Speaker of the House of Representatives JOHN P. PENNY
Speaker of the Senate JOHN C. BISSNA
Office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth
Harrisburg, July 1st, 1863.
PENNSYLVANIA, SS:
I do hereby certify that the foregoing and annexed is a full, true and correct copy of the original Joint Resolution of the General Assembly, entitled "A Joint Resolution proposing certain Amendments to the Constitution," as the same remains on file in this office.
In Testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the Secretary's office to be affixed, the day and year above written.
ELI BLIFFER
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
Register and Recorder.
DAVID L. GOYLE will be a candidate for Register and Recorder of Franklin County subject to the decision of the Union Nominating Convention of said County.
Mercesburg, July 23d, '63-tc
THE UNION WITHOUT AN 'IF' OR A 'BUT'.
UNCONDITIONAL support of every effort of the President to crush the existing atrocious rebellion, is in my humble judgment, the best test of loyalty, and every man asking favors from the public should be desired to express his views so that the people may not be deceived. I believe that all the candidates who have offered themselves for the support of the Union Convention are as loyal as I am, but I feel it my duty to say in all things I sustain the Administration. On the platform of unconditional loyalty, I again offer myself as a candidate for the office of CLERK OF THE COURTS—subject to the decision of the approaching convention. If nominated and elected, I will try to do my duty. If some other candidate is nominated, however he shall have my warmest support and my most earnest efforts for his election.
