

REPUDIATION.
North a ragged palmetto, a South a star,
A twining leaf of his Panama hat,
And trying to lighten his mind of a head, By humming the words of the following ode:
"Oh for a nigger, and oh for a whip, Oh for a crack at old Greeley and Beecher, Oh for a crack at a New-school teacher, Oh for a captain, and oh for a ship, Oh for a cargo of niggers each trip,
And so he kept hitting for all he had not,
Not contented with owing for all that he'd got."

From the Phila. Evening News.
General McClellan's
ADDRESS TO THE ARMY.
BY WESLEY BRADSHAW.

SOLDIERS OF THE ARMY OF THE UNION!
"Though on last New Year's day the horizon of our country's happiness was somewhat darkened by the rising clouds of disunion, yet those were comparatively in the minority who did not believe that ere spring had ripened into Summer, the threatened storm would be averted. But this belief, this hope, proved fallacious, and summer was not here before the furious tempest seemed to be sweeping away the very foundations of our Liberties." Almost up to this time, the Government, relying on the justice of its cause, and a knowledge of its real superiority in power over its enemies, refrained from any vigorous vindication of itself until the belching batteries of Charleston Harbor rained their iron hail on Fort Sumter to its reduction.

On the 13th of April last, the Nation held its breath as the lightning flashed in all directions the dire intelligence that the Charleston batteries had opened fire upon Major Anderson and his intrepid band of heroes. And the Nation thrilled proudly as the wires kept telling from time to time that Major Anderson, amidst showers of shot and shell, was still bravely battling at his post, and that above the lurid flashes of his cannon, could still be seen floating the bright flag of our fathers.
But the hope thus awakened was gradually quenched, as word presently came that some of Sumner's guns were silenced; then that the Fort was on fire; then that the walls had been breached; and, finally, that the "Banner of the Stars" had been pulled down, and the post surrendered. Soldiers, on that eventful day you were citizens, pursuing the various arts and occupations of peace; but, as the flag of Washington, of 1776, of your own hearts, came fluttering from its staff, amidst the smoke and flames of Fort Sumter, you became heroes. A few hours later came the call for Seventy-five thousand "Three Months' Volunteers, and you nobly left home and dear ones behind, to rush to the defence of our threatened Capital, some of you coming even without arms, content if only your dead bodies should hinder for a moment the advance of the foe."

As the full extent of the peril to which our country was exposed became known, however, this number was found inadequate to the accomplishment of the great end aimed at. More brave hearts and sturdy arms were wanted, and regiment after regiment was speedily added to your ranks, until you now number over FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND MEN! The length of the enlistment was, also, too short, and it was announced that perhaps service for three years instead of three months, would be required from you. But this only increased your ardor, and you have determined that your breast should be bared for the protection of your country as long as she shall need.

SOLDIERS, when summoned from the mountains of Western-Virginia to take command of the army of the Potomac I felt overwhelmed with mingled surprise and gratitude for the signal honor thus conferred upon me; but the pleasant burden was doubly increased when, upon the return of Gen. Scott—the warlike warrior of our Country's battles—the full command of the armies of the United States was devolved upon me. Hesitation and distrust might well accompany the assumption of so vast a responsibility, but, placing my trust in God, and for the rest confiding in your loyalty, discipline and courage, I put my hand to the plough, and Heaven helping me, I will never look back until our Country's flag floats triumphantly over every foot of her soil, or my body lies stiffened upon the field of strife.

For some months past you have, by constant drills, skirmishes, reviews and other means, been prepared for the grand contest, the opening of which now depends entirely upon the movements or designs of the enemy, and may therefore come at any moment. The inexperience and treachery that in the opening of the present campaign caused your reverses, have been, so far as human judgment could direct, successfully combated; the first by continued practice, and the last by continual vigilance.

SOLDIERS, our cause is just, and God is on our side. The decisive moment is rapidly approaching, the notes of the bugle may soon ring in your ears. And Soldiers, when the bugle does call you to action, then let every man, taking his comrade's hand, swear by the days of '76, and by the dear ones at home, to press onward! Remember, also, even amidst the darkest carnage of the battle field, for what you are fighting; remember that you are not mere executioners, but generous, noble-hearted warriors, battling only for the laws of the land, and not for gain or conquest.

SOLDIERS, when you have accomplished all that is required of you, when your bayonets have enforced obedience to the Commission and laws throughout the length and breadth of the land, and have rescued your brethren from the depths of despair, and faithful machinations of a few designing traitors, then you will feel the proud satisfaction of having faithfully preserved the hallowed Ark of the Covenant, left to us, as a precious inheritance, by Washington and his illustrious compeers. And, in future years, when chance or fortune may scatter you throughout your own and other lands, men will point to you and say:
"He is a brave man; he was of the AR-MY OF THE UNION."

SOLDIERS, COMRADES, I have said enough.
I feel proud of you, I know you are brave, you are patriotic, you will conquer for you

WAYNESBORO'
FOUNDRY
AND
MACHINE SHOP!

IMPORTANT TO WHEAT GROWERS.
GEISER'S PATENT SELF-REGULATING GRAIN SEPARATOR, CLEANER AND BAGGER
AND THE Latest Improved Thresher and Triple Gear Horse Power, driving either by Gear or Belt, all furnished complete, ready to be put on Wagons.

The undersigned, desiring to call the attention of Farmers and Threshermen of Franklin and adjoining counties to it. This Machine has been before the public for seven years, during which time it has given general satisfaction, and the patentee having made some very important improvements which render it still more complete, both for clean-separating and cleaning, and also for ease of draught and fast threshing. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public, knowing that it will give the best of satisfaction. I am manufacturing three different sizes, as follows—No. 1 is 8 horse Power, will thresh and clean from 200 to 500 bushels per day.
No. 2 is 6 horse power, will thresh and clean from 150 to 300 bushels per day.
No. 3 is 4 horse power, will thresh and clean
from 100 to 200 bushels per day.
These Machines are warranted to do the above, and do it much better in every respect than any other machine in use.
Grain having much light chaff in it cleaned on this Machine is worth from 2 to 3 cents more per bushel than when cleaned on any other separator, or the common way of cleaning on hand fans. For this reason there is not the eighth part of light matter in the grain as when cleaned on the riddle principle.
The chaffs freely on all the grain as it leaves the beaks, whereto, when cleaned with riddle that advantage is lost.
This machine does not return the tailends as most of the separators do. By returning fifty tail-ends alternately it is impossible to make merchant-gain. Another important feature in this machine that others of the kind have not, is the Self-acting Regulator in the fan, which remedies all difficulties in bed cleaning blowing grain in the chaff in high speed or irregular drizzling, which cannot be avoided in cleaning grain by horse power.
This Machine is also more durable and less tedious to manage than any other Separator and Cleaner, the common machine with shaker.
Orders to insure their being filled until harvest should be sent in immediately.
I am fully prepared to make to order and on short notice Portable and Stationed

STEAM ENGINES,
GRIST AND SAW MILL, GEARING, SHAFTING AND PULLEYS, IRON BRIDGES, CAST IRON WATER WHEELS, IRON KETTLES, &c.

Stoves and Steam castings also cast iron and wrought iron pipe to flow cast water, and Brass castings of every description; in a word, I am prepared to do everything usually done in a foundry and machine shop.
Having supplied myself with the latest improved machinery, such as Lathes, Boring, Planing and Drilling Machines, persons can rely on having their work done in the most satisfactory manner.
I am also prepared to manufacture order machines for wood, such as Tanning and Grooving machines for flooring, Surface, Tenon and Moulding machines, &c.
I also offer to the public a new and valuable improvement in my steam engines, made within the last year, viz: for the economizing of fuel, and the regulation of speed, which renders my new engines far superior to the old engines.
All my machines are sold under warranty. My handers are all experienced workmen in this line of business, and I use all good material, so that I am perfectly safe in warranting all my work.
I am also prepared to do repairing in workman-like manner, on the shortest notice. Orders solicited and promptly attended to. All orders sent in for repairing must be accompanied with the cash, for particulars and circulars descriptive of machine, address
