

And the cotton blooming again
See our country in the Spring
Come to see the fields and flowers
Do not know what a healthy
Nigger has no rights as a human
So begone from off the door
Quoth the darky, "Necromore."

And the Negro, ever sighing,
Still is crying, still is crying,
There above the Nation's portal
Crying "Freedom evermore."
And his words have all the meaning
Of a wronged race who dream of
And past glories of their own
Throw his shade from shore to shore
But our Union from that shadow,
Darkening all the nation's floor,
Shall be lifted soon forever
Lifted at the cannon's roar.

Rebel Infamy.
A letter from Mr. Ruby, of Shippensburg, who is in Capt. Woodburn's company, in McClellan's division, speaking of the hard fought battle at Williamsburg, says:
"Our army has gained a lesson at Williamsburg, and is not so ready to pitch into the rear guard of the rebels until more is known of their position, strength, &c. and what force may be at hand to route and capture them." For the want of this precaution we were long losing the battle at Williamsburg. Our loss in killed and wounded on that occasion, is greater than generally supposed—that of the rebels about the same as ours. To show with what desperation the battle was fought, a Lieutenant of a Michigan regiment now encamped near us, states that of 1100 men engaged in the battle, only 400 were left, with five commissioned officers—the last having been lost. The rebels treat our soldiers like dogs.—In many cases you could see lying on the battle field, our men who had been wounded with their throats cut from ear to ear! Two of our teamsters were found this morning, along the road, HANGING BY THEIR HELMS FROM THE BOUGH OF A TREE, WITH THEIR THROATS CUT! Such barbarism chills the blood of humanity. Many of our soldiers exasperated at this barbarism, are driven to desperation, and determined to take no more prisoners in battle.

THREE MEN SWEEP OVER NIAGARA FALLS.
—Yesterday morning the people of Niagara Falls were startled by the report that three men were swept over the falls in a row boat. The occurrence is said to have taken place about 6 o'clock, A. M. and was first discovered by a porter at the Cataract House, who saw the boat containing the men in the middle of the river, and saw the final plunge from the brink of the awful chasm. We learned from a gentleman who visited the Canada side of the river yesterday, that the fatal catastrophe was also witnessed from near the Clifton House. The men were seen putting out from the Canada side near Chippewa, with the evident intention of landing near the south end of Goat Island. After getting out a short distance, the current was found too strong for them, the recent high wind up the lake was still forcing more than usual quantity of water through the river, and although they made every exertion to stem the rushing tide, yet their efforts were entirely unavailing. They were seen, after battling for a time desperately against the current, to draw their oars from the water, and to sit motionless in the boat, resigned to their fate. In this condition they were swept over the falls. The names of the unfortunate men were not obtained.—Rochester American 26th.

THE theory that northern soldiers are monsters is not yet given up by the Richmond papers. In the same paper which the Dispatch prints an account of the humane treatment of rebel wounded by our soldiers at Williamsburg, it asserts, that of the soldiers of Gen. Bank's army.
—"some of the drunken stragglers shot hogs, sheep and other stock on the route and selecting a fine joint, leave the carcass lay on the highway. Poultry was recently slaughtered in the barn yards and eaten raw. It is asserted, and has been proved by an eye witness, that even the dogs, cats and rats encountered on the march of this horde, were killed and eaten with a voraciousness that belied starvation. Indeed they had no commissary, and it is believed their conduct was attributable to directions from their officers."

Among our men who fought for the Union at Pittsburg Landing, was Henry Clay—grandson of the illustrious statesman—a son of Henry Clay who fell at Buena Vista. It is not always that great men have their talent or patriotism reflected in their offspring. But the gallant Harry of the West still lives in the loyalty of some of his descendants.—Daniel Webster's son, Fletcher, is also in the Union service.

THE New York 11th Regiment, militia, one of those recently called out, has disgraced itself at Harper's Ferry, by refusing to be sworn in, on the ground that they were out for the defence of Washington and would go nowhere else. General Saxton rejected the whole Regiment, telling them that he did not want cowards in his command and that they could find their way home at their own expense.

DIMENSIONS OF THE NATIONAL CAPITOL.—The dimensions of the capitol at Washington are thus officially stated:
Whole length of the building, 751 feet 4 inches; length of wings, including steps, 324 feet; width of wings, 142 feet 8 inches; width of old capitol, 352 feet 4 inches; height of dome above the basement floor, 264 feet; ground actually covered, 153,112 square feet, or more than three and a half acres.

A letter received at Washington from General McClellan's army states that Mrs. General Lee and her two daughters were found on Monday last, near Old Church—a point above Richmond now occupied by our forces—and were sent under guard to the White House. Mrs. Lee expressed great surprise that our troops had got so far north of Richmond.

MARKETS.
From the Baltimore American of Tuesday.
WHEAT.—The market was dull and heavy to-day, and no transactions of moment were reported. In the absence of an inquiry for export the demand is confined to retailing brands of Super and Extra Flour suitable for the City Market. We quote as follows:—

Howard Street Super, $5.25 @ $5.37 1/2 and Shipping Extra, $5.50 and Retailing Extra, $5.75 and Family, $5.25 @ $5.32 1/2.
GRAIN.—Sales to-day of 400 bushels good white at 140 cts. and 600 bushels prime Pennsylvania red at 120 cts. per bushel. At the close we quote common white at 80 @ 105 cts. medium to fair do. at 180 185 cts. and choice do. 160 cts. per bushel; fair to prime Pennsylvania red 110 @ 120 cts. and Southern do. 120 122 cts. per bushel. Corn was in fair demand, but with large receipts the market ruled dull, and white closed lower. Sales of 8,000 bushels inferior to strictly prime white at 45 @ 60 cts. per bushel, some 12,000 bushels bringing the outside figure; 8,000 bushels good to choice yellow at 52 @ 54 cts. and 2,000 bushels inferior to fair do. at 48 @ 52 cts. We quote, at the close, common to strictly prime white at 45 @ 58 cts. prime dry shipping parcels only commanding the latter figure, and fair to prime yellow at 51 @ 53 cts. per bushel.—Oats were in fair request; sales of 4,000 bushels good and prime Maryland at 38 @ 39 cts. and 3,000 bushels prime Virginia at 37 cts. per bushel.
