

THE DEMOCRAT.

G. S. HENPSTEAD, Editor.

MONTROSE.

Thursday, March 16, 1848.

FOR PRESIDENT, JAMES BUCHANAN.

Subject to decision of the National Convention.

FOR CANAL-COMMISSIONER, ISRAEL PAINTER, JR.

Of Westmoreland County.

The Nominations of the State Convention.

In accordance with the decision of the late Democratic State Convention, we this week raise to our mast head the names of Hon. JAMES BUCHANAN, for the Presidency, and of ISRAEL PAINTER, JR., for Canal Commissioner, as the choice of the Democracy of Pennsylvania for the respective offices to which they have been nominated.

It is well known to our readers generally, that we, in company with, we believe, a majority of our Democratic citizens of the county, have been indisposed to favor the nomination of Mr. Buchanan. And we have done so, as we claim, not only in accordance with our privilege, but with the best of motives.

Resolved, That the delegates to the National Democratic Convention be and are hereby instructed, to vote against and oppose the introduction of the two-thirds rule; as we conceive that a majority—being the usage of the party—is sufficiently Democratic for all purposes.

This resolution was supported by Messrs. Kerr, Wilmot, Snodgrass and Dawson, and opposed by Mr. Frazer, when it was adopted—yeas 78, nays 33—as follows: YEAS—Messrs. Aitkins, Anderson, Bacon, Bennett, Brewer, Brewster, Clover, Crewell, Curran, Dawson, Dimmick, Alex. The Treaty Ratified!

The Washington correspondent of the Pennsylvanian, under date of March 10—10 o'clock P. M., writes: "The Senate adjourned at half-past nine o'clock, after having ratified the treaty by a vote of thirty-seven to fifteen."

This intelligence will be hailed with transports of enthusiasm throughout the length and breadth of the land. The injunction of secrecy still enshrouding it, of course no one can tell with certainty its exact provisions, although it is pretty generally understood that the provision regarding British claims in Texas has been stricken out.

The New York Herald of the 11th inst. contains what purports to be a faithful statement of the vote on this great question, which we here subjoin without vouching for its accuracy: * AYES—Messrs. Ashley, Atherton, Bagley, Bell, Bradbury, Bright, Butler, Calloun, Cameron, Cass, Clark, Crittenden, John Davis, Jefferson Davis, Dayton, Dickinson, Dix, Downs, Feleh, Foote, Hale, Hamngan, Hunter, Recyrdy, Johnson, Herschel Johnson, Henry Johnson, Mangum, Mason, Miller, Moor, Niles, Rusk, Sevier, Sturgeon, Turney, Underwood, and Yulee—37.

Resolved, That the delegates to the National Democratic Convention be and are hereby instructed, to vote against and oppose the introduction of the two-thirds rule; as we conceive that a majority—being the usage of the party—is sufficiently Democratic for all purposes.

Hon. David Wilmot in the State Convention.

We print below two articles, one from the "Harrisburg Argus," and the other from the "Lancasterian," a very able paper published in Lancaster city, in relation to the course of the distinguished Representative in Congress from this district, Hon. David Wilmot, in the late Harrisburg Convention.

The announcement, that the Hon. David Wilmot was a Delegate from Bradford County to the 4th of March Convention, created great interest in the proceedings of that body. It cannot be concealed, neither should it be, that a combined and persevering effort has been made, by the immediate and particular organs of Mr. Buchanan, so utterly to prostrate Mr. Wilmot, that he should lose all cast with the Democracy of Pennsylvania.

The names of Messrs. Wylie, Porter, Blanding, Ritter, Henderson and M'Laughlin, were withdrawn by their respective friends. The Convention then proceeded to vote for a second Senatorial Elector, and the vote being taken, resulted as follows: David D. Wagoner, had 68 votes. Reah Frazer, 59.

Resolved, That the delegates to the National Democratic Convention be and are hereby instructed, to vote against and oppose the introduction of the two-thirds rule; as we conceive that a majority—being the usage of the party—is sufficiently Democratic for all purposes.

Mr. Painter having received the number of votes necessary to a choice, on motion, the Convention unanimously confirmed the nomination.

At this state of the proceedings, David Wilmot, delegate from Bradford, appeared and took his seat in place of Gordon F. Mason, who had been substituted.

A resolution was next submitted that the Convention proceed to elect two Senatorial Delegates to the Baltimore Convention, to represent this State in the 4th of March National Convention, and also two Senatorial electors to vote for President and Vice President of the United States in the next Presidential Electoral College.

FOR SENATORIAL DELEGATES. Mr. Clover nominated John W. Forney. Mr. Kerr " John M. Read. Mr. Lynch " Wilson McCandless. Mr. M'Kinney " E. W. Hutter.

George W. Barton, of Philadelphia, 15 votes. George W. Woodward, of Luzerne, 6. Samuel Jones of Allegheny, 3.

A delegate still remaining to be elected, another ballot was had, before which, however, the names of Messrs. Plumer, Hutter, McCandless and Jones were withdrawn, and the vote stood—

John W. Forney, of Philadelphia, 96 votes. Henry D. Gilpin, do 23. George W. Barton, do 4. John M. Read, do 1.

And WILSON McCANDLESS and JOHN W. FORNEY were unanimously declared the choice of this Convention, as Senatorial Delegates to the Democratic National Convention, which assembles at Baltimore on the 4th Monday of May next.

Mr. Brewer then moved the appointment of a committee of one from each Congressional district, to prepare an address and resolutions, to be submitted to the Convention; which was agreed to.

Mr. Lowry moved that the Chair appoint a State Central Committee; which was agreed to. The Convention then adjourned until Monday morning.

After further discussion Mr. Craft withdrew his amendment, and Mr. Lowry's resolution was adapted, without calling the yeas and nays. Mr. Dougherty moved that the Convention now proceed to the election of Senatorial Delegates to the Baltimore Convention, and Senatorial electors.

Mr. Lowry then moved that the Convention now proceed to nominate a Vice President; which was disagreed to. Adjourned until 7 o'clock.

At half past seven, the Convention resumed its session. On motion of M. Jones, a committee of five were appointed to wait upon the Hon. JAMES BUCHANAN, and inform him that the Democratic Convention of the State of Pennsylvania had given him a majority of their votes for the office of President of the United States.

Second Day. The President announced the following, as the committee to prepare an address and resolutions: 1. Wm. J. Craun, Philadelphia city. 2. James M'Abnell, " 3. John Kline, " 4. Anthony Egston, " 5. John A. Martin, Montgomery.

Mr. Pennington moved that the report of the delegates from the Congressional districts, reported unanimously, and those reported by a majority of the delegates in each district, be adopted as delegates and electors.

Mr. Lowry moved to strike out the amendment, and insert the following: "That the reports of the delegates and electors be considered separately by Congressional districts, commencing with the first and continuing in numerical order."
