The various and conflicting reports which have been in circulation as to my intentions with respect to the next Presidency, appears to me to furnish a proper occasion for a full, frank and explicit exposition of my feelings, wishes and views upon that subject. This it is now my purpose to make. With a strong disinclination to the use of my name again in connecnot to be thought of as a candidate. In my absence, I frequently expressed to different gentlemen my unwillingness to be again in that attitude; but though no one was authorized to publish my decision, one way or the other, having reserved the right to do so exclusively myself. On reflection, I thought it was due to my friends to consult with them before I took a decisive step. Accordingly, within the course of the last three months, I have had an opportunity of conversing fully and freely with them, many of them having addressed to me the was buried a few weeks ago under suspicious strongest appeals and the most carnest entreastrongest appeals and the most carnest entrea-ties, both verbally and written to dissuade me out of a sleigh, in which they were both riding.
