The Democratic Convention of Wy oming co. held at Tunkhannock on Saturday, 4th inst., nominated Wm. M. Piatt, Esq., of Tunkhannock, for Senator, R. R. Little, Esq., of Tunkhannock, for Representative, Ashbel Lee for Commissioner, and Richard Lott for Auditor. The Patrol, on behalf of the Democracy of Wyoming, had promised that the Convention would concur in the nomination of F. B. Streeter, Esq., of this County, but it would seem, from the above nomination, that the Democrats of Wyoming county are not disposed to be bargained or pledged into any nomination before the Convention is held, or before any expression of the popular feeling has been obtained. We suppose that every voter in the district will admit that Wyoming should sometime furnish a Senator, without regard to the allotment of Representatives, which, locally considered, could not well be otherwise than one member to each county.-Between the three counties there is a fine chance for designing politicians to play a and we caution the People to look out for their preference—they are requested to furthem. Upon the magnanimity and sense of nish their award or report to the Society by justice of the People of the district the whole question of an allotment of Senator should rest, and not upon a trio of little politicians. who only care for their own elevation.

The Democrats of Wayne county in Conventión held on Monday evening 6th Bethany for Representative, Charles B. Seaman and John B. Cole for Commissioners, and G. A. Starkweather for Auditor .-They also concurred in the nomination of F. B. Streeter, of Susq'a co. for Senator.

> obtained by it, to wit: the "advancement of Agriculture, the Mechanic Arts, Horticulture, and Domestic or Rural Economy in Susquehanna county," and to solicit their aid and influence in promoting them. It is not supposed that argument is necessary to this purpose, for none who will give their attention to the subject can fail to comprehend at a glance, the great benefits which may be secured to the general pecuniary and social interests of the people of the county through the aid and influence of this Society, if it be properly sustained by them. It is not an organization designed for the exclusive personal benefit of those originaly associated in it—the object is far beyond it is not presumed that any individual who has, or who may, become a member, is prompted in so doing by a desire only to make private gain out of it farther than a realization of a proportion of the benefits accruing to the community of which he is a member. From the apparent backwardness of the great mass of our citizens, it is feared mistaken views are entertained in reference to this Society. Immediate or exclusive personal interest, or dollar and cent considerations, are not in accordance with the spirit and object of the Society. Yet it is hoped there will be a general and zealous competition for every class of premiums at the approaching Fair. It is earnestly desired also, that all classes of our citizens will become interested, and contribute as circumstances may permit to the general stock of materials for exhibition.
