

VILLAGE RECORD.
WAYNESBORO,
Friday, Nov. 21, 1862.

Forever float that standard sheet!
Where breathes the foe but falls before us,
With Freedom's banner overhead,
And Freedom's soul beneath our feet,
And Freedom's hammer streaming o'er us!

Farm for Sale.—We call the attention of our readers to the valuable real estate advertised by ISAAC SNOCKEY, Esq., in another column.

Returned.—Mr. A. B. McCLELLAN, the "picture man," has returned to this place, and is now fitting up the rooms over Fourthman's Drug Store for the purpose of taking Photographs. Mac is a good operator—Advertisement next week.

Thanksgiving.—The stores in this place will be closed on Thursday next, Thanksgiving day, and business suspended generally we presume. The churches of course will be open for religious services in the morning.

Promotions.—We are pleased to learn that E. S. TROXEL, of this place, Capt. of Company A, Penna. Militia, has been promoted to the responsible position of Lieut. Colonel. W. TELL BARNETT, from first Lieut. to Captain; W. M. MAXWELL, from second to first Lieut.; SAMUEL HOEPLICH, from orderly Sergeant to Second Lieut.

Our Business.—Owing to the increased price of printing paper and other articles which make up the expenses of a printing office, we are compelled to urge more prompt payment of the part of patrons. We do not wish to increase the price of subscription, and hence make this appeal for prompt payments. We trust that patrons will bear this in mind. The sum required for a year's subscription is small, but to us, in the aggregate, it is large, and if promptly paid over will enable us to go forward without any increase of prices.

There are quite a number of patrons who are largely in arrears for subscription at this time. To continue the paper these much longer is out of the question. Unless payment is made between the first day of December and the first day of January their names will be dropped and added to our list of "black sheep."

Abolitionists.—The old cry of "abolitionist" is still echoed and re-echoed by those hostile to the administration of Abraham Lincoln. All who do not join in this cry and thus manifest their sympathy for the rebel cause are, no matter what their politics may formerly have been, denounced as Abolitionists! It has become a by-word with men, women, and even urchins on the street corners. This class do not wish to have it appear that they openly sympathize with Jeff. Davis in his unholty crusade against the government, and hence dawl Abolitionist as a pretext for their toy activities. This appears to be their watch word and is used for no other purpose than to mislead the loyal as to their real motives. Anxious to relieve Jefferson Davis and his guilty accomplices of the terrible responsibilities which this war involves they seek to place the burden upon the shoulders of other by shouting Abolitionist! That they are in sympathy with the traitors is evinced by them in this and many other ways. In no one way is it more clearly exhibited than in their abuse of the Administration. The old arch-traitor himself could not ask anything more at the hands of a northern dough-face and traitor, and when they thus assail our rulers they do his bidding as effectually as do those who are fighting in the rebel ranks. Beware then, of that individual who is continually denouncing the loyal as Abolitionists, for he is a foe to liberty and as much your enemy as though he held an office in rebel South Carolina and carried upon his person the genuine live-gravy-backs.

A resolution has been proposed in the Rebel Congress, offering twenty dollars to every negro who should kill a white Union soldier. How wrong it is—how horrible to injure our "southern brethren" in the endeavor to suppress this rebellion! That emancipation Proclamation of the President will cause an uprising of the slaves, and oh! how terrible a thing it would be if they were to cut their masters' throats to keep their masters from cutting the throats of our soldiers.

Counterfeiter Arrested.—A man named Adam Besore, was arrested at the tavern of Mr. J. Mickle, in Adams county, on the 9th inst., by Sheriff Brandt of this county, and committed to the Chambersburg prison on the same night. There were found on his person $810 counterfeit $5 notes on the Chambersburg bank, and $200 counterfeit $2 notes on the Bank of Penna Township. He was, no doubt, on a distributing tour.

Scarlet Fever.—At this time this disease is very prevalent among the children of our town and neighborhood. A number of cases have proved fatal within the last few days.

A Prediction Verified.—Since the removal of Gen. McClellan, (says the Lancaster Examiner) we have been forcibly reminded of what we heard a year ago, or about the time he was placed in chief command. Our informant was a very intelligent man, a good judge of human nature, and withal, well acquainted with Gen. McClellan. He expressed the belief that the people would be disappointed in Gen. McClellan, and gave his reasons for that belief. He knew Gen. McClellan to be an able and accomplished Engineer, who could plan the construction of a work or building, a railroad bridge for instance, according to the rules of art and science, and with a certainty that it would answer every purpose for which it was constructed. But with all his knowledge of science he would not have the confidence or courage (or whatever else you may be pleased to term it) to cross upon the first locomotive passing over. This, and other peculiarities of mind which he named, our informant thought intimated mental and physical characteristics which unfitted him for a successful general in the field, notwithstanding his knowledge of the art of war. The result we think has demonstrated the truth of the prediction. As the head of a department having the control of forts and the defenses of the nation, Gen. McClellan would have no superior. He has not turned out a Napoleon in the field as his friends at first claimed he would be.

How it is Estimated.—In the north, the rebel sympathizers denounce the President's emancipation proclamation, as being utterly impracticable. In the south, the fighting rebels receive it as the greatest calamity that could befall the cause of treason, the moment the federal armies get a footing in the cotton states, to put the emancipation policy into practical operation. This is the only point on which the sympathizers in the loyal states differ with their friends and allies in the south. The Richmond Examiner of October 5th, referring to the subject, says: "These calamities threatened in the capture of our ports are grave enough. The graver, however, and more terrible than all these, is to come if the enemy can get hold in the cotton states, for putting into operation there his emancipation scheme."

Hon. Jos. Holt, in a letter written on the 25th of October, says that no interest, or institution, must be permitted to stand in the way of the paramount duty of restoring the Union; that those who are in arms against the Constitution can claim no rights under it, and that if the rebellious states do not submit before the first of January, they will have voluntarily brought upon themselves the abolition of slavery. Those are sound views, and they mark the progress of right opinions among southern men, who are really and unconditionally for the Union.

Required to take the Oath.—Merchants and Dealers of every kind who receive goods from the Eastern cities are required to take the Oath of Allegiance to the Government of the U. States before the goods are forwarded. This regulation requires some hard swearing among the Secesh, but under the inspiration of the pocket they manage to worry down the oath.

A Year of Jubilee.—The German Reformed Church will celebrate the year 1863, as the third centennial celebration of the adoption of the Heidelberg Catechism as the rule of its faith next to and as explanatory to the Word of God, it having been adopted in the year 1563, three hundred years ago. The entire year, we believe, is to be observed as a year of Jubilee.—Dispatch.

Sore Throat Recipe.—In publishing the recipe for sore throat in our last issue we should have omitted milk for grown persons. It is to be used only in that administered to small children, and only in case the brandy and horseradish proves too strong for the patient.

It is worthy of notice that President Lincoln's State, (Illinois) has furnished twelve thousand men beyond her quota under the draft. This is a noble State, reflecting credit upon herself and upon the noble man she has furnished for Chief Magistrate of the Nation.

Scott's Reply to Buchanan.—Gen. Scott replies to Buchanan's last letter and is anxious to know, as Buchanan holds himself responsible for the acts of his Cabinet, whether Floyd removed the many arms from the North to the South, with his consent. The old General is a clincher.

Married. The Hon. Edward McPherson, present member of Congress from this district, was married in Gettysburg on the 12th inst., to Miss Annie D. Crawford, eldest daughter of John S. Crawford, Esq., of that place.

A Request.—The State Superintendent requests that the Pastors of the various churches throughout the county, deliver a sermon on popular education, the first Sabbath in December.

The removal of Gen. McClellan is received with approbation in the west. Those who object to it there are of the Vallandigham stripe.

At Providence R. 1., on Sunday, a salute of one hundred guns was fired in honor of the elevation of Gen. Burnside to the command of the army of the Potomac. Gen. Burnside is a native of that State.

OUR GRAND ARMY IN VIRGINIA.
Winter Campaign.

Army of the Potomac Reorganized.—Four Columns to advance under Sumner, Hooker, Franklin, and Sigel, as Right, Centre, Left, and Reserve.—Gen. Burnside's Staff.—Burnside and Sigel in Consultation, &c.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Nov. 15.—The following order was published to-day:

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, NEAR WARRENTON, VA., Nov. 14.
GENERAL ORDER No. 184.

First. The organization of a portion of this army into three general divisions is hereby announced.

Second. Three grand divisions will be formed and commanded as follows:

The Second and Ninth Corps will form the right grand division, and will be commanded by Major General E. V. Sumner.

The First and Sixth Corps will form the left grand division, and will be commanded by Major General W. B. Franklin.

The Third and Fifth Corps will form the centre grand division, and will be commanded by Major General Joseph Hooker.

The Eleventh Corps, with such other troops as may hereafter be assigned to it, will constitute a reserve force under the command of Major General F. Sigel.

Assignments of cavalry and further details will be announced in future orders.

Second. In accordance with instructions from the War Department, the commanders of these grand divisions will have power to decide such questions relating to the interior management of their commands as are now forwarded to these headquarters for final action.

Major General Sigel will exercise all the powers in respect to his command above assigned, as the commander of a grand division. Those cases which can only be decided by the departments at Washington, they will forward directly to those departments, without reference to these headquarters.

All matters relating to the movements of troops, together with returns, reports, &c., will be forwarded to these headquarters as usual.

Third. The commanders of these grand divisions will retain with them their respective staffs.

Fourth. The senior officers of the 2d, 3d, 5th and 6th corps will take command of these corps, and will forward to these headquarters a list of recommendations of officers to fill their staffs.

Fifth. Brig. Gen. S. Williams, A. A. G., is appointed Inspector General of the Adjutant General's Department in this army.—Lieut. Col. James A. Harter, A. D. C. Acting Adjutant General, will act as Assistant Inspector General in the same department.

Sixth. The heads of the various staff departments at these headquarters, other than the Adjutant General's Department, will remain as heretofore until further orders.

Seventh. Lieutenant Colonel Richmond, A. A. General, is announced as A. A. General at these headquarters.

Eighth. All orders conflicting with this are hereby rescinded.

By command of Major General Burnside:
S. WILLIAMS, A. A. G.

Our Grand Army Advancing.—Washington, Nov. 18.—It is understood here that our army has occupied Fredericksburg, and will move south without delay.

I believe that this movement must have taken the rebels by surprise, as they undoubtedly expected a direct approach to Gordonsville, which they had prepared to defend desperately at the Rapidan.

According to what they must now take Burnside's programme to be, they must hasten to meet him—at the crossing of the two railroads—the Fredericksburg and Richmond and the Central Railroad, in Hanover county, about twenty miles from Richmond, if not before he reaches that point.

Gen. Burnside will move directly upon Richmond, and Sigel's army will move off shortly in a direction where this general can bring his great abilities to bear in behalf of his country one more.

There is a great buoyancy of spirits here to-night, and the saquin folks are speculating about taking Richmond in a few weeks. We shall certainly accomplish the task, if the weather remains tolerable a month longer.

Cavalry for the Border.—We have heard a rumor, but whether true or not we cannot say, that it is the purpose of the authorities to place a cavalry force along or near the border during the approaching winter, to prevent rebel raids of horse thieves through our Southern tiers of counties. Owing to our proximity to the field of conflict, such a precaution would be very proper, and if an attack of the enemy in force should be attempted, speedy information would be at once given.—Dispatch.

Important to Drafted Men.—Substitutes to be Furnished Immediately.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 15.—The following order has been received, by Governor Curtin, from the Secretary of War:

To his Excellency A. G. Curtin, Governor of Pennsylvania:

Sir: Drafted men who have been mustered into the service may furnish substitutes within ten days from this time, or at any time within ten days of the time of muster, provided no additional expense shall thereby be occasioned to the Government in transportation, subsistence, or clothing.

By order of the Secretary of War:
C. P. BUCKINGHAM,
Brigadier General and A. A. G.

It is stated that $70,000,000 to $80,000,000 of counterfeit Confederate money is in circulation in the South.

A circular has been issued by the rebel government to the newspapers, forbidding the publication of the emancipation proclamation.

The gardeners at Washington have for some time been engaged in cutting down and removing from the capital garden all the althaus trees.

A Union lady at Frederick, Md., saved 90 rifles belonging to the home guard, when the rebels entered the place, by throwing them into a well.

Sabbath Order of President Lincoln.
Sunday in the American Army and Navy.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The following general order has been issued respecting the observance of the Sabbath day in the army and navy:

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, Nov. 16, 1862.

The President, commander-in-chief of the army and navy, desires and enjoins the orderly observance of the Sabbath by the officers and men in the military and naval services.

The importance for men and beast of the prescribed weekly rest, the sacred rights of Christian soldiers and sailors, a becoming deference to the best sentiment of a Christian people, and a due regard for the Divine Will, demand that Sunday labor in the army and navy be reduced to the measure of strict necessity. The discipline and character of the national forces should not suffer, nor the cause they defend be imperilled by the profanation of the day, and name of the Most High. At this time of public distress, adopting the words of Washington, in 1776, "Men may find enough to do in the service of God and their country without abandoning themselves to vice and immorality."

The first General Order issued by the Father of his Country, after the Declaration of Independence, indicates the spirit on which our institutions were founded and should ever be defended:

"The General hopes and trusts that every officer and man will endeavor to act as becomes a Christian soldier defending the dearest rights and liberties of his country."
ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

The War in Western Virginia.
We yesterday conversed with a gentleman of this city who has recently made the trip from Wheeling to Bulltown, Summersville, Guyton, and other points, with a view of finding somebody supposed to be lost and taking some "views shot." The country traversed by our informant is described as bearing evidence of a recent visit from the wreck of matter and crush of worlds.

What few natives remain in the country are in a wretchedly destitute condition. They have nothing to eat but fitch and corn pone. The corn out of which the "pone" is made is cracked between a big log and a grindstone in what the natives call a hand-mill, and the grains are broken in not more than three pieces. The whole country is infested with horse thieves, all of whom seem to be doing a good business.

It was understood among the soldiers that Gen. Cox's army, or a portion of it, was moved toward Cumberland or New River.

We have the best reasons for believing that the apprehension of a raid by Stonewall Jackson on Cumberland and New River is without real foundation. A highly intelligent gentleman, with every facility of obtaining correct information, and who made it a part of his business to do so, has just come through from Baltimore to Hancock. He has satisfied himself from evidence obtained along the route that Jackson's main army is stationed at Stephenson's depot, four miles northeast of Winchester, on the Winchester and Potomac Railroad. His men are destitute of tents, and it is believed he cannot possibly, in their present situation, even entertain such an enterprise as the movement apprehended. He certainly could not perform it unless the weather should remain remarkably mild, and would hardly risk such a contingency.—Wheeling (Va.) Intelligencer.

Members of McClellan's Staff Arrested.
TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 14.—Lieut. Col. A. V. Collins and J. C. Duane, of the engineering corps, both belonging to Gen. McClellan's staff, were sent to Washington this morning under arrest. It is said that the order was received by a United States officer in this city, and that the persons mentioned repaired at once to Washington, to place themselves at the disposal of the authorities. A rumor prevails that other members of the staff will be put under arrest. The charges are unknown.

Missouri Votes for Emancipation.
ST. LOUIS, Nov. 11.—It has been ascertained that our Legislative ticket (emancipation according to the President's proclamation) has succeeded beyond our expectations. There will be a majority of ten members in favor of emancipation on a joint ballot in our new Legislature. The people here demand immediate action in the matter, and we are all proud that Missouri is the banner State, being the first Border State in line.

Bragg is reported to have said after his retreat from Perryville, "I believe I can out-march the Federal troops, but Lord! how they do fight!"

Brooms sell in Richmond, at twenty-seven dollars and some cents per dozen.

The drafted men of this State are not to go into old regiments.

MARKETS.
From the American of Tuesday last
FLOUR.—The demand for all descriptions of Flour to-day was extremely limited and we have only to note a sale of 100 bbls. choice Howard Street Extra for retailing at $7.75 per bbl. The market closed quite dull and depressed and quotations are nominal, viz: Howard Street Super at $6.75 @ 6.87; Shipping Extra do. at 7.50; Retailing Extra do. at $7.62 @ 7.75; Family do. at $8.25 @ 8.50.

GRAIN.—The inquiry for Wheat was moderate, owing in some measure to the unsettled weather, and prices showed a decline, in both descriptions, of 8 cts. per bushel. Sales comprised some 6,000 bushels common to prime white at prices ranging from 160 to 188 cts., only a small lot bringing the latter price; 4,500 bushels common to prime Southern red at 144 @ 150 cts.; and 2,000 bushels Pennsylvania do. at 142 @ 148 cts. per bushel. White corn was steady and in fair request; yellow ruled a shade easier. Sales of 4,500 bushels common to prime old white at 70 @ 72 cts., and 1,500 bushels yellow do. at 68 @ 72 cts. per bushel. New white sold in small lots at 60 @ 65 cts., according to quality. Oats were more active, and closed firmer. Sales of 800 bushels very prime old Pennsylvania at 66 cts., weight; 1,200 bushels good do. at 64 cts., weight; and 2,000 bushels fair and good new Maryland at 60 @ 61 cts., weight.
