, the Railroad Company pledge themselves, at any Another rumor is Santa Anna has made an-time when a Railroad is built to or near "Cartion at that place.

I have, from necessity, written very briefly and hastily, but I believe I have presented all readily see the illiberal, fraudulent and nojust character of the opposition that is made to your interests. Will, you sit quietly down under by law required, to aid in the construction of canals and railroads a large share of which has From Europe. directly and indirectly benefitted the city of The Sarah Sands arrived at New York on Philadelphia. You are still paying annually, Thursday morning with one week later advices, your full share of the taxes imposed to meet the interest upon the State debt, incurred upon which have put money into the pockets The cotton market was dull, and rather be- of the very men who now so wickedly attempt The money market in London was deadedly share of taxes. Will you not insist upon you to injure you. I repeat, you pay your full The Committee of Ways and Means in the ues to increase. From the 14th to the 17th, and promoted by their legislative action. Strip the authors of this nurighteons opposition to disgrace Let the Legislature and the public know their base attempt to mislead and deceive

NORTHERN PENNSTLYANIA. More than fifty slave vessels have been taken on the ceast of Africa within the last twelv months