

O. G. HEMPSTEAD, Proprietor.

MONTROSE PA., THURSDAY, MARCH 16, 1848.

TERMS OF "THE DEMOCRAT."

mination

$1.50 a year, If paidin advance, or at the 23 cts. charged Disc nuances ontional: excenta ADVERTISEMENTS ONE dollar persouare of tweipe fines. o less, for the first three itsertio in, and twenty-fivecents forev ery subsequent insertion A liberal dis unt will be made t ar Business letters and be POST PAID to ensure ditention

POETRY.

THE FACTORY CHILD.

"Twas on a winter's morning, The weather wet and wild, Three hours before the dawning The father roused his child; Her daily morsel bringing, The darksome room he paced, And cried, "The bell is ringing, My bapless darling haste !"

" Father I'm up, but weary, I scarce can reach the door, And the long way and weary-Oh, carry the once more ! To help us we've no mother, And you have no employ; They killed my little brother-Like him Ill work and die !"

Her wasted form seem'd nothing The load was at his heart; The sufferer he kept soothing Till at the mill they part. The overlooker met her As to her frame she crept And with his thong he beat her, And cursed her as she went.

Alas! what hours of horror Made up her latest day ! In toil and pain and sorrow They slowly passed away. It seemed as she grew weaker, The threads the oftener broke, The rapid wheels ran quicker, The heavior fell the stroke.

The sun had long descended, But night brought no repose ; Her day began and ended As cruel tyrants chose. At length to a little neighbor Her halfpeony she paid, To take her last hour's labor,

While by her frame she laid. At last the engine ceasing, The captives homeward rushed ; She thought her strength increasing-'Twas hope her spirit flushed. She left, but oft she tarried ;

She fell and rose no more, Till, by her comrades carried, She reached her father's de minution of that most disastrous enterprise, love, which glowed in the truly imperial soul of Napoleon, leaving his frozen hosts beneath the Josephene, and which have made her the idul drifts of a Bussian winter, fled as on the wings of all true hearts, she would have clung to Na-of the storm itself, day, and night, over the poleon with deathless fervor in these days of of the storm itself, iday and night, over the poleon with deathless fervor in these days of bleak wilds of Poland and of Germany, till, in adversity, and would have won the admiration advance of all his couriers, he arrived in Paris of the world. Marin, following her husband at midnight. Unattended and unexpected as to Elba, sharing his perils at Waterloo, and he was, it was with no little difficulty that he seated by his side on the storm-washed rocks could get the gates of his own palace open for of St Helena, would have occupied, in the eyes his admission. Marin, having heard rumors of of all nations, a more exaited throng than her the destauration of the same had his the store of the storm of the store of t the destruction of the army, had just retired illustious ancestors of Rome ever embellished. to rest in the deepest dejection, when the voi- And in her own living, glowing, throbbing ees of two men were heard in the antechamber, heart she would have found a luxury of emoand a cry of astonishment from one of the tion for which one might well spurn all the On motion of Mr. F maids of honor announced that something ex-baubles of pemp and pride and power. But called over, when the traordinary had occurred. The Empress in Maria was "of the earth, carthy." In the peared as delegates: terror leaped from her bed, when the door was poverly of her ignoble spirit, she preferred to burst open, and she was seized and enfolded dally with her own chamberlain on voluptuous in the embrace of a man enveloped in his wintry sofas, in the luxurious apartments of a ducal riding dross. It was Napoleon. Their inter- palace, and to leave her husband to languish view was tender and affecting. He had re and to die alone. Peace be with you, Maria. turned to his capital a fugitive. His army It was perhaps less the fault than the miswas literally annibilated. And all the powers fortuge of Maria, that her soul was incommenof combined Europe were preparing to pour surate with the grandeur of her circumstances. down upon France in resistless numbers. De- She was by nature merely a mild, amiable wospair alone could nerve one with energy to at- man, and utterly incapable of heroic action or tempt to meet such a crisis. of romantic love. There is no power upon Never did mortal man before rouse bimself earth by which the mind of man is so perfectly to such herenlancan efforts as Napoleon made entranced, as by the spirit of a truly noble in these days of disaster. With electric ener- woman. One is constrained to bow, almost gy he convulsed every fibre of France. Not a with adoration, before the alliance of female long wars which had desolated Europe, had The union is rare, but when eucountered, the drained France of its vigorous youth. Hund- entranced spirit does it willing homage. There reds of thousands of her chosen young men are spirits dwelling in these mortal frames, were now lying, frozen into blocks of ice, upon which seem almost radiant with the lustre of the storm-swept plains of Scandinavia, and the heaven. But they are seldom cradled under le tempests of winter were piling over them their the canopy of a throne. winding-sheet of snow. None were left but It is true that the situation of Maria, during boys and old men, to meet the swelling flood this conflict, was peculiar, and for a feeble mind Brooks. of invasion. Napoleon gathers around him a extremely embarrassing. The armies of Aus-little band, many of them beardless youths of tria and France were arrayed against each oth-Purcell seventeen, and with a saddened yet determined er. Her father and her husband had crossed tiers of France. Before setting out from Paris in the atmosphere of courts. Napoleon could Reilly. on his desperate enterprise, he took a very sol- immolate Josephene apon the altar of his pelitemp and affecting leave of Maria and his son, ical ambition. And the Emperor of Austria It was Sabbath evening. Napoleon assembled had no hesitation in sacrificing the grandeur of in the apartments of the Tuilleries all the prin- this daughter to promote the grandeur of his cipal officers of the National Guard. A reli- throng. In the downfall of France, the spoil-gious ceremony was connected with the inter- crs would share the booty. And Francis was day, not an hour, not a moment was lost. The lovelifiess with the lofty attributes of the soul.

view, to render it additionally imposing. As very willing to wrest territory and power from the Emperor took the beautiful child, then his own child, that he might annex them to his three years of age, in his arms, and passing own dominions. It is not, perhaps, strange through the ranks of the efficers, with a most that a daughter of the Cresars should inherit touching address presented him to them as this passion of the Cæsars. As Maria saw the their future sovereign, cries of entlusiasm filled empire of Napoleon falling into fragments, she the apartment, and these gray-headed veterans forgot both her husband and her son, in her wept with emotion. The bell on the towers of cagerness to save what she could from the Notro Dame was tolling 3 o'clock in the morn- wreckfor herself. ing, when Napaleon rode through the dark and How different, on the contrary, was the condeserted streets of Paris, to join the army - duct of Josephene. She was the child of an He never saw Maria or his son again .obscufe planter of Martinique. But her spir-A sublimer scene has rarely been witnessed, it was of celestial mould. In the day of Napothan the almost superhuman struggles of Na- leon's quin, she forgot herself and her heartpoleon against the fearful odds which came rending wrongs, and was eager to abandon all Wherever be meets his the luxuries with which she was surrounded. foes, he hurs his little band upon them and and to follow the fortunes of her former husscatters them as leaves before the tempest .- hand into poverty, obscurity and exile. How And still the concentric lines draw nearer and infinitely superior are opulence and nobility of Laporte. nearer to his capital. For even when victory soul, to the accidents of birth. Exalted lineis perched upon the banner of the Emperor, and age des but render m re conspicuously degrawith his beardless boys, he is trampling in the ding. lowness and vulgarity and dishonor. dust the shaggy barbarians of Hungary and

From the Democratic Union. Proceedings of the-DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION. The gentlemen from the different counties of

of March Convention, assembled in the Court sent. House, at Harrisburg, at 10 b'clock. On motion of R. H. Kerr Esq. DAVID LYNCH was appointed Chairman of he Convention, for temporary organization. Alfred Gilmore and E. A. Penniman were producted Secretaries to the Convention. On motion of Mr. Frailcy, the counties were called over, when the following gentlemen ap-SENATORIAL DELEGATES. I. Philadelphia City-Henry M. Phillips, Alexander E. Dougherty II. Philadelphia County-William J. Crans, Ellis B. Schnabel, E. A. Ponniman.

IV. Montgomery—John A. Martin. IV. Chester and Delaware—James Atkins. V. Berks-John W. Tyson. VI. Bucks-John S. Bryan.

VII. Lancaster and Lebanon-Reah Frazer, William W. Murray. VIII. Schuylkill, Carbon, Monroe

Pike-Charles Frailey. IX. Nrothampton & Lehigh- C. F. Mertz. to. X. Susquehanna; Wayne and Wyoming-

Rufus M. Grennell. admitted as a delegate, which was agreed to. XI. Bradford and Tioga-E. O. Goodrich. XII. Lycoming, Clinton, Centre and Sulliran-John A. Gamble.

XIII. Luzerne & Columbia-C. R. Bucka IV. Northumberland and Dauphin-D. C.

XV. Union, Mifflin and Juniata-John XVI. Cumberland and Perry-Jacob

Baughman. which report was adopted : XVII. York—David Small. XVIII. Franklin and Adams—-Wilson Hon. CHARLES FRAILEY, Schuylkill.

XIX. Bedford, Blair and Huntingdon John Creswell.

XX. Armstrong, Cambria, Clearfield and Indiana-Robert Orr. XXI. Westmoreland & Somerset-Joshua

XXII. Fayette and Greene-John L. Daw-

XXHI. Washington-S.B. Hays. XXIV. Allegheny & Butler-John Cyle, Alfred Gilmore.

XXV. Mercer and Beaver-M. B. Kremm. XXVI. Crawford and Venango-W. II. Lamberton.

XXVII. Eric-James Thompson. XXVIII. Warren, Jefferson, Clarion, Pot-ter, McKean and Elk-John S. McCalment. Dr. J. AITKINS, Delaware. Secretaries. W Jack, Westmoreland county. David Small, York olutions : REPRESENTATIVES. Joseph L. Smith, Philadelphia Adams-Joel B. Danner. O. H. Mott, Pike Allegheny-James S. Craft, Samuel Jones, D. W. C. Brooks, Dauphin H. Kerr, David Lynch John Coyle, Allegheny Armstrong-H. N. Lee. James G. Gibson, Philadelphia city. Bradford-Gordon F. Mason, Bartholomew James Galloway, Mercer. On taking the Chair, the President returned Convention, to select a President and Vice Bedford-Wm. P. Schell, James Reamer. banks in a neat and appropriate address. Beaver-John Mitchel, Jeseph Pollock. Mr. Stambaugh moved a resolution that the Berks-John C. Evans, Sciomon L. Custer. ules of the House of Representatives, be the State Central Committee, to require of each John Zerbe, Isaad Ely. rules for the government of the proceedings of delegate his written pledge that, in good faithr Blair-John Dougherty, is Convention. Agreed to. Mr. Stambaugh then submitted the following wishes of the Democracy of Pennsylvania, in this Convention. Agreed to. Butler-James McGlaughlin. eamble and resolutions : nominating a candidate for the Presidency ; WHEREAS, The Democratic citizens of Penn- and the said delegates shall continue to vote Bucks-Paul Applebaugh, A. G. Ryall, preamble and resolutions : Joshua Wright. usages of the party, have delegated to this shall otherwise decide. And each Elector shall Convention the important trust of electing del- give a peldge, in writing, that he will vote for egates to the National Convention, the beld the nominee of the Baltimore Convention. Centre and Clearfield-I. D. Canfield, G. Walters. Chester-John Ralston, Joshua Hartshbrne, in Baltimore, on the 4th Monday of May next, And should any delegate or elector, thus ap-for the purpose of nominating candidates for pointed, refuse to pledge himself, the State President and Vice President, and also to nom- Central Cenmittee shall vacate his seat and fill John Hickman. Columbia-J. seph Levers. Cumberland—A., Smith McKinney, William inste Electors, equal in number to the Senators it with another. Gorgas. Cambria—John Kean. Nr. Craft then renewed the amendment of who shall be required to give a written pledge Mr. R. H. Kerr, which fell by the withdrawal to the Chairman of the Democratic State of Mr. Penniman's amendment Central Committee of Correspondence, that Whereupon, the Chair appointed S Jones, Delaware-Homer Eachus Dauphin-Edward A. Lesley, A. Patterson. they will vote for the nominees of this Conven- Seth Clover, Thos. Foster, John, W. Tyson: Eric-Murray Whallon, Smith Jackson. tion, for President and Vice President of the and John S Bryan said committee: Fayette-Westley Frost, John Irons. Franklin-Geo. W. Brewer, Fred'k Smith. United States. There are, for the purpose of fully and fairly proceeded to make nominations for Canal Com-Greene-John B. Gordon. ascertaining the choice of the Democratic party missioner, when of Pennsylvania for the office of President of Mr. Cox Huntingdon-John Scott, Indiana-Francis Laird Jr. Mr. Bennet Jefferson, Clarion and Venango-Seth Clo- the United States, be it Resolved, That this Convention do now pro- Mr. Craft r, George W. Ziegler. ceed to vote viva voce, for a candidate to be Mr. Tyson Lebanon-C: Carmony, recommended as the choice of the Democratic Mr. Gilmore Lehigh and Carbon-Samuel Marx, Jno. Fatzinger party of Pennsylvania, for the President of the Mr. Irons Luzerne-Warren J. Woodward, Samuel United States; and that the candidate who Mr. Dougherty Miffin-Jeseph B. Ard. Montgomery-Daniel Jacoby, Morrison, William H. Schneider. Democratic delegates of Pennsylvania, before On motion of Mr. Cox, the Convention then the National Convention for President of the proceeded, viva roce to vote for Canal Com William T. missioner. Mercer-James Galloway James Hazleton. United States. Mr. Penniman submitted the following reso-Monroe-M. M. Dimmick Intion : Resolved, That the delegates in each Con-gressional district select and report to this Con-vention, the name of one person to represent Searight, the Democracy of the State in the Baltinore Douglass, Bêatty, Northumberland-Edward Oyster. Northampton-George Schlaubauch, H. Hutter. Perry-William B. Anderson. Philadelphia City-James G. Gibson, Fran-Convention, in May next, to nominate a candi- Holman, date for President and Vice President of the Cresswell;

Napoleon rode over the gory field, and saw the rendered himself somewhat remarkable by his Crawford-Morrow B. Lowry, Solomon G. sylvania, in accordance with the established for Jas. Buchanan until a majority of them stender and fragile forms with which the ground attempts in the way of matrimonial speculation. Krick. pared, also armed. Step by step these angry jected the unhappy Empress entered her car-demonstrations were continued, till the disas-trous campaign to Moscow was arranged, to scene in melancholy silence. It was the buri-trous campaign to Moscow was arranged, to conquer a peace." When Napoleon had al hour of the Napoleon dynasty. The funeral trans, c. M. Johnston, S. C. Stambaugh, Levi terprise, and had assembled his legions upon the frontiers of his almost boundless empire, in the hour of his greates moced, threw herself the frontiers of his almost boundless empire, terprise, and had assembled his legions upon the frontiers of his almost boundless empire, the frontiers of his almost boundless empire,

[When Crawford county was called Mr. M'- duty it shall be to select and report for the son-Farland, one of the delegates, being absent, sideration of this Convention, one delegate from Mr. Lowry substituted Mr. Krick, Mr. Lam each Congressional district, to represent the berton, the Senatorial delegate, objected to Mr. Democratic party of Pennsylvania in the Na-Krick, and moved to substitute Mr. Brawley, tional Convention; and that such delegates The question was then postnoned for the party tional convention; and that such delegates the Commonwealth elected delegates to the 4th The question was then postponed for the pre- shall be selected who are known to this Con-

14. W W Marray,

15. Jas. M Anderso

16. Geo. W Brewer,

17. Dr. J B Ard,

18. John Gordon,

21. R H Kerr

Paul Applebaugh, 19. A M'Kinney, I L Ligntner, 20. John Mitchell, President.

Vic: Presidents.

JOHN A. BENDER, Philadelphia county.

R. FRAZER, Laucaster.

JOHN STAELMAN,

Hon. JAMES THOMPSON, Erie.

A. G. RYALL, Bucks county.

JOHN A. GAMBLE, Lycoming.

J. L. DAWSON, Fayette. ROBERT LOVE, Washington.

Gen. ROBERT ORR, Armstrong.

Col. JOSEPH LEVERS, Columbia.

SAMUEL TAGGART, Susquehanna.

A. SMITH M'KINNEY, Cumberland

JOHN C. EVANS, Berks.

A. PARKER, Juniata.

10. Wm II Hutter, 22. Smith Jackso 11. S W Puterbaugh, 23. M B Lowey,

James M'Anall,

3. Jacob F Souder,

John Ralston,

Homer Eachus.

4. Hugh Clark,

8. I L Ligntner,

9. S Custer.

5.

6.

7.

vention, as being willing to conform to the wink-sent J. Mr. Lowry moved that a committee of one from each. Congressional district be appointed to nominate officers for the permanent organi-zation of the Convention; which was agreed to The Chair then appointed the following com-mittee :
 W J Carns, 13. John Benet, 2 James M'Anall
 W W Mutham Anall
 W W Mutham Anall
 W W Mutham Anall
 Mr. Wanda Anall
 W Mutham Anall

VOL V. NG 11

olutions. Adopted. The following nominations were then made Saml. Jones nominated, James Buchanan. John Irons " C. M. Johnston " Lowis Casa G. M. Dallas M. B. Lowry "Martin Van Buren." The Convention then proceeded to vote for a candidate for the Presidency, and the roll being

10. Wm II Hutter, 22. Smith Jackson,
11. S W Puterbaugh, 23. M B Lowry,
12. J Brewster, 24. H N Lee.
Mr. Orr moved the appointment of a committee of the delegates from Dauphin, to ste if a better room for the meeting of the Conven-tion could not be obtained; which was agreed better room for the meeting of the Conven-tion could not be obtained; which was agreed candidate for the Presidenty, and the roll being called over, it appeared that candidate for the Presidenty, and the roll being called over, it appeared that candidate for the Presidenty, and the roll being called over, it appeared that Messrs. James M. Auderson, Applebaugh, Ard, Baughman, Bennett, Brewer, Browster, Brooks, Bryan, Canfield, Cameron, Cake, Clo-ver, Cox, Goyle, Craft, Curran, Guster, Danner, Diffenback, Dimmick, John Dougherty, Ely.
condition could not be obtained; which was agreed to. o. Mr. Lowry then moved that Mr. Krick be Hays, Hazeleton, Hickman, Hutter, Jackson, admitted as a delegate, which was agreed to. Mr. Krick was admitted. Mr. Thompson moved that the Convenior mant, M'Fairan, M'Glaughlin, M'Kinley, Al-adjourn until 21 o'clock. AFTERNOON SESSION AFTERNOON SESSION. At half past two o'clock, the temporary chairman called the Convention to order. Mr. Lowry, from the committee to report of-ficers for the permanent organization of the Convention, reported the following officers which report was adouted.

Messrs, Atkins, Wm. B. Anderson, Bacob Bender, Buckalew, Burns, Clark, Carns, Creswell, Alexander E. Dougherty, Eachus, Fatzinger, Felton, Frazer, Gibson, Holl, Johnston, Kelsh, Kline, Levers, M'Annal, Magee, Mertz, Penniman, Phillips, Purcill, Puterbaugh, Schnabel, Scott, Jos. L. Smith, Souder, Stallman, Woodard, and Young-34, voted for Mr. Dal-

Messrs. Carmony, Dawson, Frost, Irons, Jack, Laird Mitchell, Pollock, Reilly, Snodgrass-10, voted for Mr. Cass Messrs. Goodrich, Krick, Laporte, Lowry, and Mason-5, voted for Mr. Van Baren.

After discussion, in which the amendment was supported by Messrs. Kerr, Thompson, E. A. Lesley, Craft, Penniman, Schnabel, Galloway, Snodgrass, and Johnston-Mr. Penniman then withderew his resolu-

.Mr. Lowry then submitted the following res-

Resolved, That the delegates in this Convention from the several Congressional districts be requested to return to this Convention, subject to the approval of the Convention, the hames of suitable persons to be placed upon the electoral ticket, and delegates to the Baltimore President of the United States. Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the

All night with tortured feeling, He watched his speechless child, While, close beside her, kneeling, She knew him not, nor smiled, Again the factory's ringing Her last perceptions tried, When, from her straw bed springing, "Tis time!" she shricked and died.

That night a chariot passed her While on the ground she lay-The daughters of her master An evening visit pay ; Their tender hearts were sighing As negro wrongs were told, While the white slave was dying Who gained their father's gold.

MISCELLANY From the New York Evangelist. MARIA LOUISA.

IN REV. JOHN S. C. ABBOTT.

The sisters of Alexander of Russia were horrors of a bombardment the capital of France pephew. The will being finished, she gave the mortified and exceedingly irritated, that Napo- capitulated, and Napoleon was ruined. It was indeed a gloomy hour, when Maria upon thim for some pretended purpose, thus leon should have selected an Austrian rather than a Russian Erincess for his bride. In Louisa with her son descended from the apart- precluding him from an inquiry into her real these feelings the Russian Court generally par- ments of the Tuillerics to escape from Paris. ticipated. Coldness and alienation and mutual In the distance could be heard the approach- In a fortnight, the lady thought proper to be recriminations ensued. Anticipating a rup- ing battlef and the young Napoleon clung restored to health. The lawyer called to conture. Alexander began to marshal his armies screaming to the tapestry, refusing to be torn gratulate her on her restoration-begged per-Napoleon, that he might not be attacked unpre- from the palace of his father. Pale and de- mission to visit her, which was politely given.

Tartary, in other parts of the interminable line

Naria Louisa accompanied him as fat as Dres- upon the protection of the Allies. If she had aside to be read, and now read to be put aside. den. That was the hour and that was the possessed one emotion of real greatness, then - The world is, at present, divided into two place where Napoleon stood upon the very pin- was the hour to have shown it, and to have classes, those who forget to read, and those nacle of his glory He' had arrived at the extorted the admiration of mankind. Had Pa- who read to forget. Book-making, which used summit of the pyramid, and an all eyes were ris held out three hours longer, Napoleon would to be a science, is now a manufacture, with riveted upon him, swe-stricken, he made one have thrown bimself behind its defenses, and which as in every thing else, the market is so alse step and rolled, a mangled corpse, to the at least would have compelled his focs to come completely overstocked, that our literary operdust. At Dresden there was literally a Con- to reasonable terms. He felt most keenly the atives if they wish to avoid starving, must eat gress of Kings, all doing homage to him who want of character manifested by his wife on up one another. They have, for some time, speared to hold their crowns in his bands, and this joccasion. Once only, in the most confi- been employed in cutting up each other, as if cis Kelch, James McAnall, James Magec, R. who could enthrone them or dethrone them at dential intercourse, did he allow himself to ut. to prepare for the meal. Alas? they must R. Young. his pleasure. The wife of Napoleon was then ter any expression of these feelings. "Who have feason for their feast, without finding it surrounded with more of splendor and homage, can calculate the effect," he said, "which a feast of reason." than any female had probably ever received would have been produced by my youthful before. The pomp and the pride of the Con- consort running through the ranks of the army tinent revolved around her, and before her and the National Guard, holding her young on your fuger," said a village dandy to a counyouthful diadem the oldest potentiate bowed in son in her arms, presenting him to all, and pla-reverence. Queens were her maids of honor cing harself and him under the protection of love for you—it has no end." "Excesse me, and amid the brilliant throng of princes and of their courage and their bayonets: Whenever sir," said she, "I choose to keep it, for it is courtiers, she beamied forth the cynosure of all I think of it, the anguish abridges my life an likewise emblematical of mine for you—it has Toga—Jouab Br eyes. The lustre which encircled her husband hour."

enveloped her in its blaze of glory. It was Had Maria possessed the heroic fool of Joan however, but the intense glare of the meteor, of Are or of Charlotte Corday, she would have the precursor of the blackness and darkness ennobled perself and her sex in this crisis, which followed its explosion. Napoleon appointed Maria Begent of France magnationity. She would have roused the en- parently in great tribulation. Db, I don't know I've felt, like a f which seemed to invite her to achievements of hour with his face buried in his hands and ap-Napoleon appointed Maria Begent of France magnanimity. She would have to the rest Ob. I don't know. I've felt like a foot all Wayne and J den quietly to Paris, while the Emperor pro- one of Napoleon, would have thrown entire day. Well, returned the wife consolingly, T'm liam Cameron. ceeded, with his glittering band of five hund- France upon the invaders. But Maria was no red thousand warriors, in the campaign where heroine. Had Maria been capable of cherish-heroine. Had Maria been capable of cherish-he lost his army and dis grown, At the ter- ing those deep and sacred emotions of woman's the very picture of what you feel."

(To be continued.)

the countless 'hosts are advancing. They roll NEW WAY TO GET A HUSBAND. - A gentle-on and roll on, from the north and the east and man of the bar in neighboring county, in easy the south, like the locusts of Syria. Often as circuitstances and pretty good practice, had was strewn inured as he was to scenes of car- A mailen rather advanced in years, residing nage; and contending as he was for his throne some miles distant in the neighborhood, hearand his liberty, he forgot himself and' wept .- ing of this lawyer's speculating propensity-But it was all in vain. Europe bad risen in that his character was unexceptionable, and arms against a single man. The allies pressed his signation telerably good, resolved on maon, and soon their batteries were reared upon king him her husband. She hit upon the folthe heights which surrounded Paris, and their lowing expedient. She pretended suddenly to R. Gorgas. balls began to fall upon the roofs of the belea- be taken very ill, and sent for the man of the guered city like the first drops of a tempest. law to draw her will-he attended for that pur-Napoleon was absent, treasting the invaders pose. By her will she devised £10,000 in in one part of the vast segment by which they bank stocks, to be divided among her three were approaching. All hearts in the metrop- cousins, some thousands in bonds and notes to olis were frozen with terror ; and to avoid the a niece-and a vast landed estate to a favorite lawyer a very liberal fee, and enjoined secrecy circumstances. Need I mention the result ?

"I wish you would give me that gold ring Jacob F. Souder. no beginning." At the state of the second

"What's the matter my dear?" said a kind. wife to her husband, who had sat for half an McKinney. William Jack COL

Philadelphia County-Hugh Clark, Charles United States. J. Burns, John Kline, John A. Bender, John Stallman, Anthony Felton, Joseph L. Smith,

Schuylkill-Thomas Foster, Jos. W. Cake. Somerset-William Roddy Susquehanna and Wyoming-Saml. Tag-

Tioga-Jourb Brewster.

Wayne and Pike Oscar H. Mott.

Union and Juniate-Andrew Parker, Wil

Mr. R. H. Kerr moved to strike out the tute :

gressional districts do now proceed to nominate and the names of Aussis. Holman, "Lawweit delegates, to be elected to represent the State of Pennsylvania in the National Convention to be held in Baltimore on the 4th Monday of May

Washington James, McFarran, Robert next, and that the delegation from one district Beatty, shall not nominate more than two condidutes Painter. Westmoreland -John Snodgrass, Alexander for the consideration of the Convention, unless Searight, a majority of such Congressional delegation Ives. Warren, McKean and Elk-Alonzo I. Wil- shall agree to place a greater number in nomi-Mesars. Barr and Douglass were withdrawn,

Convention in conformity with the foregoing resolutions, be referred to a committee con ing of one delegate from each Congressional Painter,

On motion of Mr. Patterson, the Convention nominated Israel Painter. Timothy Ives. Geo. R. Riddle. Samuel Holman, Wm. Beatty. Wm. Searight.

John Cresswell Wm. Fry. 🕐 Thos. Bower. A A. Douglass. Wm. Barr. Robert Spear

Rudolphus Smith Lewis Dewart.

Ist BALLOT. 30 Dewart

Riddle, 26 18 Bower, Spear, 13 Smith. -16 Barn. -6

- 4 Scattering,

Fry, Sixty-soven votes being necessary for s above and insert the following as a substi- choice, it was declared that neither of the above named gentleman were elected. Where-"That the delegates from the soveral Gon- upon, the Convention went into a second ballet, gressional districts do now proceed to nominate and the names of Messis. Holman, Creswell,

> Douglass, 13 27 Riddle, 5 39 28 Barry Fry, 20 nation. Resolved, That the nomination made to the and the result on the 3d ballos was as follows i

Sd BALLOT. SO Beatty. 67 Riddley 14 5

Searight, district represented in this Convention wiese Ives

Love.