

VILLAGE RECORD.

WAYNESBORO, Friday, Feb. 30, 1862.

Forever that standard above! Where Freedom's soil beneath our feet...

The Small Pox.—We are pleased to inform our readers that the editor and family has recovered from this disease.

Wood.—Those persons who promised to furnish us with wood, would do well to bring it in now.

Attention.—We direct attention to the sales of Messrs. NEWCOMB and MENTZ, advertised in another part of to-day's paper.

Returned.—Capt. W. W. WALKER, of this place, who has been home on furlough for a few weeks, returned again to his regiment yesterday.

Lieut. FOND, of the Provost Battalion, died at McConalsburg, on Friday last, from the wound received three or four weeks since, near that place, while attempting to arrest a deserter named John Forney.

We are pleased to note that Congress is considering the matter of creating a law to allow the premium on gold and silver to rise only to a certain per cent., and not over this is certainly advisable, as the speculation on coin, is carried on to extremes.

Death Warrant.—We learn from the last Hagerstown Herald that the sheriff of Washington county has received from the Governor of Maryland the death warrant of FRANKLIN SMITH.

The Spook.—There has been considerable alarm in town, especially among the young folks, for some time past, in consequence of a report being in circulation, that the town is infested with what they term, a spook.

It is said that the difficulty with the Anderson Troop has been settled, and that the regiment has been released from arrest and gone on duty.

Fatal Accident.—On Friday evening last about 8 o'clock, when the train arrived at Hanover, from the Junction, a citizen of that place, Mr. STEIN, a butcher, started across the track, and in the dark, supposed himself clear of the locomotive.

Vicksburg.—The Militia says, this is going to be a hard nut to crack. The rebels know its great importance to them. It is their only means of communication between their old and trans-Mississippi domains...

LETTER FROM THE 18TH.

Cairo, Feb. 15.—Gen. Butler has received the following despatch from Colonel Lowe: Port Henry, Feb. 12.—The forces of Gen. Rosecrank's command have captured six hundred of Gen. Johnston's men.

Cairo, Feb. 17.—A skirmish took place on the 18th inst., near Bolivar, Tennessee, between a detachment of the 1st United States Cavalry and a body of rebels.

Department of the Gulf. New York, Feb. 14.—The steamer Empire City, from New Orleans on the 4th, arrived at 10 o'clock this evening.

On the 8d inst. a fishing smack, containing three Jews and a large quantity of medicines for the rebels, was seized on the lake, bound for Poncechartraine.

Army of the Potomac. Headquarters, Army of the Potomac, February 17, 1862.

Two expeditions have just returned with satisfactory results. Contraband traffic between the rebels in Maryland and Virginia, has for a long time found its way across the Potomac, near the extremity of the Peninsula.

Bounty and Pay.—If a soldier is discharged before he has served the whole two years, or to the end of the war, if sooner ended, he forfeits his $100 bounty.

The Demoralization of Hindman's Army. St. Louis, Feb. 17.—A letter from Gen. Davidson from a person who accompanied a recent scout to Batesville, Arkansas, says: Gen. Hindman's army is demoralized and totally deficient.

Exchange says.—We are sold to hope and have reason to believe that a poor fellow to do when he can no longer get any follow.

SECESSION DEMONSTRATION AT BALTIMORE.

Baltimore, Feb. 16.—Some of the Union people have placed a national flag over the Southern Methodist Church, on the corner of North and West streets.

THE TOMBS. New Leidsburg, on the Ghent, GHAN VIL E. FUNK, son of Henry M. and Emily Funk, aged 1 year, 8 months and 1 day.

These two lovely children were victims of the scarlet fever. In the short space of a month one half the lambs of this afflicted flock have been transformed to the heavenly fold.

We mingle our sympathies with the afflicted parents in this sudden bereavement of their beloved children. There is, however, much comfort for the mourning ones: for they sorrow not as those who have no hope.

On the 8d inst. a fishing smack, containing three Jews and a large quantity of medicines for the rebels, was seized on the lake, bound for Poncechartraine.

The weather was very cold. It was generally believed in New Orleans that General Butler would return to that city, if he was not made Secretary of War.

There is nothing new from Texas. The water flows through Williams' cut in front of Vicksburg, and a small steamer had passed through the canal.

Headquarters, Army of the Potomac, February 17, 1862. Two expeditions have just returned with satisfactory results.
