PUBLIC SALE OF VALUABLE TOWN PROPERTY.
BY virtue of an order of the Honorable Orphans' Court for Washington county, and by the directions contained in the last Will and Testament of John Byer, the undersigned, his Executor, will offer at public sale,
On Tuesday the 11th of November, 1862, in front of the premises, that valuable real estate known as the "Southern and Western HOTEL," situated on the corner of West Washington and Jonathan Streets, in Hagerstown, and now in the occupancy of William E. Doyle, and now in the occupancy of R. H. Wise as a Grocery Store.
The said hotel and long established house has an extensive run of business, is in good order, and always commands a large rental. From its location in front of the Court House, and near all the public institutions of the town, and from its susceptibility of improvement it is regarded as perhaps the best and most valuable piece of property in the town. As a tavern it has always had the best country custom in this place, with perhaps the largest transient business. One of the rooms is rented for a Grocery Store doing a large business.
