WIDOWS OF REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIERS. An act of Congress, approved the 2d of Febuary, 1848, makes further provision for widows of all such soldiers, whose marriage took place before the last of January, 1794, to receive for and during their natural lives, from and after the 4th of March, 1848, the annuity which would have been allowed to their husbands by the Act of June 7th, 1832, if living at the time it was passed, subject to the same restrictions as are prescribed in the act of 1832, granting half pay and pensions to certain widows. And further, all widows entitled to the benefits of this latter actione admitted to the benefits of the act just passed.

STRANGE CUSTOMS.—The Egyptians had a a funeral tribunal, by which the dead were tried before they could lie buried. After death, every Egyptian was brought before this tribunal, and, if convicted of having in his life, acted unworthily, he was denied a place in the burial place of his ancestors. This was a great disgrace to his family; and according to the Egyptian theology; it deprived the spirit of the deceased of an entrance into heaven. One of the things which caused the infliction of this mark of disgrace was that of dying in debt. If, however, the children or friends of the deceased should pay his debts, as they sometimes
