Affairs in England, The following is taken from a London letter,

of the 7th inst. brought by the Acadia :

London is at this moment in a very agitated state. Every body is talking about the movements of the Charists. The government, I am assured, is making extraordinary military preparations. The/immense stock of guns, pistols, & swords, which have been kept at the Tower, were yesterday distributed all over the metropolis. The bank, Custom House, Exchange, Post Office, Somerset House, Guidhall, Museum, the Palaces, and public buildings, are filled with these weapons of war. Several regiments offence. of troops are ordered immediately to London.

and soldiers are to be distributed at various points, having ball cartridges in abundance. These precautions are taken to prevent any disturbances on Monday next, the day appointed for a Chartist meeting on Kennington Common. It is varioually estimated that from 50;-000 to 500,000 persons will be present at that meeting. The object of the meeting is to form a procession, and march to the House of Parliament, there to doliver to Mr. Feargus O'Conner a monster petition which he will present to Parliament.

There is noting objectionable in the petition, but the government fear that some disturbance will ensue from such a formidable mass of men. To-day the government have issued a procla-mation, forbidding the meeting !. This has somewhat calmed the minds of the upper classpassed a unanimous resolution that they would hold their proposed meeting, notwithstanding the government proclamation ! It is because I know that these two or three hundred thousand chartists, now in London, are so determined. that I fear the worst consequences. I fear that there will be a collision between the troops and the people on Monday. I fear that the secne of Paris, Vienna and Berlin will be reenacted in the streets of London.

I have this moment been informed by a gentleman connected with one of the public offices, that the procession will not be allowed to pass over any of the bridges, (Kennington Common) is on the Surrey side of the Thames,) and, furthermore, the military will be stationed on the bridges, and will not permit any persons to pass, and if an attempt is made, orders will be ninion as to whether the queen and her family should remain in London, or leave before Mondav next.

It was finally decided that it would not h prudent (in another word safe.) for her to remain. The queen left Buckingham Palace to-day for the Isle of Wight. You will remember that she was only recently confined, besides which it is a cold and wet day ; nevertheless, it was decined advisable for her to leave town.

It may be concluded that nothing else is now the topic of conversation in the streets and in Dablin, for ordering pikes, has turned out to Jesus. in. other meeting. A letter from Mr. S. O'Brien was read stating that 50,000 Parisians would be ready to aid the Irish in any attempt to regain their liberty. Twenty students of Trinity Col-lege were on the platform.

Several other assemblages were held throughout the provinces, and lectures were delivered nightly in the metropolis by the Rev. Thaddeus O'Malley, P. P., on the political rights of the people, and by other gentlemen on the superiority of the pike over firearms as a weapon of
