

VILLAGE RECORD. WAYNEBORO. Friday, Sept. 10, 1862.

Forever float that standard sheet! Where Freedom's soil beneath our feet, And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

We are requested to state that the Wayneboro' Clerical and Commercial Institute will be opened again on Monday.

Arms to be Returned.—Persons to whom arms were given out by Capt. Kurts, are requested to deliver them at his Hotel by Monday evening, the 22d inst.

No Paper Last Week.—The occupation of Hagerstown, last week, by the rebel army, and the excitement occasioned here in consequence, induced us to suspend publication. Our readers will of course pardon this omission as it was impossible for us to put the paper out under the circumstances.

Death of a Soldier.—We regret to learn that Mr. Geo. DAVIS, of Col. Harlan's Cavalry, died in the hospital at Camp Robinson, Suffolk, Va., on Friday the 5th inst.—Mr. D was a native of this place, and was much esteemed by all who knew him. He enlisted about a year ago in the Company recruited by Captain Stetzel in Chambersburg. His death causes almost universal sorrow here.

Another Soldier Fallen.—Our community is called on to mourn the loss of another citizen and soldier. WILSON PILKINGTON, of the 12th Regiment P. R., Col. Tigart, it appears was wounded on the mountain, near Boonsboro' on Sunday last, from the effects of which he died on Monday. Mr. P. entered the service some 15 or 16 months since, being among the first to volunteer from our town, and passed unscathed through all the battles in front of Richmond. He was a gallant young soldier, and a printer by profession, having served his apprenticeship in this office. Thomas G. Pilkington, father of the deceased, with another son, were amongst those who recently left our county as volunteers. We deeply sympathize with his afflicted parents and friends.

A Great Battle.—Glorious News!—During Tuesday and Wednesday heavy and almost incessant cannonading had been heard South of this place. As we go to press it is reported that the Rebel army under Gen. Lee has surrendered to Gen. McClellan with a loss of 85,000 in killed and wounded.—The battle is said to have been fought about seven or eight miles from Hagerstown, in the neighborhood of Sharpsburg. We give this as among the most reliable reports in circulation and hope that it may prove correct in the main.

Marshal Law.—On Monday morning last our town was placed under Marshal Law, JOHN W. COON having been appointed by Gov. Curtin Provost Marshal. The sale of liquors has been suspended until further orders, and a guard stationed at all the roads leading into town. Quite a number of arrests have been made, some supposed to be deserters from our army, and others from the Rebel army. The office of the Marshal is under the Town Hall.

Another Company.—Capt. L. B. KURTZ left this place for Chambersburg, on Wednesday, with seventy-five or eighty volunteers, where they are to be organized and equipped. A finer body of men has at no time, perhaps, left our county for the war. They were picked men and will enter the service as "Mounted Riflemen." The Muster Roll of this company will appear as soon as we can get it complete.

The Indians are increasing their frightful excesses in the neighborhood of Forts Ridgely and Abercrombie, and General Pope, just assigned to command the Northwest Department, will have the widest opportunities for the display of his peculiar genius.

Noble Example.—Mrs. Shorb, of this place, who is a widow, informed the enrolling marshal that she had already furnished in the Union Army—that she had another yet at home, and if it was necessary he should go too. And should that not be sufficient she had two daughters, who with herself, would be willing to shoulder their muskets rather than see this glorious Union destroyed by rebel hands.—Star.

Extraordinary Judgement to Enlist.—The Cleveland Leader announces that a very young lady of that city, offers to kiss any able bodied, good looking young man who will enlist. Improving on this idea, the editor of a Wheeling paper suggests that some of our pretty, rosy-lipped young ladies offer to marry such of the young men as will enlist after their return from the war.

Hon. Amos Kendall recently purchased $100 worth of grapes, for distribution among the sick soldiers in the various hospitals around Washington.

One of the remaining acts in Boston has this motto—"Come in out of the draft."

The Draft for Franklin County.—We are indebted to the Chambersburg Semi-Weekly Dispatch for the following regular statement showing the number of persons subject to military duty, and the number in service, from each district in the county of Franklin, as returned by the Assistant Deputy Marshals:

Table with columns: District, To be Drafted, In Service, Total. Lists districts like Antrim, N. Ward, S. Ward, etc.

The whole number to be drafted, it will be seen, is 1153, the same being based upon a draft of 36 per cent. of the military population.

Abolitionism.—An exchange says, is it not rather late at this hour, for the Northern sympathisers to endeavor to make capital out of the cry of "abolitionist" in regard to every one who is not a lover of slavery?

The secessionists of the South and their allies of the North, call all abolitionists who do not believe in their faith and doctrine on the subject of slavery. Let us see; we believe from their actions, that the southerners are greater abolitionists than we of the north.

They are for abolishing free speech thought and action. They would abolish free schools and free labor. They would abolish the ballot box and take it out of the power of the "common people" to vote. They would abolish a free government. They would abolish the Stars and Stripes. They would abolish the great ideals for which our forefathers fought. They would abolish the world's beacon light of Freedom. They must "rule or ruin."

New Counterfeit.—A new counterfeit ten dollar note on the bank of Montgomery county, Pennsylvania, is now being circulated. Vignette, goddess of liberty, reclining; portrait each side of vignette; on right end, male and female readers, '10' above; on left end, canal boat, '10' above; imitation of genuine.

"S. C."—Has it ever occurred to our readers how much significant meaning there is in these well known initials of the Southern Confederacy? Here is a decade of examples: 1. It originated in South Carolina. 2. It commenced on State Capital. 3. It contains a Suffering Community. 4. Its success has a Slim Chance. 5. Intervention brings it Small Comfort. 6. Its leaders invent Shameless Calumnies. 7. Its people exhibit Surprising Credulity. 8. It has initiated a Suicidal Conflict. 9. Its women are Saucy Creatures. 10. Its history will be Scorn and Contempt.

What Rhode Island has Done.—Rhode Island has a population of 20,000 liable to military duty, and she now has 12,000 in the field. Can a country, with such a people, be whipped?

The Littlestown Railroad was sold at public outcry on Thursday last—a portion of the first mortgage bondholders and others becoming the purchasers, at $18,500.—Star.

Drafted men get only $11 a month, and no bounty. Our patriotic young men will save Uncle Sam millions of dollars by waiting a few days longer.

The Hon. John C. Knox, of Philadelphia, has been appointed, by the President, Judge Advocate General of the army corps commanded by Gen. Wool. Gen. Wool's military jurisdiction includes Philadelphia and the eastern part of Pennsylvania.

Major-General Pope, at his own request, has been removed from the command of the Army of Virginia, &c., and has been assigned to the command of the Department of the Northwest.

WHAT GOV. GAMBLE WOULD DO.—Gov. Gamble, of Missouri, in a speech at a war meeting in St. Louis on the 21st ult., placed himself in the ranks of those who are in favor of driving the rebels to speedy destruction. He said he would exterminate the guerrillas as fast as they were taken; he would make the wealthy secessionists pay the expenses of the war in Missouri, and he would drive the non-combatants down to Dixie.

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 6.—A telegram received by Governor Salomon, from Secretary Stanton, this afternoon, announces that Gen. Pope is on his way to St. Paul, Minnesota, to take command of the Northwest Department. His headquarters will be located at St. Paul. A special session of the Legislature of this State will meet here to-morrow.

GLORIOUS NEWS! FREDERICK CITY CAPTURED! GENS. McCLELLAN AND BURNSIDE IN THE CITY.

Enthusiastic Reception of the Union Army. Skirmishes with the Rebels. Capture of 100 Ammunition and Subsistence Wagons.

150 PRISONERS TAKEN. BALTIMORE, Sept. 14. The reported information with regard to attack on the Northern Central R. R. is unfounded.

Cannonading at Harper's Ferry all day ceased at four o'clock. We have not heard the result.

Gen. Burnside passed through Frederick early on Saturday morning, and the whole army pushed on after the enemy by every road.

The people turned out to welcome Burnside with the wildest enthusiasm, men, women and children; and when Gen. McClellan came the people blockaded up the streets so that it was difficult for him to reach his headquarters.

The scene is described as most grand, waving flags and handkerchiefs, and even women screamed words of welcome at the top of their voices.

The advance guard entered Frederick on Friday evening at five o'clock, and had a skirmish on the street with Stewart's cavalry; several were killed and wounded on both sides, and Col. Moore, of the loyal Virginia cavalry was captured by the rebels and carried off, but was afterward rescued.

The rebels did not destroy any of the turnpike bridges over the Monocacy, but left nothing but pieces standing of the splendid iron railroad bridge.

A rebel train of one hundred ammunition and subsistence wagons was captured by Gen. Franklin, about one hundred and fifty prisoners had been sent into Frederick.

LATER. FREDERICK, Sept. 13.—Frederick is ours. The first of our troops entered the east end of the town at four o'clock yesterday afternoon. Half an hour later a cavalry force under Gen. Pleasanton entered the city by way of the Market street turnpike.

The main body of the rebel forces evacuated the city on Thursday. A few cavalry from the command of Gen. Stewart and the Hampton Legion, made a charge upon our troops when the latter entered, but the enemy was speedily repulsed. Our loss was two killed and six wounded, while the rebels suffered at least to that extent.

The reception of our forces was of a most enthusiastic character. The entire city was overjoyed and the people turned out en masse to welcome our forces.

All along the streets through which our forces passed flags were waved from the house tops and windows, and the side walks were lined with spectators, including a full representation of ladies.

The rebel forces are represented to be about 125,000 strong. The citizens of Frederick have suffered much from rebel incursions including the loss of domestic supplies.

The enemy were in a starving and ragged condition—many of them being without shoes. They confidently expected that at least 50,000 men would flock to them in Frederick county.

Jackson was here, together with Longstreet and Hill. They left Frederick with the intention, it is reported of going to Pennsylvania, but subsequent events seem to indicate that they will endeavor to retreat into Virginia by way of Williamsport.

This morning an engagement is going on at the foot of the mountains on the road to Sandy Hook between rebels consisting of two thousand cavalry and three batteries. A portion of the enemy went to Hagerstown while Jackson took the left hand road toward Harper's Ferry. The rebels left four hundred and fifty of their sick in Frederick county.

LATEST. WASHINGTON, Sept. 14. By a special messenger to the Associated Press. FREDERICK, SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

On our way hither this morning from Urbana, after crossing the Monocacy, Gen. McClellan and staff passed through Sumner's corps, who opened their ranks for that purpose.

The enthusiasm with which he was received by the veteran troops is beyond description. Before the rebels left Frederick they sacked and destroyed the union newspaper offices. The ladies here were forced to hide their American flags about their persons to prevent the rebels from carrying them off.

In the thrallery duel yesterday which lasted till one o'clock, between Gen. Pleasanton and the rear-guard of the rebels, we had three horses killed and two men wounded.

The rebels fearful of being surrounded by infantry fell back three miles beyond the mountains to Middletown, from which place they were driven in the afternoon. Our troops held the town during the night and Sunday morning.

There is no probability that our troops will remain inactive. They now fear of an invasion in Pennsylvania. The troops are in excellent spirits at their reception by the people of this state. The sick and wounded rebels left here have been paroled.

Arrival of 100 Prisoners. Fitzhugh of Franklin county among them.—Over Sixty Ammunition Wagons Captured.

Special for the Harrisburg TELEGRAPH. CHAMBERSBURG, Sept. 15. The cars have returned from Greencastle with over one hundred prisoners.

Fitzhugh, from Franklin county, is among them. Our people were for hanging him, but Col. McClure saved his neck.

Over sixty wagons are just entering the town, which were captured from the rebels while retreating. The wagons contain ammunition and equipments. G. B.

ANOTHER GLORIOUS VICTORY. THE REBELS ROTTED. GEN. RENO KILLED.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15. HEADQ'S ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, 3 MILES BEYOND MIDDLETOWN, Sept. 14—9:40 P. M.

H. W. Halleck, General in Chief. After a severe engagement the corps of Generals Hooker and Reno, have carried the heights commanding the Hagerstown road. The troops behaved magnificently. They never fought better.

Gen. Franklin has been engaged on the extreme left. I do not know the result except that the firing indicates progress on his part. The action continued till after dark and terminated leaving us in possession of the entire crest. It has been a glorious victory. I cannot tell whether the enemy will retreat during the night or appear in increased force in the morning. I regret to add that the gallant and able general Reno is killed.

G. B. McCLELLAN, Major General. STILL LATER. WASHINGTON, Sept. 15. HEADQ'S ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, September 15, 8 A. M.

To H. W. Halleck Commander-in-Chief: I have just learned from Gen. Hooker in the advance, who states that the information is perfectly reliable that the enemy is making for the river in a perfect panic, and Gen. Lee last night stated publicly that he must admit they had been shockingly whipped.

I am hurrying everything forward to endeavor to press their retreat to the utmost. (Signed) G. B. McCLELLAN. VERY LATEST. HEADQ'S ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, AT BOLIVAR, Sept. 15th, 10 A. M.

To H. W. Halleck General-in-Chief: Information has this moment been received completely confirming the rout and demoralization of the rebel army. Gen. Lee is reported wounded and Gen. Gland killed. General Hooker alone has over 1,000 more prisoners, 700 having been in Frederick.—It is stated that Gen. Lee gives his loss at 15,000. We are following as rapidly as the moon can move. (Signed) G. B. McCLELLAN, Major General.

A Rebel Proclamation. BALTIMORE, Sept. 11. The following proclamation was issued by the rebel Bradley T. Johnson at Frederick, on the day he took possession of that place, viz:

TO THE PEOPLE OF MARYLAND. After sixteen months of oppression more galling than the Austrian tyranny, the victorious army of the South brings freedom to your doors. Its standard now waves from the Potomac to Mason and Dixon's Line. The men of Maryland, who during the last long months, have been crushed under the heel of this terrible despotism, now have the opportunity for working out their own redemption, for which they have so long waited, and suffered and hoped.

The Government of the Confederate States is pledged by the unanimous vote of its Congress, by the distinct declaration of its President, by the soldier and statesman Davis, never to cease this war until Maryland has the opportunity to decide for herself her own fate, untrammelled and free from Federal bayonets.

The people of the South, with unanimity unparalleled, have given their hearts to our native State, and hundreds of thousands of her sons have sworn with arms in their hands that you shall be free.

You must now do your part. We have the arms here for you. I am authorized immediately to muster in for the war companies and regiments. The companies of one hundred men each. The regiments of ten companies. Come all who wish to strike for their liberties and homes. Let each man provide himself with a stout pair of shoes, a good blanket and a tin cup—Jackson's men have no baggage.

Officers arsenals Frederick to receive recruits, and all companies formed will be armed as soon as mustered in. Live at once! Remember the coils of Fort McHenry! Remember the dungeons of Fort Lafayette and Fort Warren! Remember the insults to your wives and daughters, the arrests, the midnight searches of your houses!

Remember these, your wrongs, and rise at once in arms and strike for liberty and right. BRADLEY T. JOHNSON, Colonel C. S. A. September 8, 1862.

THE EFFICIENCY OF DRAFTED SOLDIERS. The Montreal Gazette, lately inclined to disparage the Union cause, concedes to the superiority of drafted soldiers. It says:—"A draft will mainly fall upon the Agricultural classes, upon men injured to fatigue and exposure, and able, from their general strength, to stand far more hard work than the residents of cities. Yet it may be urged that men forced into service, as these men will be, will not fight with the courage of the men who voluntarily came forward to put down the South. This may apply in some cases, to persons residing in the Border States, whose proclivities are decided secessionists. But it should also be remembered that in no country where a conscription has taken place have conscripts failed to display fortitude and courage. What was the Old Guard at Waterloo, when it refused to surrender, and died with the heroic words upon its lips, 'La Garde morte nous elle ne se rend pas?'

What but a body of conscripts? What were the Russians who fought in the Crimea with a doggedness and determination which almost paid the debts of the most courageous and hardy troops in modern times, but conscripts? People may say what they will, deduct all they may on the score of unwillingness, but we cannot close our eyes to the fact that the drill master will have splendid material to work on in the new levy.

JEFF. DAVIS, in his message to the rebel Congress, is very severe upon the Yankees for counterfeiting his Confederate shipmasters and boasts that none of the Southerners are mean enough to engage in this business, but the Richmond papers proved that Jeff. Davis, by announcing the execution of a man who has been convicted of counterfeiting Confederate Treasury notes. Treason and lying are twins at a birth.

No Baltimore papers received. No quantity no report of the markets this week.

New York must raise 68,000 men by a draft. This will be made necessary by the fact she has not filled, and cannot fill her quota of the first call in time, so that there will be drafting on both calls in that state. 'Bully' for the braggarts of the Empire state.

A PREVENTIVE AGAINST MOTHS.—A preventive against these summer deprecators on woollen cloths; and also an agreeable perfume for all kinds of clothing, may be made of equal parts of cloves, nutmeg, mace, and cinnamon, all ground and mixed thoroughly, and sprinkled over the garments when packed away.

THE ALTAR. On the 31st ult., by the Rev. J. F. Oller, at his residence in Quiney, Mr. William Stoop, of Quiney township, to Miss Seraphine Monahan, of Frederick county Md.

THE TOMB. Near this place, on the 9th inst., Barbara Funk, daughter of Henry and Mary Besora, aged 11 years, 6 months and 9 days.

Near this place, on the 1st inst., Sarah Alice, daughter of Jeremiah and Sarah Hess, aged 11 years, 9 months and 12 days. Also on the 6 inst., Frederick C. Hess, aged 5 years 5 months and 1 day.

At Camp Robinson, near Suffolk, Va., on the 5th inst., Mr. Geo. Davis, of this place, aged 19 years, 6 months and 5 days.

In Quiney, on the 15th inst., Daniel M., son of Dr. John and Catharine Newcomer, aged 5 years, 5 months and 17 days.

The deceased was an unusually bright and promising child, whose sweetness of disposition and affectionate spirit, endeared him to all who knew him, and had he lived to manhood, would doubtless have been a source of consolation and pleasure to his afflicted parents and numerous friends.

He seemed to have been conscious of his approaching end, and also of a rest in heaven, among his last words were the following:—"I want to be an angel."

I want to join the Angel song And be an Angel too, My stay on earth will not be long, My dearest friends adieu.

Dear father will you meet me there? I'll shout to see you come, And mother dear, dry up that tear, We'll meet again, at home.

In your bright world where Jesus reigns And Angels sweetly sing; For no heavenly rest remains, My soul is on the wing.

Adieu, vain world, my race is run, My lamp but dimly burns, My day has reached its setting sun, My flesh to dust returns.

Once more adieu, away, away, My soul is on the wing, To that bright world of heavenly day Where Angels sweetly sing.

In Quiney, on the 27th ult., William Byers, son of Jacob F. and Elizabeth Oller, aged 4 years, 11 months and 7 days.

Our Willis so dear has left us, Oh why must he be so soon, Our Saviour must also have led him, Or he would not have taken him home.

He sleeps in the valley so sweet, But his spirit has taken its flight, So his form is but dust, without our feet, While he is an angel of light.
