

VILLAGE RECORD. WAYNESBORO. Friday, Sept. 25 1863.

Forever float that standard sheet! Where Freedom's flag has fallen before us, With Freedom's flag will rise again, And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

I am amazed that any one could think of "peace on any terms." He who entertains the sentiment is fit only to be a slave; he who utters it at this time is, moreover, a TRAITOR to his country, who deserves the scorn and contempt of all honorable men.

WOOD.—We would be under many obligations to some of our patrons if arrests for a few cords of wood. Our "pile" is just about exhausted, which renders our situation anything but agreeable these frosty mornings.

Drugs, etc.—We invite attention to the advertisement of Mr. J. F. Kurtz, druggist, in another column.

Democratic Meeting.—A Democratic meeting is advertised to be held in this place this evening. Several speakers will be in attendance.

Not Removed Yet.—The Stone piles on Main street. It is to be presumed therefore that nobody will be accountable for accidents that may occur in consequence of these obstructions.

Apology.—The reader will please excuse the appearance of to-day's paper. One of our hands left us last week, after serving an apprenticeship of one year, and has turned up one of the publishers of the Mercersburg Journal. Our force thus weakened, with a pressure of job work, has prevented us from giving our usual amount of reading matter.

Religious Notice.—The third quarterly meeting, for Waynesboro' Station, will be held in the Methodist E. Church, in this place, next Sabbath, the 27th inst. Rev. William Harden, P. Elder, will preach morning and evening.

Farms for Sale.—DANIEL MYERS of Quincy township, and JOSHUA D. BURGER of this vicinity, each offer for sale in to-day's paper a well improved farm. See advertisements.

Public Schools.—We believe the Public Schools of our Borough were opened on Monday last. As it is not customary to advertise in the "Record" we make this announcement gratuitously.

Pocket Books Lost.—A Pocket Book containing about $24 and some papers was lost in this place on the 20th inst. Upon delivery to Mrs. Lydia Price, the finder will be liberally rewarded. On Monday evening last L. M. Leisinger also lost his Pocket Book between Hopewell and Waynesboro', containing $14.80, for which he offers to reward the finder liberally.

The Storm.—The storm of Thursday night and Friday of last week caused an almost unprecedented rise of the water in different sections of the country. Bridges, fences, lumber, etc., in immense quantities are said to have been swept away. The streams in this section were swollen to an unusual height and we learn considerable damage was sustained by parties living in their vicinity.

Going Down.—Gold is still going down, and the "greenbacks" going up to and beyond par value. This must make the "copperheads" feel mean and contemptible, in predicting them to become as depressing and worthless as the Continental money.

The Government can do nothing which the Copperheads will not denounce. Their papers from the largest to the smallest, are frantic at the suspension of the Habeas Corpus. We do not suppose that traitors will be pleased at any act which defeats their plans. So, let them howl!

It would seem that Vallandigham is no great favorite with the soldiers. One of the Ohio artillery corps, now with Rosecrans' army, lately took a vote, when, through a union, had 145 votes for Governor, and Vallandigham, copperhead, only 1.

The Hon. Richard Broadhead, formerly U. S. Senator from Pennsylvania, died at his residence in Easton, on Thursday last.

The Election.—The election for Governor, Judge of the Supreme Court and County officers is near at hand, the date being Tuesday the 18th day of October. From present indications the campaign in this county promises to be a spirited one. Meetings are advertised by both parties to be held throughout the county, and more than ordinary interest is manifested for the success of the rival candidates. The result of the issue is certainly one of momentous importance and should engage citizens generally (not conscientiously opposed to exercising the right) to turn out and cast their ballots. At this critical period in the history of our country it should certainly be the duty of every patriotic citizen to aid in placing the safest man in positions of trust and responsibility. The choice for Governor is between Andrew G. CURTIN and GEORGE W. WOODWARD. Ample opportunity has been afforded citizens to examine the record of these distinguished individuals and decide as to which should claim their support at the ballot box.

Union Meeting.—A Union meeting was held in this place on Tuesday evening last. The meeting was ably addressed by John Stewart, Esq., of Chambersburg, a Mr. Jay, of New Jersey, and Christian Eyster, Esq., of the former place. The Chambersburg Band was present and contributed largely to the interest of the occasion. They discoursed a number of popular tunes, in a manner highly creditable to them as musicians, and which proved quite a treat to our citizens. An effort was made by a few drunken soldiers and "copperheads" to get up a noise and confusion during the meeting and thus annoy the speakers, and they were partially successful we presume, notwithstanding the gentlemen had a respectful hearing by the large audience of Union men present.

The Hostile Indians.—Brig. Gen. Sibley, in a despatch to Gen. Halleck, through Gen. Pope, under date of Sept. 4, says that on the 28th he surprised over 400 lodges of hostile Indians, fought and dispersed them—killing over 100, destroying all their camp and other property, and taking many prisoners. Gen. Sibley has received a letter from a Catholic clergyman at Pembina, stating that he has been waited upon by seven Sioux chiefs who wished him to inform Gen. Sibley that the Indians desired to make peace with the whites, and, as a condition, were willing to deliver up every Indian who has been engaged in the massacres. Father Andre says the Indians are in an extremely destitute condition, and many of them must starve the ensuing winter.

An Afflicted Family.—The Middletown (Md.) Register says:—Under our obituary head this morning will be found a notice of the death of Mr. Jacob B. Abalt, a respectable farmer of this vicinity. His is the seventh death that has occurred in the same family since the 11th of March last—a space of only six months. Six of his children, their ages ranging from eight to twenty-seven years, died between the 11th of March and 29th of June, last. It is very rare, indeed, that a single family suffers such a heavy mortality in so short a space of time.

A Sad Affair.—On the evening of the 6th inst., a sad accident resulted at Portland Mills on the Clarion river, seven miles below Ridgway. A. B. McClain, Esq., the Marshal for Elk county, while attempting to arrest a man named Daniel Smith, a deserter, and during a scuffle with him, his revolver was knocked from his hand and accidentally exploded, the ball entering the left side of the neck of Mrs. Smith, causing her death almost instantly.

Caution.—Drafted men who may claim exemption from military service on the ground of being the only support of aged parents, should not present their claims unless they can give proper evidence that their statements are correct. A conscript was arrested at Pittsburg, and held in $1,500 bail to answer a charge of perjury in swearing that he was "the only support of aged and infirm parents dependent on his labor for support."

General John A. McGibbon thus writes to a meeting in Illinois: "A mission is confided to us to keep alive the fire upon the altar of liberty at whatever personal cost this must be done. If armed rebels stand in the way, remove them, if need be, by arms; if moral rebels stand in the way, crush them by the weight of an indignant public opinion; if party creeds stand in the way, hasten to wipe them out of it."

New Postal Currency.—The new postal currency will soon be issued from the Treasury at Washington. The new issues will be of the same denomination as the present, but of one color and of uniform size; the paper will be thinner and stronger, and bear washing like cloth.

The Hon. Richard Broadhead, formerly U. S. Senator from Pennsylvania, died at his residence in Easton, on Thursday last.

The German Reformed Messengers to the Rebellion.—The German Reformed Messengers, an organ of the German Reformed denomination, in an article on the Rebellion says: "For almost among abounding iniquity, must we place the rebellion itself. This is the great iniquity of the times in this country because it is a deliberate attempt to set aside the divine authority of the civil government, and thus it is a rebellion against God as well as against the Government. With the masses of the South it is doubtless, to a large extent, the result of ignorance and excitement, but with the leaders it has been a crime of cool calculation. The immense suffering which they have brought upon themselves, as well as upon the whole land, has shown that the authority of civil government is not a thing to be resisted without incurring the penalties pronounced against all such offenders in God's word. They that resist shall receive to themselves damnation." Let churches take warning. The war, on the part of the Government, is a necessity.—We must maintain the laws, even with life and treasure."

Important to Drafted Men.—The following important opinion of Judge Holt has been issued by the Provost Marshal General: "Under the thirteenth section of the enrollment act, it is clear that a party drafted and wishing to furnish a substitute or pay the commutation, must do so on or before the day fixed for his appearance. The privileges expire with that day. If he fails to report himself and is arrested as a deserter, he has still the right to go before the board of enrollment and prove that he is not liable to do military duty; but, on hearing his claim to exemption, he is to be held liable, he cannot escape personal service. He is also, under such circumstances, subject to be proceeded against as a deserter."

MEMOIRS FROM GETTYSBURG.—On Wednesday some of the sad relics of the Gettysburg field were exhibited at the rooms of the Christian Commission, Philadelphia. The Ledger says: "The sight of one box was particularly affecting, as the contents were bundle by bundle, taken out and spread upon the counter. The bundles were the last tokens of dying soldiers, committed into the faithful trust of delegates of the Christian Commission; to be sent to mourners at home. Bibles, hymn books, pocket books, watches, lockets, memorandum books, with other touching tokens, moulded, compressed, and disfigured, formed the precious contents of this box. Many dollars of our own and Confederate money were enclosed in the parcels. Nearly half of the bundles were from North Carolina soldiers, and the remainder from our own men, who assorted these relics and assigned them to the trust worthy Christian man, sacredly commissioned to see to their safe delivery."

The Storm and Freshets.—New York, Sept. 19.—The gale held up a little last night, after dark, but to-day it is renewed, in part, with rain. The freshets in the interior have done much damage to the railroads and canals. The mail and express trains last night were all detained two and a half hours by a flood eight miles above Schenectady. The steamboat Isaac Newton, from Albany, had three trains of passengers down on Friday night. In the Pennsylvania canal region the flood has been very heavy. The Delaware Division Canal has suffered severely. A number of bridges in the vicinity of Munch Chunk were carried away, and the loss will be large.

The Ramored Evacuation of Richmond.—New York, Sept. 20.—Special despatches from Washington state that the reported evacuation of Richmond may probably be accounted for by the rebels withdrawing their slaves from the line of the Tennessee Railroad, and scattering them south, to go through North Carolina, towards Atlanta. This is caused by the capture of East Tennessee by Gen. Burnside.

Advices from the Army of the Potomac state that the rebels appear to be in increased force along the Rapidan as though determined to resist the crossing of our forces, but showing no disposition to cross themselves.

From Charleston.—New York, Sept. 22.—The steamship Mississippi reports passing Charleston at 3 o'clock on Sunday morning, and heard heavy firing.

The steamer Fulton reports that the work of mounting heavy guns on Battery Gregg is very slow, in consequence of the annoyances received from the rebel Battery Bee and Fort Moultrie, by shot and shell fired at intervals of about twenty minutes.

The Rebel news from Charleston is important, as it shows that the citizens are leaving that place en masse, taking with them everything of value. One of the English Blandly guns, said to carry a shot of over five hundred pounds in weight, and placed in position at Charleston, has been bursted in the act of firing.

A MAN OF REGULAR HABITS.—Mr. William Lawrence, of Falmouth, Mass., who has reached the advanced age of eighty-six years, owns a meadow lot in that place which he has mowed regularly for seventy successive years, facing his dinner, farmer-like, in the field. He might pass now, soya in hand, for "Old Time" himself.—New Bedford Advertiser.

REMEMBER MARKETS.—Tomatoes are selling in Richmond at fifty cents a quart; Irish potatoes and peas at the same price; sweet potatoes at one dollar a quart and corn at $1.50 a dozen. In meats the same exorbitant rates prevail. Cuts of mutton are selling at $2.50 a pound, joints at $2.25 a salt shad at $2.75 each and herring $5 a dozen. Butter is $1 a pound, and eggs $2 a dozen.

BATTLE NEAR CHATTANOOGA.

Our Troops are Driven, but Regain their Ground.—The Army Captured from the Enemy and Seven Lost.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 21.—A special despatch to the Commercial gives the following account of the fight on Saturday: "The battle opened at eleven o'clock, in the vicinity of Widow Glenns, on the road leading from McLamore's Cave to Chattanooga, and soon became general, the enemy maneuvering troops freely."

Early in the action the rebels made an impetuous charge on the famous Lookout battery. Five out of six guns were captured; Captain Vanpelz commanding the battery, was taken prisoner.

At two o'clock the contest was terrific. The roll of musketry was far more continuous and deafening than at the battle of Stone river.

At 2.40 P. M. the division is the center being pushed and broken, retreated in disorder.

Colonel Barnett planted his battery, and soon checked the pursuing enemy, who in turn were driven in disorder over the same ground.

General Davis' division was driven back with heavy loss, and every gun of the Eighth Indiana battery captured, when his forces rallied, pushed the enemy back, and took their guns.

Reynolds lost heavily, but stubbornly held his ground, driving the enemy, but never leaving his lines.

Palmer also was overwhelmed and failed to get off his whole battery and two guns were lost.

Van Cleve, after fighting gallantly, lost his ground and overpowered, failed to regain his position.

Our line, pressed severely, wavered, and the rebels, exulting over their apparent success, made the air resound with cheers.

They advanced along the whole line, and when within our fire, the musketry rolled from right to left, and until 5 o'clock the fighting was terrific.

The General grew anxious. The wounded poured in and the rebels moved steadily up to their headquarters.

New forces were opposed to them, and from this time till dark the battle raged with destructive fury.

At dusk, the firing having almost ceased, the enemy threw forward fresh troops and again engaged our line.

The action became general, and until long after dark raged with fury.

The battle thus far has been a bloody one. Our loss is very heavy, and the prisoners say some of their regiments were almost annihilated.

Both armies occupy the same ground as when the action began.
