"Plase, Sir, and will you send this lethur to brother Tim, who lives beyant the Relay House?"

"The clerk taking the letter, replied that he would send it to the post-office at that place.

"Sure, Sir, how will brother Tim get the lether if you send it there? Don't I tell you that he lives two miles beyant the Relay House.

"The clerk smilingly answered that as there was no post-office nearer to him than the Relay House, he would be compelled to send it there. The Irisher still appeared to be bothered and dissatisfied; but, after scratching his noddle awhile, a bright idea seemed to strike him, and approaching the window with a beaming countenance, says, "I have it now, sir!
