THE FARMER'S COLUMN.

From the American Agriculturist.

Yankee Farming.

The Nine-Acre Meadow.—It was the first week in July, and the ruddy dawn was just beginning to streak the light clouds that lay floating in the eastern horizon, when Mr. Doolittle and his son William, each bearing a scythe, let down the two middle bars of a set of five, which mounted guard over one of his meadows; then thrusting themselves through the opening, they stood bolt upright amidst the tall grass, waving before a gentle western breeze, ready ripe for the harvest. This meadow had been in grass from time immemorial, and was the pride of my good neighbor's heart. It embraced about nine acres, and was most admirably cared for, in a manner which I may speak of hereafter. Suffice it to say for the present, that its average yield was from two to two and a half tons per acre, which, when people wanted to get on what they termed the "soft side" of Uncle Sim, they modestly stretched to three tons.

The Mowing Bee.—Upon the principle that "many hands make light work," Uncle Sim always got up a "mowing bee" when he cut this meadow, by inviting some half dozen more of his neighbors to assist him. No one had yet made his appearance; so by way of preparation, and to try his scythe, Mr. Doolittle put in and cut down a few rods of a corner of the meadow; then pausing, set the upper end of the snath on the ground, took a handful of grass, wiped the blade clean, then with a long, flat scythe stone, which hung twisted into his leathern girdle, proceeded leisurely to whet off the wire edge. This nearly finished, he began an advisory discourse to his son.

Uncle Sim teaches William how to Mow.—"Now, Billy, my boy, tho' I see it, 'taint old folks like me that wants tutors,' howsomedever, 'him as thinks he knows most sometimes knows least;' so of all livin' things beware of consate; consate swallows up a man afore he knows it, like a snake does a frog; then there is nothin' on him left 'cept a big bunch in his belly. Wal, as I was sayin', tho I sez it myself, nobody can larn you better about mowin' than I; and as you was 17 year old last April, and have now got to be e'en a'most as big as your daddy, its time for you to be a man and take your lead in the gang among the rest on 'em. I've gin two shillin' extra to get your a first rate scythe, which is a good deal o' money you must know, these hard times; but Simeon Doolittle don't mind that for one of his own flesh and blood. Folks can say what they like about him; all is, he b'lieves in one thing, and that is, give a boy good tools and show him how to use 'em." "When that's done," he added lowering his voice confidentially, and pausing a moment in his scythe-sharpening, while he touched the tip of his nose with the end of his whet stone,—"show him how to keep 'em in order. Heh, Billy? Wal, my boy, this it ain't likely ye can ollous do to-day; so if things don't go right, say nothin,' but come to me kind o' careless; for you know 'it's a bad workman that quarrels with his tools,' and I'll give your scythe a rub myself; then if it don't shave the hair off the grass as easy as a pig's bristles come arter scaldin', I'll say there's no gumption in whetstones at mowin' time.—And, Billy, my boy, I say agin, mind what I telled ye so often last summer, when ye first begun mowin'. Stand up to your work like a man, as if ye warn't afraid on't; and don't go stoopin' down like, as if ye had predetarmined to break your back; nor poke your head and arms out like a crane, a lookin' for pollywogs in the mud, tirin' yourself e'en a'most to death afore a half a day's work is done.—No sir, my boy; this is the way to do it smooth and easy. Stand up straight, and as you pint in with the scythe, bend your knees a little, and as the blade comes round, move the right foot gradually for'ard, rollin' your body in the hip-sockets like a well-greased hinge; now slightly bend your back, and as you are pintin' out, bring up your left foot and so go on; and that's the hull secret o' easy mowin'. I've swung the scythe from day break to dusk, all day long week in and week out, doin' nothin else; and followin' my own advice, it never tired Simeon Doolittle yit.

Assembling of the Neighboring Mowers and Remarks thereupon.—"If here ain't Major Goodell, now, jest comin' over the hill—if I could only drive oxen as well as him. Wal, he can't out-beat me mowin', so there's some comfort in that idee. He keeps up an even swath, but then it ain't so wide as mine by jest 'leven inches. Howsomdever, as I was sayin' a little pot never held so much as a big kittle, so don't think, Billy, that I'm a blamin' on him; he does as much as any other man o' his inches, and more too in drummin'. If there ain't James Jones, nephew of the Squire.—What a spry feller he is; jest leaped that 'ere brook e'en a'most a rod wide, at a single jump. He's ollous talkin' chimics, geolgics, rotation o' crops, and science o' breedin'. Wal, there's nothin' agin his mowin' tho I wish he warn't quite so book larned; he and the Sargeant is forever arguin' together about somethin', nobody knows nothin' about, 'cept themselves."

"Hello," says Uncle Sim, as I leaped over the bars behind his back, and hearing my name mentioned, I took the liberty of smartly slapping him on the shoulder, "you here?" Wal, I was jest sayin',"—Never mind what you were saying; for like yourself, I can now and then quote a proverb; "listeners you know never hear any good of themselves." "But it wasn't that, Sargeant." No, said I, you're no backbiter; so go on, and let us have the rest of your remarks. Wal, I was a sayin', beggin' pardon o' your presence, that you and James Jones, who I'm glad is here now, are quite a-maxin' spry, and smart mowers, if you warn't quite so bookish." Oh, as to that matter, said I, there's Joe Watkins, moving lazily along the road here, who can scarce read at all, so you may have him to balance the account. "Yes, he is a lazy fellow to walk, and not very bright in the upper story, nother, that's a sartin; but somehow or other, Sargeant, you, nor nobody else seems round him, bright or cloudy. It is marvellous what a simple critter he is; and yet if anybody ever eat a little too close to my heels for comfort, it is that 'ere same dummy, Joe Watkins. If there ain't Capting Trask, and that 'ere great big nigger, Cesar, he fetched all the way from old Virginny with him, cause he is such a good cook and nuss. He'd a better took him to Albion to settle, I guess. Wal, he beats all our folks a swallin', that's a fact, and I'll acknowledge when we mowed together afore, his swath was not much and a quarter wider than mine; but then its kept in and doesn't get out clean, which is worse than if a hay crop, and makes the meadow look tarnation ragged arter it's raked over. As for the Capting, I never saw him equal to anything in my life, but if he mows equal to that 'ere big gobbler, he will be a most stiddier than he'll be the first man that gets out of the line. That Tom turkey, Sargeant, is a little the greatest killer I ever had in my yard; and sich bits o' chickens as we've got! But here's all seven on us now, besides Bill; and as the sun will soon be up, and I know by them yallow streaky clouds in the east, it's goin' to be a hot, we'd better set in; so who says the fifth hat who runs here lot of Simeon Doolittle's by dinner time?" But afore we begin, mind and hold me; I'm not one o' them that wastes the grass and so very short as some does. It's an old saying, I know, that an inch at the bottom is worth two at the top.' Wal now, accordin to my notion, that depends on circumstances. 'Tis all very well when the grass isn't yet ripe; but I don't b'lieve in cuttin' unripe grass. I wait ollous till it begins to shed its flowers, and is not only done growin', but the bottom o' the grass has got kinder hard. That's the best time for cuttin' accordin' to my experience and my father's afore me; and then an inch at the top is worth two times two at bottom. Cut the grass even—leave the dry part to shade the ground, to rot, and to manure the crop another year, that's the way to suit me."

HYER'S PILLS.

The American Improved

Hygeian Vegetable Medicine.

THESE Pills are one of the best Medical Compounds in use at the present day.—As a common family physic, for administration in all temporary complaints of the stomach and bowels, head ache, colds, &c., they may be fully depended upon, and a prompt use of them on the first appearance of indisposition will invariably save much sickness. They are peculiarly adapted to all cases of weakness and general debility—any derangement of the system, and especially with females—and a steady, uninterrupted use of them, in strict conformity with the directions will very soon restore the organs of the stomach to their natural tone and action, and regulate the bowels, and renovate the whole system.

There is no disposition to give extravagant commendations of them. What is here stated, is the result of actual experience with them, and that through a period of fifteen years. It is not supposed, or pretended, that they will raise the dead; neither are they designed to be used as freely as we use our food. Such is not the true purpose of medicine. Its only appropriate office is to assist nature in restoring the system to a proper tone and action, when unhoidably, or through carelessness or excess, it becomes deranged. Many are careless, and hence need this aid. And the most careful are liable to irregularities of the system. It is needless almost to say, that a prompt use of safe and effective remedies, on the first appearance of illness, is the part of wisdom. ☞ Such a Medicine the Proprietor knows these Pills to be. ☜ And he is certain that in forty nine cases out of fifty, where a fair trial is made according to the directions, they will be used again as a standard medicine. He has never known an instance, where they have been thus used, in which they have not met with UNQUALIFIED APPROVAL!

Numerous testimonials may be seen at the General Office of sale, and references will be given to substantial living witnesses of their valuable curative properties.

No Family, after a fair trial, will be without them.

They are put up in FIFTY CENT and DOLLAR PACKAGES, each having a pamphlet embracing a valuable Treatise on Disease with full directions for use. The Dollar packages are the cheapest to the purchaser. They may be ordered through Druggists, giving the Street and No. of the General Depot.

Challenge! Challenge!!

THE challenge.—We have observed very patiently for a year past the fevered attempt by some of our fraternity, to force a reputation which their professional skill alone must fail to give them. And we would continue our silent observation, under the consciousness of an unbolstered merit, were it not more than probable that this species of fanfaronade may divert the public eye from a candid examination into the merits of the multitude of professors in the Daguerrean art.

We would see merit seek an honorable publicity, and thereby win for itself golden opinions; but we despise that miserable chicanery by which a mere pretence gains an ovation over genuine worth. It is to make this vaulting ambition overleap itself or withdraw its spurious claims, that we now trespass on its fancied security by throwing the glove for an honorable test of skill. Our gage is $500 that the average of a given number of daguerreotypes executed at the Daguerrean Gallery of M. P. SIMONS, 179 Chesnut street, will exhibit a greater amount of perfection in the art than any similar average number from any other gallery in the United States. This is no idle boast—we mean what we say. We are desirous that the public should give their patronage to merit, not pretence.

We ask investigation, free, rigid, impartial investigation. We have thrown the glove Who will pick it up? M. P. SIMONS, N. B. It will be understood by our country friends, that the above challenge has never yet been accepted, and we also wish it understood, that we did not intend to make by this wager, as we have already expressed our intention to appropriate the price to some charitable purpose. M. P. SIMONS.

HEALTH—HEALTH.

THE MOST EFFECTUAL of all KNOWN REMEDIE

DR. DRAKE'S PANACEA

THE ONLY RADICAL CURE FOR

CONSUMPTION!

IT ALSO REMOVES AND PERMANENTLY CURES ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM AN IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD Viz: Scrofula or King's Evil, Rheumatism, Obstinate Cutaneous Eruptions, Pimples on the face, Blotches, Biles, Chronic Sore Eyes, Ring Worm or Tetter, Scald Head, Enlargement & Pain of the Bones & Joints, Stubborn Ulcers, Syphilitic Symptoms, Sciatica or Lumbago, diseases arising from an injurious use of Mercury, Dropsy, Exposure or Imprudence in life; also, Chronic constitutional disorders.

In this medicine several innocent but very potent articles of the vegitable kingdom are united, forming a compound entirely different in its character and properties from any other preparation, and unrivalled in its operation on the system when laboring under disease. It should be in the hands of every person, who by business, or general course of life, is predisposed to the very many ailments that render life a curse, instead of a blessing, and so often result in death.

FOR SCROFULA,

Dr. Drake's Panacea is recommended as a certain remedy. Not one instance of its failure has ever occurred when freely used! It cures the disease and at the same time imparts vigor to the whole system.—Scrofulous persons can never pay too much attention to the state of their blood. Its purification should be their first aim; for perseverance will accomplish a cure of even hereditary disease.

FOR ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,

Scurvy, Scorbutic Affections, Tumors, White Swelling, Erysipelas, Ulcers, Cancers, Running Sores, Scabs, and Biles, Dr. Drake's Panacea cannot be too highly extolled; it searches out the very root of the disease, and by removing it from the system, makes a cure certain and permanent.

INDIGESTION OR DYSPEPSIA.

No medicine perhaps has ever been discovered which gives so much tone to the stomach and causes the secretion of a healthy gastric juice to decompose the food as Dr. Drake's Panacea.

RHEUMATISM.

Dr. Drake's Panacea is used with the greatest success in Rheumatic Complaints, especially such as are chronic. It cures by driving out all impurities and foul humors which have accumulated in the system, which are the cause of Rheumatism, Gout, and Swellings of the joints. Other remedies sometimes give temporary relief; this entirely eradicates the disease from the system, even when the limbs and bones are dreadfully swollen.

CONSUMPTION.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED.—Coughs, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Spitting of Blood, Asthma, Difficult or profuse Expectoration, Hetic Flush, Night Sweats, Pain in the side &c. have been cured, and can be with as much certainty as any other simple disease. A specific has long been sought for, but in vain until the discovery of Dr. Drake's Panacea. It is mild and safe but certain and efficacious in its operation, and cannot possibly injure the most delicate constitution. We would earnestly recommend those afflicted to give it a trial—and we believe they will not have occasion to regret it. The system is cleansed and strengthened, the ulcers on the lungs are healed, and the patients gradually regain their usual health and strength. Read the following:

TESTIMONY.

PHILA., Dec. 14th, 1747.

DEAR SIR:—In reply to your question respecting the use of Dr. Drakes Panacea, I will say, that although a perfect disbeliever in the exisistence of a Panacea, or a cure for all diseases, however valuable it may be in certain conditions of the system, still I have believed that a cure for consumption would be discovered sooner or later, and curiosity led me to try your medicine in two very inveterate cases. They were pronounced by the attending physicians to be PULMONARY CONSUMPTION, and abandoned by them as incurable. One of the persons had been under the treatment of several very able practitioners for a number of years, and they said she had "old fashioned Consumption combined with Scrofula," and that she might linger for some time, but could not be permanently relieved. In both cases the effect of the Panacea has been most gratifying. Only four or five bottles were used by one of the persons before she began to improve rapidly. The other took about ten. I will only add that familiar as I am with consumption by inheritance and by the extensive observation as a study, and knowing also the injurious effects in nine cases out of ten of tar, boneset, and other vegetable tonics, as well as many of the expectorants and sedatives, I should never have recommended the use of Drake's Panacea if I had not been acquainted with the ingredients. Suffice it to say that these are recommended by our most popular and scientific physicians, and in their present combined state, form probably the best alterative that has ever been made. The cure is in accordance with a theory of Consumption broached in France a few years ago, by one of her most eminent writers on medicine, and now established by facts which admit of no dispute.

Very Respectfully Yours. L. C. GUNN.

To use the language of another, 'Dr. Drake's Panacea is always salutary in its effects—never injurious. It is not an opiate or expectorant. It is not intended to lull the invalid into a fatal security. It is a great remedy—a grand healing and curative compound, the great and only remedy which medical science & skill has yet produced for the treatment of this hitherto unconquered malady. And no person afflicted with this dread disease will be just to himself and his friends if he go down to the grave without testing its virtues. A single bottle, in most cases, will produce a favorable change in the condition of any patient, however low."

TO THE LADIES.

Ladies of pale complexion and consumptive habits, and such as are debilitated by those obstructions which females are liable to, are restored by the use of a bottle or two, to bloom and vigor. It is by far the best remedy ever discovered for weakly children, and such as have bad humors; being pleasant, they take it. It immediately restores the appetite, strength and color.

Nothing can be more surprising than its invigorating effects on the human frame. Persons, all weakness and lassitude before taking it, at once become robust and full of energy under its influence. It immediately counteracts the nervelessness of the female frame.

CAUTION.—Be careful and see that you get the genuine DR. DRAKE'S PANACEA—it has the signature of GEO. F. STORRS on the wrapper—and also the name "DR. DRAKE'S PANACEA, PHILA." blown in the glass.

THE GREAT REMEDY OF THE FORESTS.

Strong & Osgood's Vegetable

PHYSANTHROPIC PILLS.

THE Proprietors take this method of making known to the world the most valuable and important discovery ever recorded in the history of medicine.

In testing by chemical experiment, the medicinal properties of a rare plant, which grows along the banks of the Waxepinicon River, in Iowa, they discovered that it possessed a healing and restoring power, which, in their opinion, in combination with other remedies, the result of their medical researches, would render it a

GRAND CATHOLICON

for a suffering world. The remedial powers of this plant were tested with the least possible delay, and in hundreds of instances, they proved fully adequate to the complete and perfect removal of disease in any and every form, and it is confidently believed that the remedy is destined to produce an entire revolution in the medical world. Facts in their possession fully warrant them in making the astounding announcement, that it immeasurably surpasses in its power to uproot and expel disease, every other medicine now known.

This Great Remedy;

has been administered in order to test its power to the numbers of patients, in the most hopeless cases, such has said baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians, and had proved too obstinate to be removed by any of the numerous remedies of the day, and to the perfect astonishment of all, it effected complete and permanent cures; thus brilliantly triumphing, not only over the greatest remedies known to the medical profession, but over all the Pills, Syrups and Panaceas, whose virtues are so loudly trumpeted throughout the length and breadth of the land.

AS A GENERAL FAMILY MEDICINE,

the proprietors challenge the world to produce its equal. It acts in perfect harmony with the laws of nature, and completely purifies the Blood, a vitiated state of which is the cause of all disease. It has been administered in Asthma, Apoplexy, Barbers' Itch Canker, Catarrh, Cholera Morbus, Colic, Colds Cough, Consumption, Croup, Cramps and Convulsions, Cancerous Sores and Ulcers, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Dysentary, Epilipsy, Erysipelas, Enlargement of the Spleen, Fever and Ague, Female Complaints, Fevers of all kinds, Gravel, Gout, Hysterics, Inflammation of the Liver, Lungs, Kidneys and Bladder, Indigestion, Jaundice, Leprosy, Liver Complaint, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Piles, Scrofula, Spinal Complaint, Salt-Rheum, Scald Head, Syphilis, Suppression of the Menses, Tic Douloureux, &c. The proprietors have yet to learn that it has failed in a single instance of effecting a cure.

As a Preventive

of disease, it is entitled to the fullest confidence of the community. An immense amount of suffering, time and money has been saved by a timely use of it.

It has already crossed the Atlantic, and measures are now in progress to extend the blessings of this GREAT REMEDY throughout the world.

DR. SWAYNE'S AMERICAN REMEDIE

WESTERN NEW YORK

COLLEGE OF HEALTH,

207 Main Street, Rochester, N. Y.

DR. G. C. VAUGHN'S

Vegetable Lithontriptic Mixture.

THIS celebrated remedy is extensively increasing in fame by the many cures it is making.

ALL OVER THE WORLD.

It has now become the only medicine for family use, and is particularly recommended for all stages of this complaint immediately relieved, no matter of how long standing. Not Punished for testimony. This disease is so frightful to the Christian, and the slow and dreadful progress of the malady, treating the system to a degree which renders the patient utterly unable to move, forms one of its most distressing features.

DROPSY:

HITHERTO INCURABLE,

it now yields to this remedy—and Physicians use it publicly and privately with perfect success. Let any one who has ever had a symptom of Dropsy, of any character, keep this article by them and if they would avoid the unnatural to perforate the system and let the accumulated water flow away, only to fill up again, and finally end in a dreadful death, let them just use this remedy in season, and a recovery insues. Let them try it at any stage of the disease, and a cure is certain, if they will give it a fair trial.

APPLICATION OF THE KNIFE,

GRAVEL,

and all diseases of the urinary organs; for these distressing complaints it stands alone; no other article can relieve you; and the cures testified to will convince the most skeptical of its complete

How many suffer from this painful complaint, and fancy there is no cure. You may think you have gravel when there is only inflammation—there may be calculi—and yet it may be kindly formed—it may even be stone in the bladder, yet you are sure of a cure in all but the last named. Even in the last stage, when all of stone is the shape does exist, by the aid of this medicine all inflammation caused by it will subside, and unless the formation is of years standing, the calculi is dissolved, and brought away in fine particles. All stages of this disease has been cured by this mixture. One of the first Medical men in the State of New York was cured of gravel by this medicine. See Pamphlet.

LIVER COMPLAINTS.

Fever and Ague, Bilious Diseases—To the Great West especially, and wherever these complaints prevail this medicine is offered.

NO MINERAL AGENT,

no deleterious compound is a part of this mixture, it cures these diseases with certainty and celerity, and does not leave the system torpid. See Pamphlet.

So thoroughly does this mixture act in this disease, that an immediate cure is made. All other remedies are now set aside, as this great vegetable preparation, safe, (for it contains no poisonous mineral), which is the basis of all other Fever Ague and remedies,)

SPEEDY AND EFFECTUAL.

It is the grand healing medicine, and is daily curing its thousands. The secret of its re-building the entire constitution is, that it is compounded of 22 distinct vegetable properties, each root a remedy distinct by itself.

PILES,

a complaint of a most painful character, is

IMMEDIATELY RELIEVED,

and a cure follows by a few days use of this article; it is far before any other preparation for this disease, or for any other disease originating from impure blood. See Pamphlet.

This disease is purely one of the blood; the action of this medicine, is so speedy that the Piles, whether internal or external, will be cured by its use in a few weeks.—Hundreds, perhaps we can say thousands have been perfectly cured in the use of two or three bottles of this mixture, and as this cure is produced from the action of the panacea upon the blood, it is more likely to be permanent than any cure produced from external remedies.

DEBILITY OF THE SYSTEM,

weak back, weakness of the Kidneys, &c., or inflammation of same, is immediately relieved by a few days use of this medicine, and a cure is always a result of its use. It stands as for such complaints, and also for derangements of the female frame,

A CERTAIN REMEDY

IRREGULARITIES, SUPPRESSIONS,

painful menstruations. No article has ever been offered except this which would touch this kind of derangements. It may be relied upon as a sure and effective remedy, and did we feel permitted to do so could give as proof of cures in this distressing class of complaints. See pamphlet. All broken down, debilitated constitutions from the effect of mercury, will find the bracing power of this article to act immediately, and the poisonous mineral eradicated from the system.

The 22 distinct properties which compose this article, manifest themselves particularly in the application of the compound, for the distressing class of complaints which head this paragraph. For centuries there has been used in the north of Europe, a

which in all diseases or derangements of the female frame, obstructions, difficulties, painful menstruations, &c., has effected a cure. This root is indigenous to our soil, and found in large quantities, and as a medicinal property stands without an equal; it forms one of the compounds in the preparation, which as a whole is the best remedy ever given to a debilitated female; it is sure, and the system will be restored to health by its use.

ERUPTIVE DISEASES

will find the alterative properties of this article

PURIFY THE BLOOD,

and drive such diseases from the system. See pamphlet for testimony of cures in all diseases, which the author as an advertisement will not permit to be named here.—Agents give them away; they contain 36 pages, and certificates of high character, and a stronger

ARRAY OF PROOF

of the virtues of a medicine, never appeared. It is one of the peculiar features of this article that it never fails to benefit in any case, and if bone and muscle are left to build upon, let the emaciated and lingering invalid
