

LOYALTY OF MARTINSBURG.—A correspondent of the New York Tribune, who was with Gen. Banks in his retreat from Winchester, thus records their reception in Martinsburg, Va.:

We reached Martinsburg about 1 P. M., having retreated, or "skedaddled," twenty-two miles, and oh, glorious sight and sound were received by the inhabitants with cheers, and waving of handkerchiefs by the women. A portion of the men had cartridge boxes and muskets ready to take a hand with us. The women shouted, "Don't be disheartened, you may drive them back again." "Courage, boys, courage; you are in the right cause." This was indeed sweet encouragement to men who had received nothing but jeers from all the females they had met since polluting the "sacred soil" by their foul "mud-sill" tread. A cheer went up from thirsty and blackened mouths, and many an eye was dimmed with tears. "The women of Martinsburg, Va., God bless them!" will be the toast of many a patriot "mud-sill" for years to come. We stopped at Martinsburg for about an hour, and then started the trains on as the enemy's advanced guard were coming in sight once more. To save the town from being fired by these "fiends in human form," we fell back from it about three miles, but the enemy did not advance, which was a lucky thing for us, as our teams had reached the Potomac, and the water over the ford was too deep for them to cross very fast, and had the enemy advanced another Ball's Bluff affair would surely have been enacted.

Relief for Starving Women and Children.

St. Louis, June 10.—James E. Zealman, president of the Western Sanitary Commission, this morning received a despatch from Gen. Halleck stating that hundreds of women and children in the vicinity of his operations are in a starving condition, their husbands and brothers having all been pressed into the rebel service and robbed of everything, and appealing to the citizens of St. Louis for relief for the sufferers. Mr. Zealman laid General Halleck's despatch before the Union Chamber of Commerce, and $2,000 worth of provisions were immediately subscribed, and a committee appointed to receive and collect food or money to buy it with. Similar proceedings were had at the old Chamber of Commerce, and liberal subscription of provisions and money made.

The citizens generally are also furnishing large supplies, and, from the present appearances, the hospital steamer Empress, which will leave for Pittsburg Landing tomorrow, will be heavily laden with food for the suffering Southerners. Contributions from other points, addressed to Brigadier General Callum chief of staff, at Corinth, will be properly distributed. Money is not required, as there are no provisions in the country to purchase.

PIGAYNE BUTLER.—The rebels in New Orleans find that "Pigayne Butler has come to town," and is a pretty hard character in their estimation. The various papers of the city have been suppressed by his orders for urging the destruction of cotton. He requires all the hotels, coffee-houses, &c., to procure a license. The circulation of all confederate notes was to stop on the 27th of May. The observance of the late fast day of Jeff. Davis was forbidden to be observed. The most amusing thing is to have the General seize the specie amounting to over a million of dollars, belonging to the various institutions of the city, which was placed in the hands of foreign consuls for safe keeping, supposing that under the protection of a foreign flag it would be secure. The General informed the consuls that he respected the flags of foreign nations but not when used for such a trick—that of protecting the money of rebels.

PHILADELPHIA, June 6.—Fearful accounts are being received of the damages done by the flood on the Lehigh and Delaware rivers, particularly near Mauch Chunk. The dam there as well as two others have been swept away, and many houses swept off. The railroad bridge is also gone and canal navigation is stopped for the season. The Lehigh Valley Railroad will not be in running order for several weeks.

The whole town of Newport is washed away, there being but three houses left out of about 300. The loss of life has been terrible.

SPRING FASHIONS, 1852—SILK HATS, FELT HATS, WOOL HATS, CAPS, &c.

Straw Hats all colors and styles, for Men and Boys, Children's Fancy Straws, great variety, common Straws, &c. We have just returned from the Eastern Cities and believe we have the most complete, best selected, and cheapest stock of FASHIONABLE HATS for Men, Boys and Children, to be found outside of the City.

UPDEGRAFFS, Hat Makers, Opposite Washington House, Hagerstown, Md.

Before "Busting" we have visited the Eastern Cities, and just returned with a MILLION STRAW HATS, more or less, rather less however than more and an equal proportion of Eastern made FELT HATS, all of which we intend to sell for CASH at "busting" rates. If you would save money buy at the Fountain Head, UPDEGRAFFS' where hats are really made by bustling hands, in a bustling factory, and a bustling scale, and sold at such prices as will "bust" all those who fail to buy at the Fountain Head.

UPDEGRAFFS, Hat Makers, Opposite Washington House, Hagerstown, Md.

TO COUNTRY MERCHANTS.—In addition to our usual stock of home-made and WOOL HATS, we have just added fifteen cases of Eastern made FELT HATS, comprising all the styles popular in the trade. These goods have been purchased from the largest and best eastern factories for cash, and at the same rates as the largest city jobbers, and we are now prepared to offer them to country merchants at as low prices as city jobbers.

UPDEGRAFFS, Hat Makers, Opposite Washington House, Hagerstown, Md.

Merchants, remember that we have just added a first class WHOLESALE DEPARTMENT to our stock, and will sell you in small lots and sizes, as you may want any of the popular styles of the day, and always at as low prices as city jobbers.

UPDEGRAFFS, Hat Makers, Opposite Washington House, Hagerstown, Md.

The best run of shad sometimes prove the best, just as with our last run, bigger stock, a better stock, and a cheaper stock than can be produced elsewhere, may be found at all times, or until we "bust."

UPDEGRAFFS, Hat Makers, Opposite Washington House, Hagerstown, Md.

MARKETS.

From the Baltimore American of Tuesday.

FLOUR.—We notice some inquiry for Family Flour for foreign markets, sales reported comprise 800 bbls. Howard Street Family at $6.50 per bbl. The demand for other descriptions is confined to small lots of good Super and Extra Flour suitable for the retail trade. We quote as follows, viz: Howard Street Super, at $5.25@5.37; Shipping Extra, at $5.50, Retailing Extra, at $5.62; Family, at $6.00@6.50.

GRAIN.—The receipts of Grain on Change to-day comprised 3,000 bushels Wheat, 24,000 do. Corn, 11,000 do. Oats, and 850 do. Rye—total 38,350 bushels. Wheat—Sales of 1,500 bushels good to choice white at 145@160 cts. and 500 bushels ordinary Pennsylvania red at 118@118 cts. per bushel.—Second Wheat is now scarce, and the small parcels coming to market command full prices; lower grades sell very slowly. We quote white nominally at 80@85 cts. for common; 110@125 cts. for medium to fair; 140@155 cts. for good to prime, and 160@162 cts. per bushel for choice Family Flour. The market was busy with good red wheat; we quote nominally at 118@122 cts. for common to prime Pennsylvania red, and at 120@123 cts. per bushel for fair to good Southern red. Corn—Sales of some 10,000 bushels inferior to prime dry white at prices ranging from 40@58 cts. per bushel, 1-1/2 suitable for coastwise or European shipment only commanding over 50 cts. Of yellow 8,000 bushels good and prime at 34@55 cts. and 2,000 bushels inferior and common do. at 47@50 cts. the market closing steady.—Oats—Sales included 5,000 bushels Maryland and Pennsylvania at 33@39 cts. per bushel for good and prime parcels of the former, and 40@41 cts. per bushel for the latter description. With light receipts, the market closed firm. Of Rye 350 bushels Pennsylvania at 66 cts. at which figure we quote at the close, with a very limited demand.

HORRIBLE EXPLOSION! THE MERRIMAC!

Loaded with fresh SUMMER

arrived from Philadelphia this week, steamed up to our store, and threw—oh! ye fair portion of creation!—the most delightful stock of breezy goods straight into our door, that ever brightened our counters. First, doubtless to please the

came a shower of Silky Dobbies, Balzines, Sky-tinted Lawns, Chintzes, Madenas, Mozambique, Himalayas, Poplins, Challies, &c., of every hue of the Rainbow, glistening like stars, that will make the old look young, and the young like Genii; it then followed a broad stream of Nankeens, Muslins, Table-linens, Calicoes, cambrages, broads, which came flying like birds of beauty, Head-Dresses, Sleeves and Collars in sets, Shakers, Hosiery, Sun-UMBrellas—beauties—gaunlets, and all those dear little tick-tacks which make the ladies look so charming; above it a dark sheet of

in elegant variety, Bk. Grenadines, Byndore Berages, Wool Delaines, Challies, Lawns, Balzines, Crape Desperances, Eng. Crape, Eng. and American Prints, plain and figured, Eng. and French Crape Vests, Mourning Collars, Gloves, Hosiery, &c.—everything to render the mourner less lonely in her sorrow. After these streams ceased to flow there was another explosion and in came pouring for the

GENTLEMEN

Bales of Silky Broad-cloths, Parisians, Cassimeres, Black and fancy, double and single milled, in super styles, fancy as a sunbeam.—with the accompaniments, splendid Vestings, Silk, Marcellines plain, brilliant, and beautiful Neck-ties, unimpeachable Shirt-breasts and Collars, everything to set the Gent fit for a picture, and make him presentable even at the Capital of the Nation. So Gents, look in and see, seeing is believing. All over the pavement lay boxes, which when opened displayed those good, solid, substantial wares, our noble, ind. ustrious like so much to see; because they must have them to make the boys trowsers, and the girls dresses; here they are strong as buck-skin, cotton, woolen, mixed, jeans, goods of new styles, cheap and durable, cotton stripes, drillings, calicoes of late styles, ticking, sheetings, in fact all that our young friends require who are starting on their matrimonial journey through life.

Well, the goods were hardly stowed away, when there came trudging along

HATS AND SHOES!
