

And souls of the blessed Shall welcome you hom And eyes of the angels Grow bright as you come Then for life's voyage Bright hope is given ; Row thy boat lightly. Moor it in heaven.

MISCHLLANY.

Sunrige.

by beautiful the scenol Pen cannot paint tucky.) The calm, determined bearing of partner in the firm. eye that has not seen, imagine the splen-the Sergeant said plainly "no room for trilow beautiful the scenol Pen cannot paint the confidence of his employer, until, having cried "Go in, soldier, and if you need any help, we're good for two more of that sort." (Alluding to the neutral patriots from Ken-

To become a merchant was his ambition, place. Steadily and surely he advanced in hopes and prospects.

Historical Illustration-When the great French Revolution had exhausted its fury, it, had not exhausted its no schools from the buried past. led with a delicate pink, while splendid wrong, and rebuked by a man who had evi-robes, in form like heaven's own radiant dently perilled his life for his country—his faction was still a faction, and the State was The funeral knell will echo away over the a ship dismantled by storm, still tossed upon the restless waves without helm or compass. Napoleon had just returned from Egypt; he sleep on forgotten. alone could save the country from the dan-When at St Helena, Napoleon, in referour fellow-beings come forth upon the stage of action, bask for time in the sunshine of hope, endear themselves to us by affection and kindred ties, and then pass away, as passes the fleeting shadows of summer. It and when the winter came on, the gentle-man wanting a boy, a boy that he could trust for his store, decided on giving Harry the child, the ambitious youth, the man of child, the ambitious form of are over strength, or the tottering form of age, over which closes the green sod of the valley. Their newly made graves are "watered ! with passed through the various gradations of Their newly made graves are watered with clerkship, he became at length an honored the tears of grief, we ament their loss and sorrowing turn away to condole with the living. But soon the orystal fountain is drawn ask his wages. out; the gates of last drop but because he thought it might do them some from its rarity.

A boy was lately asked by the instructor of a certain school, 'who first bit the apple?' to which he reylied, 'Do not know-but guess it was our Befs, for the dats green ab. ples like sinke's that it as a his - partie

A Touch of the Sublime .- A New Zork He who serves well need not be afraid, to from the clouds when Jubiter has unbarred his bolts, so does a fat 'nighter 'ran like" the davil when pobig dog is after hing!"

n the other the sky of the most delicate eem to encircle both carth and sky; two tongue was silent! ovely stars, though rendered pale by the A hum of applause ran all through the ovely stars, though rendered pale by the ky; from yonder mead a silver mist ascends. Maker ; while the gentle robin pours forth strain so sweet, so clear, as though the peauty of the scene gladdened his little heart nd bade him sing his matin hymn in louder ones. Look where you may on natures han compared with the slightest of his Crea. now. or ? - proclaim his wisdom and portray his pow-

The art of being Polite.

First and foremost, dou't try to be polite. our guests with ostentatious entreaties to take themselves at home, they will very oon wish they were there. Let them find the only way to set them at their case. erous experiment. Better follow in its ake, and if you want to endeavor vourself osure, no matter what solecism or blunders ery foolish proceeding to lament that you unnot offer to your guests' a better house, urnituro, or viabus .--- It is fair to presume ist their visit is to you, not to the surround Give people a pleasant impression of hemselves, and they will be pretty sure to o away with a pleasant impression of your utilities. On such slender wheels as these NATION D

Wei injohn buss awhile on the filmy armain of this poor web of life, waiting, for for of this morn. On one side piles of rich fling here," and had done its work upon the rimson clouds recline upon a bed of purple; pilot, who was a large powerful man, and could have crushed the Sergeant with scarce ue that ever canopied the heavens, is sha- ly an effort. A consciousness of being in the evil: the scenes of blood which had made how, but glowing with a vivid, rosy tint, cowardry spirit quailed, and his traitorous shaken by their struggles. France was like

The soldier, by this time had approached close to the pilot and looked him full in the face, with flashing eye and with such determined manner that many of us spraug to our feet to interpose. There were two ether sick soldiers-brothers-in the car and when they saw the movement of the Sergeant-lare around, shine like diamonds in au azure car, and the sick soldier, although not able to perform duty for his country in the field, reiling, not concealing the verdant turf, as did in this instance render his country some gers which drew so near; the revolution of f earth offered her morning incense to her service in rebuking the cowardly treason the 10th, Brumaire made him Dictator. which stabs in the dark ?

Been Sleeping.

This heading has been chosen because of suggestiveness for us : its truthfulness. Now that common muslin ace, the hand of the Creator is easily des-ribed; it is seen amid the glories of the farmer is just waking up and rubbing his laws, and whether we were not criminal, but reaking morn, visible when the shades of eyes, and is able to see by his paper that flax- these are more abstractions, at best is for vening encircle the earth and sky, and seen seed is quoted at $3 25 per bushel. That is books or tribunes, and which ought to dis-mid the splendor of the storm, when the an awful price for it. So it is, and it may appear before imperative necessary; one hunder's roar proclaims his power, and the probably be higher. Why? Because of might as well blame a sailor for waste and ightning's flash, that comes, we know not the great demasd for seed to sow for a crop destruction, when he cuts away his masts to hence, lighting for a moment both earth this year. Hud farmers thought a little and avoid being apset. The fact is that if it had ind heaven, then flies we know not wither, seeded only as much ground last season as not been for us the country must have been reaks in plain language, an Almighty Ma- would have supplied themselves with seed lost, and we saved it. The author and chief ter. What are all the proudest wishes of this year, how different it would have been agents of that memorable state action may er to let bashful people alone at first. It in the country at the time, but she was not ouse. Leading the conversation is a dan. ed to bring things to a balance, we might have discovered that several years must pass before we could expect to get anything. like talkers learn to listen well. Never make a reasonable price, and then last spring we fuss about any thing; never talk about could have had our flax patch and this spring ourself, and always preserve a perfect come our linen shirts, and a feeling of independence with them. Never too late to do good, thers may commit. Remember that is a so let us sow flar. It will pay in the seed and fiber -- Chumbersburg Transcript.

Morning, farewell ! a scene like this ters must go up to the point our grandmoth- thanks to the God's." hall I forget it.

BE HUMBLE -"The dews and rich showers of His grace," says Leighton, "alide' off the mountains of pride, and fall on the low valleys of humble hearts and make then pleasant and fertile.

The only party rivalry that is tolerated at ne whole fibric of society turns. It is ne whole fibric of society turns. It is buildes, then, to there there in good orking order. are only regimental colors, but Patriotism is the great banner of the whole army.

The child has in his cradle, the peace or war of the future.

ing to these important events, used the following emphatic words, which have some

"Metaphysicians have disputed. and will and ought, instead of attempting denials or

The day is upon us when every farmer justifications, to answer their accusers proud The meanest insect and the simplest flow- must raise his own clothes as well as bread. 1y, like the Romans, we protest that we have We must advance. Our wives and daugh- sured our country; come with us and return

It Napolean and the Moderates of France. eral pieces of linen goods the thread for could thus be justified in a revolution, what which was spun and bleached by his mother, objection can be made to the exercise by and he places a value upon them not to be this Government of its legitimate authority named in figures. These goods took the in time of war? Those who accuse it of will spoil all. If you keep overwhelming highest premium many years ago, at a fair tyranny in the imprisonment of traitors, and held in this town, which will be remembered who call the President despotie, because he by some of our citizens. She made half a adapts strong measures to great ovils, are dozen or more pieses of table cloths and tow- like sick men, who quarrel with their physut that you are happy to see them by your titiends, bear in mind that she did not live of the danger and the remedy. Milk and water poultices will not save this country, the casks had been left, he found a fellow found running the streets as we see so many and it is useless to make them. The Presirying to draw them out has sometimes the do now-a-days. Had we looked this matter dent and his wise and good advisers have ontrary effect-of driving them out of the in the face, and considered the time require rather erred in being too, tender with traitors than too storn ; yet if any man who carries Jeff. Davis" portrait in his pocket, being afraid to show it, and hides the flag of treas son in his bed-chamber, acoused them of injustice in the arbitary arrest of traitors, seized in the midst of their treason, they too may quote with Nappleon the words of the Roman , respondent and sure and sure and all all all all and protest that we have saved our country ; come with us and return thunks to the algods.

Dispondency is the last of all evils field in forgetfulness are shut down, and time awaks As with others so it will be with us. A ed in to our final resting place, and as the solemn notes die away the living will turn once more to the busy scenes of life, and we

Life l'tis but's day-how quick its close, When all so surely then in death repose, The morning breaks-passing, we heed it not-The evening comes, and sleep, we on forgot.

ACTION.—The surest way, alike to con-firm and to strengthen any holy principle, is to carry it out into practice. The very ele-ment and breath of life is action. Every gift and esdowment whatsoever, whether o body or soul, whether natural or spiritual improves by exorcise, while by guilty neg-iect it is everyated, and impaired. Talonts are increased by trading; and, "to him that hath shall be given, and from him that hath not shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have." The sword undraw n rusts in the scabbard; the limb unused shrinks away; the unused fire swoulders into ashes ; standing waters stagnate, and breed corruption and malignant miasma; the languid blood of the sluggard, which no healthy impulse quickens, becomes thick and gross, croups drowsily through his veins, and carries no strong pulsation of life to the limbs and to the brain. So the idle Christian is a feeble drooping, pining Uhristian.

DYING RICH.-A story is told of a sailor on bourd of a vessel laden with Spanish dollars, which had been wrecked. The crew were taken off the wreck in boats and just as the last was pushed off, a man was sent buck to ascertain if there might be some one left. On arriving at the main deck where who had broken open several of the receptacles of the base lucre and spread the contents Being told that the ship was fast going to sioh and the second sec die along taures oron das the weat, and o If you visit a young woman, and you are borrow nor flatter.

good day's work

beas corpus.

He that has a great nose thinks everybody is speaking of it.

Select Proverbs.

If one's name be up he may lie in bed.

He who doth not rise early never does

A. t. . t .

He who promiseth runs in debt.

He is miscrable once who feels it, but twice who fears it before it comes."

He that by the plough would thrive, himself must either hold or drive.

bare. generation of the second fait.

If it were not for hope the heart would break. and the first

It is easy preaching to the fasting with a full belly.

It is good to fear the worst; the best will sayo itself.

If pride were an art, there would be many teachers. And the state of the second

" If you say what you have seen, you wil tell what will shame you.

"If you had fewer friends. and more enemies, you had been a botter man.

It's a good horse, that never stumbles. and a good wife that never grumbles.

been at two Universities?" "Well, Bir," stid the furmer, "what of that?" I had a calf that sucked two cows, and the observation I made was; the more he sucked the greater calf he grew.

TENACITY OF LIFE A few evenings since there was a learned dissortation-subject :---Bed bugs and their remarkable tenacity of that they could be boiled and then come to thereof on a table cloth on dock, in the midst Old Hanks, who had been listening as an of which he was seated, weapon in hand. - outsider here gave in his experience in corroboration of the facts." Says he : 'Some years ago Ltook a bed-bug tovan iron foundry, and dropping it into a ladke, where the melted iron was, had it run into a skillet. Well, my old woman used that skillet pretty

Among a lot of contraband poods bound South, seized at Baltimore on the 26the ult. were seven trunks, filled, with fingtooth combs ! The detention of these trunks will save an incalculable number of lives among Raddy is often postically polisess On pick-He that by the plough would thrive, him-elf must either hold er drive. It's too late to spare when the bottom is are. ricane couldn't have snatched it from ye."

An idle man once asked a coal merchant ided by four, with a ton added to fliem? and a bushel subtracted, would come to.

burn 'em they'll come to ashen" are as de't

An officer in the Maine 25th, observing a soldier belonging to a regiment encamped near by industriously soratching himself, in-'Fleas!' said he, in a tone of unutterable scorn, 'do you think I am a dogueno, We once heard a Vermonter express his opinion of a person in the following style of classics :- 'I could take,' said he, "the little Sir Wm. B., being at a parish meeting, end of nothing, whittle it down to a point, made some proposals which were objected to punch out the pith of a horse hair, and put by a farmer-"Sir, do you know that I have in it forty thousand such souls as his, shake them up, and they'd rattle ?? . 19- ... Aconte

A humorous young man was driving a horse which was in the habit of stopping at every house in the road side. Passing a country tavern where were collected together some dozen countrymen, the beast me on. The men on the porch commenced life. Some had soaked them for houts in turpentine without any fatal consequences. Old Hanks, who had been listening as an outsider here gave in his experience in corever he hears the calves bleat." The answed retired in silence ration to margination.

A CUTE WIDOW .- It is related that 's man bis death-bed called his wife to him Well, my old woman used that skillet pretty man and the data but content in who we mus constant for the last six years, and here the and said : I leave my Rorse to my parents, other day it, got broke all do smash, and sell him and have the money you get for other day it, got broke all do anash, and "self him and hand the monoy you get for what do you think, gentleman, that are in this over to them? "But high day fileres?" sect, just walked out of his, hole where he you dispose of him is you that best! The had been layin like a frog in a rock, and wife prunised to they "So as due time after made tracks for his old roost up stairs." the death of her to the served to that a who can influke coursige into the soul is it. at best physician of chart is and had to find the memories and bedutiful horse are the analyse into the soul is it. best physician of chart is and bedutiful horse are the analyse into the soul is it. best physician of chart is and bedutiful horse are the analyse into the soul is it. best physician of chart is and bedutiful horse are the analyse into the soul is it. best physician of chart is and bedutiful horse are the analyse into the soul is it. best physician of chart is and bedutiful horse are the analyse into the soul is it. best physician of chart is and bedutiful horse are the analyse into the soul is it. best physician of chart is an ore the soul is it. best physician of the soul