A more remarkable health restoring medicine, was never before discovered. This great compound is the expetite of seven years unremiting labor, research, and experiment, of that profound and scientific medical schollar, De James Bosworth, M. D., professor in the Edinburg Medical Institute. It has become the Highlander's universal panances; he kedps it always in hub house, as a preventative or as a physician when disease, in any of the above forms has made an attack. It soon became known and exceedingly popular, after its introduction, for from an account of it, published in Chamber's Edinburg Journal, it reached the unprecedented sale of 351, Julian Phemont, of Halifax, who had travelled in Europe on a professional tour, and became acquainted with its of the Halifax, who had travelled in Europe on a professional tour, and became acquainted with its in in the became acquainted with its in highly recommended by physicians and gentlemen of the lightest standing in this country, who have used it and prisess a full knowledge of its operatiod. Silence that Dreadful Cough! The Lungs are in danger, the work of the destroyer has been begun, the cough of consumption hath. In it the sound of death. Are you a mother? Your darling child your idol and earthly joy, is now perhaps confind to her chamber by a dangerous cold—herpale cheeks, her thin shrunked fingers, tell the hold disease has already gained upon her—the sound of her sepulcharal cough pierces your soul.

Young man, when just about to enter life, disease sheds a heart chilling blight over the fair prospects of the future—your heetic cough and feeble limbs tellof your loss of hope, but you need not despair. There is a balm which will heal the wounded lungs. It is,

Sherman's All-Irealing Balsam.

Mrs. Attree, the wife of Wm. H. Attree Esq., was given up by Dr. Sewall of Washington, Drs. Bool and McCleiland of Philadelphia, Drs. Roc and Mott of New York. Her friends all thought she must die. She had every appearance of being in consumption, and was so pronounced by her physicians—sherman's Balsam was given and it cured her.

Mrs. Garnstrantz, of Bull's Ferry, was also cured of consumption by this Balsam when allother remedicafalled to give relief the she was reduced to a skeleton. Dr. IA. C. Castle, Deniist, 251 Broadway, has witnessed its effects in curing Asthma, which it effectually cured by this Balsam. It heats the ruptured or wounded blood vessels, and makes the lungs sound again.

Rev. Henry Jones, 108 Eighth avenue, was cured of cough and catarnhal affection of 50 years standing. The first dose gave him more relief than all the other medicine he had ever taken. Dr. L.J Beels, 19 Helancy steet, pave it to a sister in law who was laboring under consumption, and to another sorely affected with the Asthma. In both cases, its effects immediate were soon restoring them to comfortable helath.

Mrs. Lucretis Wells, 35 bristle at sufferred from Asthma 42 years. Sherman's Balsam relieved her at once, and she is comparatively well, being enabled to subding every attack by a timely use of this medicine. This indeed is the great remedy for Coughs, Colds. Spitting blood, Liver Complaints, and all the affections of the throat, and even bathma and consumption.
