Terry, of Heart Lake, called Tuesday to see new for his Democrat and World. Supervisor Geo. W. Bayless, of Heart Lake, was among our callers Tuesday. W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. C. F. Watrous at 7:30 Wednesday evening, Feb. 24th. L. B. Frink was up from Scranton over Sunday to see his brother, Dr. Frink, who is recovering from a serious illness. W. H. Miller advertises a sale of household goods at the Haire Hotel in Lawton, on Thursday, Feb. 25th. Also horses and cows. Papers received from Montgomery, Alabama, indicate that there is great interest in Dr. Torrey's meetings, there, and the usual success is attending them. On Monday S. A. Pettis celebrated his 58th birthday, had calls from grand children and great grand children, received many cards and letters from friends. D. W. Terry and L. B. Avis, have purchased the general merchandise store of J. L. Shantz, Co., at Lawton. Terry's firm name will be D. W. Terry & Co. Leslie Clark, an employe at Borden's, got a fall Thursday, which resulted unfortunately in a compound fracture of the leg. He was walking on a plank which broke beneath him, and let him fall. Prof. S. S. Thomas, of Springville, always an interesting writer, sends us for the special edition, an article of very unusual interest in an historical way, giving indication of no race suicide in Springville. Thanks. Owing to the large amount of special matter in this week's Democrat, some of the regular departments are not as full as usual, and some are omitted altogether, also some correspondence is omitted from various towns. Miss Fannie Read said good bye to her many Montrose friends last Monday and will not be in Montrose again for several months, as she intends to take a course in the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago. Dean Rogers, who recently purchased the L. W. Moody store at South Montrose, has a new ad today. He intends to let the people know hereafter what is going on at that popular South Montrose store. The Republican says the Farmers Bank advertisement is unique. Whatever that may be it seems to rhyme with Mozambique, Martingale, Chesapeake, Pike's Peak, and anything in your bank. People with this title seldom realize that it rhymes with anything, unless perhaps it's a gasoline motor, stuck in the mud. But complaint, or the reverse, the Farmer's National is all plumb, from the type-writer down to the whole gamut, fixtures and employes.

M. S. Dessauer has a new adv. today, carpets etc. The Library will be closed Washington's birthday. Giles Carpenter, of Hallstead, was here the other day. Mrs. Wm. Beck entertained her lady friends recently. W. H. Austin, of Franklin, was at the county seat Saturday. With two go in it, this year ought to be a great one for base ball. Jury commissioner, J. T. Hillis of Lawton, was in town Monday. The banks will be closed Monday, Feb. 22, Washington's birthday. M. S. B. E. Bedell, of Scranton, was visiting friends here last week. Hon. and Mrs. H. L. Rose were guests at Judge Little's last week. Will Ryan has purchased a house from M. S. Allen, on Cheango street. The vote on road tax in Franklin, was decided, "No," about two to one. B. Wruble, the stock buyer, was married to a Pittston lady a few days ago. Benj. Vandervoort, of New York, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Bruce D. Titman. Mrs. W. J. Maxey, of Forest City, has been the guest of Mrs. F. L. Leonard, here. Extra copies of today's big Democrat at office 5 cts. or 10 wrapped and mailed 7 cts. Holstein Breeders Ass'n meeting next Tuesday, Feb. 23rd, at 10 o'clock; election of officers. Mrs. T. A. Roberts' friends are glad to know she is recovering from her recent serious fall. Frank Pepper, manager of the Auburn Corners creamery was doing business at the county seat Saturday. Nearly two tons of paper was required to print today's Democrat, costing one hundred dollars per ton. Our genial barber, H. L. Coburn, secured the services of Thomas Curran, a first class barber of Scranton. M. J. Lee, of Friendville, and C. S. Vail, of New Milford, attended the State school directors' convention at Gettysburg. The gentlemen's supper at the M. E. church last night, was largely attended and thoroughly enjoyed. The receipts were over $100. Mrs. Elizabeth McKeeby was stricken with paralysis, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. S. Smith, in Jessup, and is in a critical condition. Carlisle Smith's twelfth birthday was celebrated yesterday by about 40 of his little friends at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Smith. Read's reasonable prices have taken another drop. His ad. calls attention to a few items on which reductions have been made, as samples of other bargains. The marriage of Mrs. Lottie White Avery to John O. Horton, both of this place, is announced to occur at the Baptist church, Wednesday, Feb. 24, 1909, at 5 o'clock. A meeting of the Committee will be held next Monday, at Binghamton, to present the bids for the Montrose Bible Conference, Auditorium, which it is expected will be built in the spring. Maxey Jenkins will lead the young people's meetings at the Presbyterian church, Sunday evening, Feb. 21. The 18th, Pilgrim's Progress Series 11, The Story of Despond, pp. 97-141, 151-181, 409-53. It is said there has not been so much call for houses for rent in ten years of this year, while more houses have been sold the past year than in any preceding year. Montrose is all right as a place to live. Mr. L. P. Myers, of Wilkes-Barre, who has spent several weeks in Montrose, is assisting in getting out the Democrat's special edition, has made many friends here. He is a thoroughly trained newspaper man of much experience, and a pleasant and courteous gentleman to do business with. S. A. Smith, of Franklin, while in town Saturday, gave us a pleasant call and re-noved for his Democrat. Mr. Smith says with regret, is not a Democrat in politics, but he takes the Democrat for its courtesy and general news &c. and says it fills a place none of the other papers do. Our local W. C. T. U. observed tag days by presenting thirty volumes to the Free Library. These books are published by the National Temperance Society, New York City, and are interesting and instructive. The Library Association accepted the gift with many thanks. S. B. McCain, Rush's popular merchant, who has been a persistent supporter of its currency and general news &c. and says it fills a place none of the other papers do. Thank Heaven, girls! for Mr. Aliman, of Juniata county, is solely through his oratorical effort or last week the bill to increase the marriage license fee from fifty cents to two dollars was defeated. Mr. Aliman's most effective argument was that he was married once himself and that fifty cents was all the license was worth. The will of the late A. W. Kent was probated by Recorder Birchard went over from Montrose for that purpose. But no inventory has been filed as yet. The first Memorial church of Brooklyn, is left $1,000 in trust. The widow is left $15,000 in addition to $10,000 given just previous to his death and all the near relatives are liberally remembered. His two brothers, W. L. of Brooklyn, and J. L. Kent, of Boston, are residuary legatees. Boro Election The following boro officers were elected Tuesday: W. A. Tisworth, Collector—W. V. Handark, Bible Poor Director—T. A. Roberts, Auditor—N. Warner, Justices of the Peace—A. A. Davies and M. H. Van Scothen. FIRST WARD, Council—J. C. Harrington, Judge of Election—Herbert Brewster, Inspectors—O. LePrevost and J. L. Casey. SECOND WARD, Council—C. L. Van Scothen, School Directors—T. J. Davies and W. J. Baker, Judge of Election—H. L. Mack, Inspectors—E. L. Burch and M. W. Dennison. THIRD WARD, Council—S. G. Fancher and S. E. Newton, Judge of Election—H. A. Lyons, Inspectors—E. G. Foots and S. J. Northrop.

Masonic Banquet Brilliant Affair. The annual Banquet of Warren Lodge No. 240, F. & A. M. and Warren Chapter, was held at the Tarbell House, Montrose, Pa., (Byron Horton, proprietor), Friday evening, Feb. 12, 1909, and was a most brilliant and successful affair. Plates were laid for one hundred guests, eighty being guaranteed Mr. Horton, but in the afternoon it was apparent there was to be a large attendance and by the time the banquet hour had arrived one hundred and twenty guests had assembled. While the number greatly exceeded that looked for, yet Mr. Horton had enough to spare, and is to be commended on the genial yet energetic way he set about to care for his extra large company. The menu was an elaborate one and the preparation of the viands faultless. The service was graceful and gave added charm to the affair. But the best part, (it all seemed the best) was the flow of soul following, and W. A. Tisworth as host master, was a success from the start, and immediately dispelled only feeling of ennui, should any one have been conscious of such feeling—owing to the lateness of hour—and both introduced the toasts and punctuated the intervals with timely remarks and some mighty good anecdotes. The oratorical feature of the evening was by Mr. F. Little, on "Lincoln the Statesman," and the lofty and ennobling sentiments, couched in splendid diction, made an after-dinner speech worthy a Depece. Mr. Little's speech was replete with information regarding Mr. Lincoln, his achievements, his personal traits, his unselfish loyalty to principle—his stories. It was a real gem. In Masonic History, W. D. B. Ainsie spoke of the order's beneficial and helpful effect on mankind and his great assistance in working out many of the moral problems of the age. Mr. Ainsie was a great favorite with Montrose audience, and he was at his best this evening. "She would be a Mason," was a most humorous paper, faultlessly recited by Mrs. W. H. Conklin. R. A. Zimmerman, of Scranton, spoke on "Free Masonry." Rev. H. B. Benedict, always a tactful speaker with some pleasant and entertaining messages for his hearers, gave a gem of a toast, "Good Cheer," being its subject. In "Our Departed Brothers," F. I. Lott spoke feelingly of the two members whose deaths had claim during the past year, viz. Dr. Arney of New Milford and Edward Rose of Silver Lake. In addition to being the most largely attended banquet ever given by the society, it was also considered one of the most enjoyable ever held. The committee on arrangement are to be congratulated, together with Mr. Byron Horton, who evinced consummate skill in preparing and serving the banquet. Music was furnished by W. W. Oakley, H. A. Lyons, C. J. Knapp, Paul Sprout and Mrs. Van Campen. Lincoln Day The Interesting Program at the Montrose High School. The program at the Montrose High School on Lincoln Day was a most interesting and profitable one. The program was as follows: Song—"America," by the school. The address of Lincoln by Margaret O'Brien. Song—"Columbia, Mother of the Brave," by the school. The address of Lincoln by George F. Smith. Song—"The Battle Hymn of the Republic," by the school. The address of Lincoln by Ruth J. Hays. The address of Lincoln by Edna M. Hays. The address of Lincoln by Myron Grubbs. The address of Lincoln by Elmer Davies. The address of Lincoln by Leonard Smith. The address of Lincoln by Edgar Little. The address of Lincoln by School. The address of Lincoln by Lawrence Allen. The address of Lincoln by Mary Starke. The address of Lincoln by the school. The address of Lincoln by the school. The address of Lincoln by the school. Apples and Potatoes Wanted. Will pay 1.50 per 100 for apples and 1.00 per 100 for potatoes. Wm. C. D. Dayton. Thompson. Feb. 12—The pupils of the school under the leading of the teachers, gave very commendable exercises on the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln, last Friday afternoon. A number of the old soldiers were present, and the exercises were most interesting. The many relatives and acquaintances of Mrs. Estella B. Strong, were shocked last week by the sudden death of her daughter, at her home in Starucka, and they gathered from here and the surrounding country in throngs, to attend her funeral on Saturday morning. A quartet from the M. E. church choir here, rendered some choice selections. Miss Ida Witter, of New Milford, has been with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Witter, the past week. Her mother has been quite sick. There is to be a twenty-five cent chalk talk in the M. E. church, Monday evening, March 1. John Brownell, in the northern part of the township, is quite ill again, and his neighbor, Mrs. John Messenger does not improve as her friends hoped to see her. There is more Catarrh in this section of the county than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed cal remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatments, doctors have concluded it is incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by Dr. J. C. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Pills for constipation. W. B. VAN DE SAND, Oculopathic Physician, 1000 E. Fairview residence, corner Maple and Chestnut streets, Montrose, Pa.

A Natural Historian.

Men have special gifts and special inclinations: If there are "natural historians," we have at least one in Susquehanna county. Prof. W. L. T. McClure, of Harford, a man gifted as a historian, and an indefatigable worker, who takes great pleasure in searching for and recording countless items of value to the present and future generations, and whose writings are always of absorbing interest. SUFFERERS WHO SAY they have tried everything without benefit are the people we are looking for. We want them to know from glad experience that Ely's Cream Balm will conquer Cold in the Head, Hay Fever and obstinate forms of Nasal Catarrh. This remedy acts directly on the inflamed, sensitive membranes, cleansing, soothing and healing. One trial will convince you of its healing power. Price 50c. All drug stores, or mailed by Ely Bros., 50 Warren St., New York.
