THE DEMOCRAT.

O. C. HEMPSTEAD, Editor.

For President, GEN. LEWIS CASS. For Vice President GEN. WM. O. BUTLER, OF KENTUCKY. FOR GOVERNOR. MORRIS LONGSTRETH. OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY. YOR CANAL COMMISSIONES, ISRAEL PAINTER,

OF WESTHORKLAND COURTS. County Neminations. FOR REPRESENTATIVES, SAMUEL TAGGART, of Middletown, "Wyoming. POR SHERIFF.

C. M. GERE, of Brooklyn.

F. M. WILLIAMS, of Springville. FOR REGISTER AND RECORDER, C. L. BROWN, of Friendsville. FOR COMMISSIONER, DAVID O. TURRELL of Liberty. JOHN HAKER, of Clifford.

GEO. BALDWIN, of Great Bend.

The Next Governor.

We have at length the pleasure of announce ing to our readers the name of the next Governor of Pennsylvania. Hon. Morris Long-STRETH, the Montgomery county Farmer, pure patriot, and Democrat in whom is no guile, was nominated by the proper council of the party, at Harrisburg, on Thursday last, which nomination under the circumstances and with the ununimity in which it was made, is everywhere regarded as tantamount to his election Entertaining, therefore, not the slightest doubt that it will be verified, we make the prediction that so sure as the day arrives, the third Tuesday of January next will witness the inauguraday of January next will witness the inauguration of Morris Longstreth as Governor of cast for anybody but Cass will be equivalent to William F. Johnston, as the Federal candidate on that subject. The original of the decree Adamses. The measures of those statesmen guage. this Commonwealth.

It is needless to say here that this nomina- How It Works! The recent letters from Gen. tion perfectly accords with our own choice, and Taylor have kicked up a terrible bobbery in the ber, worthy of the cause of the country and meets a hearty response from the entire mass already distracted "Availability" party. Some the Domocratic party. Mr. Johnston is the of the Democracy of Susquehanna county. No of them denounce them as 'forgeries,' locofoco very embodiment of conservative Federalism. selection could have been better, or more en- devices,' and so on, while others acknowledge He was the author of the Relief law, and there thusiastically received. Everywhere among their genuineness, but rave and curse their imthat was a measure, equally corrupt in itself our people the name of Longstreth is identi- becile author. One paper in New York, ppon as it is notorious it has been corrupting in its fied with the name and policy of our late be- the reception of the letter to the Democrats of influences. Few politicians have been more loved executive, the sterling patriot, eminent Charleston deliberately hauled down the Tag- inconsistent, and none more unscrupulous. He republican and model Governor, Shunk. That lor, and run up the Van Buren, flag. In Alba-pendent Treasury" while in the Legislature, be is of the same political school, plain, practiny, after pouting and cursing for a few days the against that glorious institution, with the alprogressive and radical—the inveterate Taylorites had another meeting and resolved to most avowed intention of putting the Democrat-further insure the public tranquility; which is no debt, no taxes, no burdens of government, hater of all monopolies, special privileges and support Taylor let him say or do what he would. ic Senators out of Congress, that he might get may tend to the aggrandizement of the Repubmonied aristocracies, pledged by his whole life Rather ironical, we should think. In N. York, in. He has lately proved his hostility to Labor lie, and may reinstate an unfortunate portion over the people. Now where is the use of the and character to carry out the entire series of it is stated that the Taylor men appointed a State Senate to that measure of justice to the reforms commenced by that great and good committee to address him forthaid and so the state of the rest of American sympathisers. reforms commenced by that great and good committee to address him forthwith, and apoperatives in our factories, which fixed their protect by wise and just large comfortable the whole pack to produce one. We cannot man admits of no doubt, but is a subject of prise him that if he does not stop writing his term of daily toil at ten hours. He shows his with the dispersions of the 20th article of the produce one. We cannot be shown his with the dispersions of the 20th article of t profound felicitation by his hosts of friends and foolish letters they shall look out for another proscriptive feelings by turning Democrats out admirers. With this recommend alone, had he candidate. So they go. none others, he would inevitably succeed. But it is not all, as we shall take the opportunity to show bereafter. monwealth.

men or set of men, and bound only by the pure of these United States? principles of real Democracy, se inculated and procedented. Mark it!

The Whig Convention. The Whig State Convention met at the faced game of this Federal paragon? Capitol on Thursday last, and went through the persuasy of numinating a candidate to run Longstreth. Wm. F. Johnston, their necessit accidental Governor, was unanistructing in the highly necessary and bes mously chosen. We learn from the Harrisburn Union that the Convention was not half well recommended, both by the gress and litmade up and that their chances of success were by them regarded so hopeless that there was no contest whatever for the nomination Hon. James Cooper, who was by many coosid- Give him a call. ared a leading candidate, as he is indeed a seidered a candidate before the Convention. Poer "down-bearled" Whiggies!

The New Your Gas Lyon Manuracro. Chas McVeon, Esq., Hunker, in his stead, of that city to receive the notes of the Sandusky forth. The origin of the disease is generally ams.

Novernor Johnston on the Stump. phia on Saturday evening last a drowsy, im the Free Soil question. He says: upon the great questions of the day.

One year ago these same whigs went into hysterics, almost, because Gov. Shunk addressed a meeting in Reading and another in Philadelphia. Marvellous consistency: but let Johnston run. He will be overtaken and throttled. If he comes up here we will guarantee to GROW his tracks for him, in a manner that will send him back with a flea, somewhere, to throw their votes away, that thereby they 0! consistency! thou art indeed a jewel. may be enabled to "defeat Cass" and the Democratic party, and give the State to Taylor, whom they profess great aversion for, but are really striving to elect by seducing your votes. Will you be duped into such a plot as this?for this is really and truly the game. Where not infinitely prefer him to Taylor? We can not believe there is such a man. No Democrat, we are sure, will thus jeopard all the great meathe prospect of Taylor's election in view. Regent obslaught upon his antagonist : member the motive of these men-that they But if there could have been any doubt at State, and that therefore every Democratic vote a vote given to Taylor. Beware!

Where may he be Found?

intent on the part of Gen. Taylor or his friends. This is the candidate of the Federal party.-Of his person and history we will only to cheat somebody, and some section of the Against him, our divisions are blown to the speak in the language of the address of the ConUnion most egregiously. On the slavery quesin solid array. To oppose him, we forget all vention that nominated him; "Morris Love- tion he has as many faces and opinions, almost, fends real or imaginary. To oppose him, we STRETH is a genuine representative of the ear- if we can place the least credence in the giv- will work with renewed enthusiasm for our ly settlers of Pennsylvania. Simple in his hat-ings-out of the Whig press in the aggregate, as principles, which he has trampled under foot. its, strictly republican in all his feelings and there are degrees of latitude from the Aristock To oppose him, we will toil to add new thouprinciples, firm but mild, he possesses in an em- to Texas. We have already given the extreme And even if our candidate were not, as he is, inent degree those sterling qualities which are Southern version of his opinions in relation to an able, pure, and fearless Democratic statesso neculiarly required at the present crisis - slavery restriction from southern whig Journals, man, our political opponents have in the field From choice devoting himself for several years That he is opposed to it, and will veto it, if an antagonist candidate, whom the people of to the cultivation of the soil in the fertile coun- made President, it is regarded preposterous in Pennsylvania never will put into a position to the present law, or by the decree of September tv of Montgomery, he has improved an excel- the highest degree to doubt. But is well undestroy their oest inte lent intellect by careful study, and by an ex- derstood that these opinions are illy adapted to tensive intercourse with his fellow-citizens, has the free States. Accordingly a Janus-face is made himself familiar not only with their char- put upon him, and counter-pledges to the North Patrol -Extra of Saturday, we learn that the pointed by the Commissary General, or the per- Southport, in Chemung county, on the 26th The Capital was quiet; Congress was debating acter and their wants, but also with the re- are promulged. Now public attention is just Convention which met that day made choice son performing his duties, and another by the ult: sources and capabilities of our glorious Com- being startled with the announcement that his of the following ticket: friends, Gov. Baldwin, and Senator Truman As an Associate Judge of his own county, Smith of Connecticut, are in possession of lethe displayed a sound and correct judgment, ters in which the General positively assets he and his short career as a Canal Commissioner, would not veto the Proviso if elected President. to which post he was elected by an unpreceden- And in another place to-day we record his dected majority, have afforded ample proof of his laration, made to a Southern Whig, that he is peculiar atness to discharge the duties of Ex- in favor of the "Missouri Compromise" line as the best method of settling this vexed question He belongs to no clique, is surrounded by no of slavery-extension. Now which shall we befaction, and he will, if elected, go into office, lieve? Which is the position of Gen. Taylor? entirely untrammelled or uncommitted to any Will any one be so kind as to inform to people

Alas! for the people that politicians are not practised by the great fathers of the Democratic honest. Why does not Gen, Taylor come out party. And that he will be elected, we again re- candidly and plumply, as Gen. Cass has done, peat, no mortal man can doubt. For this result, and tell the people where he stands upon that we give his political autagonists fair warning, question? Why does he skulk in conceament Old Democratic Susquehanna will do her daty or suffer himself to be masked in this way? and roll up a Democratic majority wholly une Is it not clean as the sun at noon-day that > accomplishment of Penmanship. He comes pany you, boys. Let us and our readers hear erary gentlemen, and we have no doubt his school here will be eminently successful. His for Slander, came on for strial on Wednesday school will open to morrow (Friday) afternoon, and continued till Saturday, when the jury were meminent leader of the party, declined being F. Butler, one of the leading Van Baren Barn. Jury discharged and Court adjourned, burners of New York, from the important office of U. S. District Attorney, and appointed Cincipunti sunounce the refusal of the Banks ures to prevent its spreading are being put and resolved to support Van Buren and Ad- and White, (the only candidate presented by the rennsylvanian says it is given out that the absorbing question in the present canvass and engross all other questions. He said that he considered the "Missouri compromise" a fair mends that he be followed by some of our best and liberal line for settling the slave question. stumpers in those counties, not, as Gen. Tay- and he was willing to see it adopted. He did lor said in his blood-hound letter, "to wprry" not hesitate to pronounce slavery an evil and thought it would extend to other slave States. He spoke at some length on this point, and drew many of his illustrations from ancient his-question. Hear it, ye "Free Soil Taylor some of the counties of this State. The elec- how does it comport with the feigned excuse erated. Whigs!" The "Missouri Compromise" is tion will take place in January next. Gen. Taylor's method of disposing of that The County Conventions of Luzerne and question. Do you understand? Slavery is Columbia, we preceive, have passed resolutions The Motive.—Said a Whig Barnburner to us "an evil, blighting in its effects upon agriculand instructed their members of the Legislature further! Gen. Cass "a high-minded, honorthe other day, "We [that is Whig Barabur- tural and commercial prospects," and yet Gen. in favor of Hon. Geo. W. Woodward. He is a able, independent man," and yet who can count ners] admit there is no prospect of doing any Taylor is in favor of extending it over one half, good man, whom our member from this county the slanders his culogist is now piling upon sembly, nothing having been suppressed. The thing for Van Buren in Pennsylvania, but we (and all the best portion) of our recently ac- once supported, and whom we have no doubt resorting to to keep him out of the Presiden- will cause great excitement, but General Cay. mean to defeat Cass. Democrats! do you hear quired territory! He is willing, nay anxious, our people would be much pleased to see elect-tial chair! that! Here is the motive of these men-their to blight "the agricultural prospects" of up- ed. It will be remembered that he was the real object is not to help Van Buren, but to cor- wards of 200,000 squre miles of territory now regular caucus nominee of the Democratic runt and be-devil Democrats, and cause them free, for a passport to the Presidential chair! members of the Legislature at that time, and

Gen. Taylor & Free Soil. The last Baltimore Clipper, Taylor paper, P. Hale has written a letter to an Abolition

WHY Nor .-- The Taylor organ of this county last week was as silent as the grove about the late letters of the old Scribbler, neither publishing nor in any way alluding to them What's in the wind? Does our neighbor doubt is the Democrat, who, though upon one point on-

The Whig Candidate.

The Pennsylvanian closes an able article upon the brilliant prospects of the Democratic sures for which Democrats contend with only candidate for Governor with the following punadmit there is no chance for Van Buren in this any time that such a result would follow the decision of the Democratic Convention in favor of any man, the choice of the Federal party of for Governor, places the whole matter beyond the possibility of doubt, and clearly points to a victory that will brighten our banners in Octo-

of office, owing to the temporary power which facilities which have been conceded to me, I exchange a certainty for an uncertainty—solid in which six Prussians were killed, no further an inscrutable dispensation placed in his hands, Where may he be Found? after his party had been repudiated by a ma-There is beyond all doubt a most diabelical jority of more than eighteen thousand votes.

Congress-Hendrick B. Wright, Assembly-Robert R. Little. Sheriff-John Jackson Prothonotary-Wm. H. Barns. Register & Recorder-Franklin C. Ross. Treasurer-Miles Felton. Commissioner-Stephen Capwell. Auditor-John G. Spalding. The Patrol says: "The above weket is

ound to shine."

following ticket: . Assembly-Nathaniel Elliot. Prothonotary-Jno. F. Donaldson. Register & Recorder-Henry Sherwood. Commissioner-David Ellis.

Robert G. White received the nomination for Congress, we understand on the 19th ballot.

WESTWARD Ho !- Five of our young men,

COUET PROCEEDINGS .- Brundage vs. Wells sent out. Came in Sunday morning with a REMOVAL. The President has removed B, verdict for Plaintiff of $25, damages and costs. have already occurred, of waich near a fourth manager a fourth manager and costs.

from you.

Governor, has malved to "stump it" for him ism, contains a long letter from a correspond- name as the candidate of that party for the September 7, 1848. self during the approaching campaign. His ent who had just held an interview with Gen. Presidency and recommends most sincerely, and Earth's proudest Potentate. And whether we first vote begging effort was made in Philadel. Taylor, and heard him define his position on cheerfully, a hearty and energetic, and unanimous support of Martin Van Buren and Charles ever prompting its subject to speak forth the "Speaking of the "free soil" movement in F. Adams, as the most consistent course for language of candor and sincerity, and "deal Decide eners it is represented to have been too.

The Pennsylvanian says it is given out that the opinion and is the more on the fine opinion and is the more of the college of the colleg

JOHN P. HALE WITHDRAWN.-Hon. John

Holden's Dollar Magazine, for September contains many excellent things, and is really a 10th, 1842, in which the editor (the same persuperb number. How so excellent and attraction who now edits it) speculates upon "Presiblighting in its effects upon the agricultural and tive a magazine as that can be published for the find out where he may be found commercial prosperity of the South To this choice reading, too, than any other monthly ex- chance with the other party."

U. S. SENATOR .- We preceive that the sub-So Gen. Taylor is at last "out," and thor- ject of a United States Senator to succeed Si- by that same press and its co-laborers in the oughly committed to the south on the slavery mon Cameron, is beginning to be broached in cause of Taylor? Is this consistency? Or > was only cheated out of his election by the among them cannot tell us what sort of a change tice should now be done him?

Mexican Decrees Concerning Slavery. The Washington Union publishes the fol-Department:

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, Washington, August 12, 1848. General de la Nacion Mexicana."

Yours respectfully, JAMES BUCHANAN. Messrs. Ritchie & Heiss.

ABOLITION OF SLAVERY.

nalize the anniversary of independence, in the been at work, filling the high destiny of our ey on their persons. year 1829, by an act of national justice and country—checks and balances have been put beneficence, which may redound to the advan- upon the aristocracy. We killed their monster denying that he has made any stipulations with tage of the inestimable a good, which was produced to the advantage of the inestimable a good, which was the basic and ba with the dispositions of the 30th article of the see the necessity or even the least shadow of a ken place, but with the exception of a skirmish constituent act, employing the extraordinary necessity for any change at all. Who would with the Prussian outposts near Haberseleben, have resolved to decree-

the republic

2. In consequence, those who have hitherto been regarded as slaves are free. shall permit, the owners of the slaves shall be wishes to live to see such a state of things .-

law may dispose. A. D. Jose Maria de Bocanegra. Mexico, September 15, 1829.

Law for the Abolition of Slavery.

exception throughout the whole, republic. 2. The owners of the slaves manumitted by destroy their best interests, and to outrage their 15, 1829, shall be indemnified for their interests therein, to be estimated according to the proofs which may be presented of their personal qual-WYOMING COUNTY .- From the Wyoming ities; to which effect, one appraiser shall be ap-in Convention on Friday week, nominated the accursed institution of Slavery. Aye! In this collightened age of the world, when the whole $50 is offered for his apprehension. continent of Europe is being uphove and uptorn by the masses of our fellow men in their efforts to throw off the shackles of tyranny by above name, to be located at Bethany, Wayne was to take summary justice on the culprits. which they have heretofore been bound downwhen thrones are crumbling, and crowns and State at its last session. It is to be under and the Sheriff and his possed were finally in sceptres becoming toys in the hands of emancipated millions—and while the glad shouts of tice the names of Wm Jessup, Urbane Burdraw his name as a candidate for the President somebody, or some section of the Union is to viz. O. B. Tyler, John C. Truesdell, Frederick freemen are borne to our ears from across the rows, and Rev. E. O. Ward from Susquellanna be outrageously chested by this inceg, Janus-Bolls, Wm. C. McIntosh, and C. N. Stoddard, great waters, causing the heart of every patriot county. Hon. N. B. Eldred is also one of the National Reformers, and a portion of the Abotook their departure from this village on Mon- to "leap for joy" our own glorious Union is Trustees. to least that Mr. Sacret, of Uses, N. V., is of them contemplating locating permanently Republic. Is menaced with total annihilation, in Whig states that the Patterson and Ramapo about to open a school in this village for in-there, and others underided. Good luck, with consequence of an effort of the human and wise Rail Road is completed and will be open in a structing in the highly necessary and beautiful representations. This opens a school in this village for in-there, and others underided. Good luck, with consequence of an effort of the human and wise Rail Road is completed and will be open in a structing in the highly necessary and beautiful representations. This opens a school in this village for in-there, and others underided. Good luck, with consequence of an effort of the human bondage of the Abolitionist, while the same of home-sickness accomdicted it! Shame! Where is thy blush!

New York papers we learn that this frightful malady has recently broken out in Staten Isla and, near that city. More than fifty cases - The Lansing Free Press, published at the VID WILMOT was nominated for Congress for have proved fatal. The New York folks are of the day the Buffalo nominations reached unanimously instructed for Wilmot. The con-Base Troubles .- Telegraphic reports from evidently somewhat alarmed by it, and meas- there, and formally abandoned "Old Zach" forces from this county, as between Wilmot my, sorner of Coules and Henter streets, was A. Gree Tirror Cureass.—A elicken and Morwalk Benks, of Ohio. There is probe- attributed to vessels from New Orleans having Daniel Webster has at length taken the orwise than support the former. Proceedings attributed to vessels from New Orleans having Daniel Webster has at length taken the orwise than support the former. Proceedings had cases of the fever on board.

For the "Democrat."

Consistency" has well been defined Accident Gov Johnston, Whig candidate for devoted to the principles of slavery propagand-meeting in Boston in which he withdraws his jewel." It is indeed a jewel of intrinsic worth, jewels that ever glistened in the diadem of

I was led to these reflections a few days since, upon reviewing an article in the "Susbearing date November

"The fact is, he (Gen. Cass) is too highminded honorable and independent a man, and he attributed the decay of Virginia, and he prehend. It certainly contains more reading, too unobjectionable to the Whigs, to stand any

What! Gen. Cass a high minded, honorable and independent man. Surprising! Wherefore, then, these numerous assaults upon him for swallowing the Philadelphia slaughter-house offal, viz: for the purpose of defeating Cass. What a "bull" --- or rather what shameless inconsistency! Can human gullibility presume him, or fathom the surreptitions means he is debate on it will commence on Monday, at CONSISTENCY.

"We Want a Change."

Yes, we want a change, say the whigs and to save themselves from perdition, the cunningest hoped that good sense will triumph. most bald-faced, outrageous trickery of Simon they would accomplish. The wheels of govern-Cameron, who bought the Whigs and a few ment run along smoothly -plenty of work and made. treacherous Democrats into his support. Jus- plenty of money, sufficient to satisfy twenty millions of people. Our fields, prairies and rolling hills are loaded with the productions of the agriculturalist. The hum of millions of spindles, and the puff of countless steam pipes is heard in every hole, corner and summit of the land, ed. Is the Democrat, who, though upon one point onin every hole, corner and summit of the land, ly, Gen. Cass may not be of his mind, would readers should be kept in the dark? Which? lowing information, furnished it by the State set these, silly whighings are bawling for a change!

to the people to effect it, they look upon a GENTLEMEN: -In answer to numerous in rock, as unchangeable and true as the course quiries made at the Department by Members of the sun. They might as well attempt to of Congress, and others, in relation to the laws change the tides, reverse the seasons and harof Mexico concerning slavery, I herewith com iness the clouds as to effect a change in the admunicate to you, for publication, correct trans- ministration of our-country. It is impossible lations of the decree of President Guerrero of for whiggery to get beyond the limits to which ties. the 15th September, 1829, and of the act of it was consigned by the triumph of Jefferson the Mexican Congress of the 5th April, 1837, over the conservatism of the Hamiltons and may be found in volume 8, page 201, of the who doubted the ability of the reople to govern "Coleccion de Leyes y Decretos del Congreso themselves, have exploded, and blown their advocates into factions and fragments, from which, they can never recover. A splendid government rich sinecures for the selected few, extravagant expenditures, high tariffs, standing threatened potato rot. armies, rag money by the billion, high taxes, national debts, to grind the face of the poor, Be it known—That, being desirous to sig- In the mean time Democratic principles have rested as sympathisers, with large tums of monprosperity for whig expansions and contrac- hostilities have taken place. 1. Slavery is and shall remain abolished in tions? And besides who would entrust the reins of government to a giddy set of incapables, men of no experience and nearly all pock- anxiety. et abstractionists, who love to grow fat on the 3. Whensoever the condition of the treasury labour of others? There is no Democrat who indemnified according to the terms which the Let us then keep up the old Jeffersonian flag of Equal Rights and put our shoulders to the Progressive Democracy. There can be no retrogade movement in a such a cause, because destiny has fixed its course and the people ART. 1. Slavery is abolished without any have neither the time or the indination to stop their machinery to make changes for the mere Murder in Chemung Co. N. Y .- The El mira N. Y, Democratigives the following particulars of a horrid murder perpetrated at from the City of Mexico to the 13th ultimo.-

owner; and, in case of disagreement, a third "Two men named Benjamin Conkling and tered by Herrera, who was becoming popular who shall be appointed by the respective con- Abner Shears, were returning home in a wag- Exertions are making to receive the commence stitutional alcade; and from the decision thus on, from this village, where they had been to of Mexico, which has been entirely prostrated witness the balloon ascension, when a quarrel by the war. And yet-"tell it not in Gath!"-in this arose-the particulars of which we have been nineteenth century of Progress of Reform, of unable to learn. Shears arose, siezed a whip known, but it is supposed that he is concealed from the driver and struck Conkling over the somewhere in the Capital. The revolution is Moral and Christian Light and Freedom, the bead several times, fracturing his skull just entirely suppressed, and cannot for the present Slave power of the South and their dough-fa- behind the ear, which caused his death. He make headway again. ced allies of the North, are exerting every nerve survived the injury two days. What gives the and moving Heaven and Earth in their endeav- transaction additional horror, is that both men ors to nullify this humane and righteons decree, are married, and their wives were accompany-TIOUR COUNTY. The Democrats of Tioga, and supplant Freedom on Freedom's soil by the University of Northern Pennsylvania. county, was passed by the Legislature of this Three of them were shot down by the officers, the supervision of twenty-eight trustees, who strumental in dispersing them have already been chosen, among whom we nover territory in which Mexican laws have inter- between the Eric Rail Road and Jersey City, and it said will lessen the time of passage from Ramapo to New York one hour, besides obvi-Yellow Fever in Staten Island .- From the ate the necessity of river travel which in the winter will be very desirable.

Taylor Club of that place met on the evening this District. The Bradford Conferees were

Arrival of the Niagara

" . News from Ireland Arrest of Meagher, O. Donoghue and Leyne-Affairs in France -Advance in Flour and Grain.

The steamship Niagara, from Liverpool on the 19th ult, arrived at New York on Thurs. day evening last, with seven days later news The cotton market is unchanged since the demand is heavy, large quantities being in the Flour has improved—having advanced from

1 shilling to 18d, selling at 80s to 82s 6d. The news in regard to all sorts of America produce is highly favorable. Wheat has advanced in consequence of the unpropitious harvests and the potato rot. The Chartists are again making demonstra tions in various parts of Great Britain, and there is strong indications that their principles are gaining ground throughout the country. Paris still continues in a state of siege. Seventeen hundred more of the prisoners arrested have been found guilty of participating in the insurrection of June, and two thousand lib

Lamartine has intimated to the electors of Macon a desire for retirement from the Nation. al Assembly.

Great anxiety prevails concerning the disclosures of printed evidence of insurrection which will be soon printed for the National Asaignac's arrangements will prevent any acts of violence. The non-intervention policy creates a number of enemies to the government, but it is A serious riot has taken place at Lyons, but not a political one. Several arrests have been

Charles Albert has evacuated Lombardy. Gen. Welden, at the head of the Austrian army, has entered the Papal dominions. The Pope s greatly incensed on account of the invasion A battle ensued, and the Austrians were worst-

IRELAND .- Messrs. Meagher, O'Donoghue and Leyne have been arrested, and the police What change do they desire? If they look and soldiers are in hot pursuit after O Gor-

The arrest of the Confederates continue in every part of the country.

The trial of O'Brein will soon commence. Tranquility prevails, but the people are far from being well disposed towards the authori-

Several Irishmen and Chartists have been arrested in Liverpool for using seditions lan-A letter was found on Smith O'Brein from Duffy, of a highly treasonable character, and written after the open rebellion of O'Brein. The continuation of the wet and cold weather causes an alarm throughout the Kingdom of the bottom of the sea like the hosts of Pharaoh.

The Irish clergy are doing all in their power to preserve the peace of the country.

Two Americans and one Frenchman, cross-President of the Mexican United States and mammoth banks, have all sunk into the to the inhabitants of the Republic.

tage of the inestimable a good; which may bank and buried him, we trust forever. There government to save his life. He says that no offer would be accepted, but liberty for leave the country.

The Liverpool papers are filled with accounts GERMANY. - All the preliminaries for an active renewal of the war in the Duchies have ta-The blockade would recomme and we await the next accounts with great The combined troops on the frontier amount to 12,000 men, and these would speedily be reinforced by 10,000 more in reserve. . The combined forces of France, England and Russia, with the secret support of Prussia, will wheel in pushing forward the noble spirit of undoubtedly be employed in putting an end to this unprovoked war. Some trifling disturbances have taken place at Hamburg. No fresh outbreaks have occurred at Berlin The chartists are again assuming a hostile gratification of the whig party. Read. Press. attitude, and various demonstrations have been made in various parts of the kingdom.

From Mexico.

By an arrival from Vera Cruz we have dates the reduction of the Tariff.

The actual whereabouts of Paredes is not The Indian depredations, by the Camanches still continue. Vera Cruz at last dates was very quiet.

A Mon. Cincinnati city was on Wednes-Shears effected his escape, and a reward of day thrown into intense excitement in consequence of the assembling of a mob around the jail wherein was confined two Germans who had been committed for brutally ravishing An act incorporating an institution under the girl 12 years of age. The object of the mob cy. He has received the nomination of the lition party, and will not yield to Mr. Van Bu-

POSTSCRIPT!

THURSDAY morning, 8 o'clock We have just been informed by one of the Conferees from this county, that at the Con-A TAYLOR CLUB GOING FOR VAN BUREN. ference held yesterday in Towards, Hon. Dathe Tiggs conferees) of course could not do othof the Conference maxt week.