the 82d year of his age We cannot let the tomb close over this venerable and excellent man without recording some of the many virtues which enno-bled his character. Honest and manly, industrious and persevering in his habits, he lived to gather around him a large estate.—

He was an affectionate husband, a kind father, a good neighbor, and a faithful friend.-An upright heart, always governed by pure motives of integrity, secured the respect and confidence of all who knew him.

. His last illness was protracted, but no murmur escaped his lips, and resigned to the Divine will, he patiently waited till his charge should come. He has done with all of earth, and gone we trust, "co join the general assembly and church of the first-born whose names are written in heaven."

On the following day his funeral sermon was preached by the writer of this notice to a large concourse of persons, and his remains deposited in the Quincy church yard, there to slumber till the dawn of endloss day.

Our aged prother has left a devoted family and a wide circle of friends to mourn his loss and cherish the memory of his virtues— May they be ready to meet him in a brightor world!

For there's a better land above, Where flowers whither never, No clouds arise to hide its stars, And friends abide forever.

THE UNION WITHOUT AN 'IF' OR À

Unconditional support of every effort of the President to crush the existing atrocious rebellion is, in my humble judgment, the best stest of loyalty, and every man asking favors from the public should be required to express his views so that the people may not be deceived. I believe all the candidates who have offered themselves for the support of the Union Convention are as loyal as I am, but I feel it to be my duty to say in all things I sustain the Adminis-tration. On the platform of unconditional loyalty, I again offer myself as a candidate for the office of CLERK OF THE COURTS—subject to the decision of the approaching Convention. If nominated and elected, I will try to do my duty. If some other Candidate is nominated, however he shall have my warmest support and my most carnest efforts for his election. P. HENRY SHOUCH,
