THE FOLLOWING EXTRACTS from letters, show that Dr. Jayne's Medicines are universally esteemed.
Dyer & Co., Middletown, Conn., says—Will you please send us some more of your Sensitive Pills, as we are out. Please send us as soon as you can, as they are in great demand.
Dr. R. De Witt, Elmira, Ohio, says—Your Expectorant stands high in the esteem of all who have used it. Indeed the same may be said of all your Medicines left with me, so far as they have come in to notice.
Dr. De Witt is a physician of high standing in Lo-ruan Co.
Smith T. Price, Ashland, Ohio, says, May 3, 1845.
—The Expectant and all your Sensitive Pills are the best I have ever used. I want a new supply of all your articles.
Wm. McIntosh, Beverly, Ohio, March, 1845, says—Your Medicines so far have proven excellent relief for the diseases they are recommended for.
Sensitive Pills and Vermifuge in particular.
Elli. Kimball, Eaton, Ohio, Dec. 22, 1845, says—Your Sensitive Pills are an excellent family Medicine. The Carminative Balm sells well. The Aque Pills I think a good article.
Thompson Graham, Mercer, Pa., says—Your Medicines are highly valued here by all who have used them.
Dr. John G. Schmidt, Woodstock, Va., says—You will please send me some more of your Expectant.
Your valuable medicines are selling well, particularly the Expectant and Sensitive Pills.
Mr. C. C. Wick, Wayne, Ohio, says—Your Pills and Vermifuge are giving good satisfaction and are doing wonders here.
Prepared only by Dr. J. Jayne, Philadelphia, and sent on agency by N. MITCHELL & Co., Druggists, Montrose.

NEW WORK.
Chambers' Miscellany
OF USEFUL & ENTERTAINING KNOWLEDGE.
Edited by ROBERT CHAMBERS, Author of "Cyclopedia of Political Economy, &c." &c.
With Elegant Illustrative Engravings. Price 25 Cents per No.

GOULD, KENDALL & LINCOLN are happy to announce that they have completed arrangements with Messrs. Chambers, of Edinburgh, for the publication, in semi-monthly numbers, of CHAM-BERS'S MISCELLANY.
The design of the MISCELLANY is to supply the increasing demand for a concise, instructive, and entertaining reading, and to bring all the latest information to bear on cultivation of the feelings and understandings of the people—to impress correct views on important moral and social questions—suppress every species of strife and savagery—tear the lagging and desponding veil of the relation of tales drawn from the imaginations of popular writers—present the factories, by descriptions of interesting foreign scenes—give a zest to every-day occupations, by ballad and lyrical poetry—in short, to furnish an unobtrusive friend and guide to the reader, as far as the relation of as that object can be obtained through the instru-mentality of books.

The universally acknowledged merits of the Cyclopedia of English Literature, by the same author, connected with its rapid sale, and the unbounded commendation bestowed by the press, give the publishers full confidence in the real value and entire success of the present work.

The publication has already commenced, and will be continued semi-monthly, in convenient form, a complete work, and every third number will be furnished with a title page and table of contents, thus forming a beautifully illustrated volume of over 500 pages of useful and entertaining reading, adapted to every class of readers. The whole to be completed in THIRTY NUMBERS, forming THE ELUCIDAT-ION.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.
From the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.
We are glad to see an American issue of this publication, and especially in so convenient a form.
It is an admirable compilation, distinguished by the good taste which has been shown in all the publications of the Messrs. Chambers, of Edinburgh, for the purpose of spreading knowledge, and the usefulness and entertaining of the work. We hope its circulation here will be large enough to supply to a good extent the want of a literary library, and that it will prove an extremely useful and interesting work to the friends of general education for the laborer in this Atlantic city. We trust they may be largely recruited by the favor of the community.

From the New York Observer.
A vast treasury of pleasant reading, which we commend to families.

From the Christian World, Boston.
This is one of the most charming books that has fallen under our notice for a long time. Indeed we feel that we must bid it a most cordial welcome. If in England there are more such works, let's have them.

From the Weekly Standard.
We are prepared to recommend it without reserve, to every lover of refined and solid Literature.

From the Excelsior, Boston.
Truly useful and entertaining work. No man is better known than Messrs. Chambers, of Edinburgh, for their happy task of spreading knowledge before the public—and this is done, too, in so cheap a manner that the blessing becomes at once wide-spread.
The Editor of this paper desires to thank the friends of general education for the interest they have taken in circulating this work on this side of the Atlantic. We trust they may be largely recruited by the favor of the community.

From the Albany Courier, N. Y.
Our readers will bear in witness that we are not in the habit of "putting" indiscriminately the periodical and serial publications of the day, but so impressed are we, from such indications as have been afforded, and from the character of the editor and publishers of this Miscellany, that it will prove an extremely useful and interesting work, and especially valuable to those who are forming their reading habits, and to parents who would cultivate a correct taste in their children, that we cannot refrain from thus to advocate its circulation to all.
From the Literary World, New York.
The deserved success of Chambers's Cyclopedia of English Literature has encouraged the publishers to undertake a new and equally popular series.
It is a most interesting and useful work, and the Cy-

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. clopedic, but it is compiled with great judgment and adapted to the wants of the people.
From the Practical Educator, Boston.
From this work, and, above all, from the very valuable publication, it will contain, including memoirs and historical sketches, which will be useful, instructive, and entertaining; it will throw the influence of classic literature on the feelings and the hearts of its readers, and be a highly valuable addition to public and private libraries.

From the N. Y. Recorder.
The character of the contents, and the reputation of its editor, will give it a wide circulation, and the design is, "in short, to furnish an unobtrusive friend and guide, a lively fire-side companion, as far as that object can be attained through the instrumentality of books."

From the Chronicle, Boston.
This is deservedly a great favorite with the reading public, sating the taste of all classes and instructive to all.

From the United States Gazette, Philadelphia.
The ancient works conducted by B. Chambers, have been received with deserved favor, and this series promises to be no less useful and popular.

From the N. Y. Albion.
This highly useful and instructive series appears in a most portable form: three numbers of which have already appeared, and sold at the low price of 25 cents each. For young persons in domestic life, and the rising generation at large, we scarcely know of a publication conveying so much knowledge of a useful and entertaining nature at a price so within the reach of almost every pocket.

This work can be sent by mail to any part of the country. A direct remittance to the publishers of six dollars will pay for the entire work. This liberal discount for advance pay will nearly cover the cost of postage on the work. Those wishing for one or more sample number can remit them accordingly.
Bookkeepers and agents supplied on the most liberal terms.
The publisher of any respectable paper or periodical who will give this notice four insertions, and send us the papers containing it previous to April 1st, 1848, and enclosing as they appear, will be entitled to the work complete. The numbers will be forwarded per mail unless otherwise directed, as they are issued from the press.
GOULD, KENDALL & LINCOLN, Publishers, Boston.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.
PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given to all persons concerned in the following Estates, to wit: ELKANAH TINGLEY, late of the Township of Harford, dec'd. Darius Tingley, Executor.
OTIS SMITH, late of the township of Forest Lake, dec'd. Sarah Smith, Administratrix.

SALAMANDER, FIRE AND THIEF PROOF CHESTS,
FIRE-PROOF DOORS for HANDBY and STORES.
SEAL and LETTER-COPYING PRESSES, PAT-ENT SLATE-LINED REFRIGERATORS, WATER FILTERS, patent portable WATER CLOSETS, intended for the SICK and INFIRM.
EVANS & WATSON,
76 SOUTH THIRD STREET, (OPPOSITE THE PHILADELPHIA EXCHANGE), MANUFACTURE and keep constantly on hand, a large assortment of the above articles, together with their Patent Improved Salamander FIRE-PROOF SAFES, which are so constructed as to set at rest all manner of doubt as to their being strictly fire-proof, and that they will resist the fire of any building. The outside cases of these Safes are made of boiler iron, the inside case of soapstone, and between the outer case and inner case is a space of three inches thick, and is filled with indestructible material, so as to make it impossible to burn any of the contents inside of this Chest.
We also manufacture the ordinary Fire Proof Chests, at very low prices, cheaper than they can be bought any other store in Philadelphia.
