JAYNE'S FAMILY MEDICNES.

Dr. J. N. Smith, Winsboro', N. C., says—Some of in England there are imore such works, let's have your family Medicines have reached this part of the country. They seem to do much good, and are early sought after by all who are acquainted with medicinal virtues. I should be glad to have an agency for the sale of them, as I flatter myself, that we represent the every lover of refined and solid Literature.

NEW WORK.

OF USEFUL & ENTERTAINING KNOWLEDGE. liberal terms. Edited by BOBERT CHAMBERS. Author of " Cyclopedie of English Literature. With Elegant Illustrative Engravings. Price 25 Cents per No

OULD, KENDALL & LINCOLN are happy to announce that they have completed arrangements with Mesers. Clambers, of Edinburgh, for the republication, in semi-monthly numbers, of CHAM-SERT'S MISCELLANT.

The design of the Misecreasy is to supply the in-ceasing demand for useful, instructive, and enter-uning reading, and to bring all the aids of literature to bear on cultivation of the feelings and underriondings of the people—to impress correct views on important moral and social questions—suppress everywhere of strife and savagery—theer the larging and desponding, by the relation of tales drawn from the imaginations of popular writers—rouse the fancy, by descriptions of interesting foreign, scenes.

cy, by descriptions of interesting foreign scenesgre a zera to every day occupations, by ballad and lyrical goodry-in short, to furnish an ambitronive read, and guide, a lively freeded companion, as for that abject can be obtained through the instrumentality of brooks.

The universally acknowledged merits of the Cyconedia of English Literature, by the same author, connected with its rapid ale, and the subconded commendation bestowed by the press, gives the publishers full confidence in the real value and entire scenes of the present work.

The publication has already commenced, and will be outlined semi-monthly. Each number will form accomplete work, and every third number will be

From the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

We are glad to see an language issue of this publication, and especially in so convenient a form. It is an admirable compilation, distinguished by the good tasts which has been shown in all the publications of the Merce Chamber of the Merce Ch tions of the Messrs. Chambers. It unites the useful and entertaining. We hope its circulation here will be large enough to supplient, to a good extent, the namby-pamby and immoral works which have so long been too widely circulated.

From the Excelsion, Boston, Truly useful and entertaining work. No men are better known than Messrs. Chambers, of Edinburgh, for their happy fact of spreading knowledge before the public—and this is done too, in so cheap a manner that the blessing becomes at once wide-spre voor Worm Medicine, which was soon disposed of.

It is but a short time since the Expectorant was much called for. I had used one bottle in my family, and found it an excellent medicine for colds.

The Boston publishers deserve the thanks of all friends of general education for the interest they have taken in circlating this work on this side of the Atlantic. We trust they may be amply rewarded by the favor of the community

From the Literary World, New York.

The deserved success of Chambers's Cyclopedia The deserved success of Chamber's Cyclopedia of English Literature has encouraged the publishers to commence re-printing this equally popular series. Its alm is more desultory and practical than the Cyclopedia, but it is compiled with equal judgment, and adapted to the wants of the people.

From the Practical Educator, Boston.

CANTON TEA COMPANY. THE OLDEST TEA ESTABLISHMENT IN AMERICA! PRINCIPAL ESTABLISH-

MENT IN NEW YORK. THE CANTON TEA COMPANY has been peo-gest and oldest Tea Establishment in America. The public have had full proof of their integrity and re-sponsibility. But such has been the great and pres-sing demand for their TEAS of late, that they have been obliged to enlarge, to a great extent, their two principal establishments in New York, viz

125 Chatham & 163 Greenwich Sta. They moreover possess facilities, in relation to the Tea Trade, in a very shundant degree, and doubtless superior to any other Tea Concern in America. Their scrupulous regard to all principles that tend to elevate the character of a large house, is well understood, and has already secured them a counsection, probably, larger than all other Tea Establishments united, and consequently they are determined to sell Teas purer, were fragrant, and perfect for the prices, in the aggregate, than any house in the world—China excepted.

They respectfully invite the attention of the inhabitants of Susquellanns county to their Agency in

They respectfully invite the attention of the inhabitions of Susquellanna county to their Agency in Montrose, where the following assortments are always on hand; and they feel no heattation in stating that wherever a single trial is made, a very decided preference is given to the celebrated Teas of the CANTON TEA CO. or 17 years old of steady habits and good moral character, will receive good encouragement at F. B. Chandler & Co's.
