

VILLAGE RECORD

WATNEBORO

Friday, Oct. 14, 1864

Fourteen of the 'Foster' (about) whose keel has fallen before us, and whose engine is now lying on the beach, will be under many obligations to some of our patrons in arrears for anything but a grain of rice.

Farms for Sale—We direct attention to the advertisement of Rev. H. C. Lesh and Jacob Wagaman, in to-day's paper.

Action of Fruit Trees—We invite attention to the advertisement of T. E. Cook & Co., in to-day's paper.

Rev. Dr. Doan's, Pastor of the Lutheran congregation of this place, has been lying seriously ill for several weeks, from the effects of a tubercle. His sufferings are said to be of the most extreme kind.

The Official Vote of Pennsylvania—According to the official vote for the State, received in the office of the Secretary of Commonwealth, Andrew G. Curtin has 15,325 majority. Daniel Agnew has 12,308 majority.

Killing Sheep—We understand Dr. B. Franz, of this vicinity, had twenty sheep killed by dogs, one night last week, on his farm near Hopewell. Owners of Sheep, in that region, should have an eye on their flocks.

Bank Notice—Mr. J. F. Kurtz has been commissioned a Notary Public for this place, and has entered upon his duties, before whom all the Shareholders of the "First National Bank of Waynesboro" are to appear, sign and acknowledge the necessary papers for its organization, on or before Thursday the 5th day of November next, in order that an election for nine Directors may be lawfully held on Saturday the 17th day of November, which day has been appointed for that purpose. It is all important therefore that all the Shareholders of said Bank sign said papers on or before the day appointed for the election.

In Town—Maj. Morrow, of "Trasense", notoriety, paid our town a flying visit on Monday evening last, and whilst here, we learn, was very abusive of some of our loyal citizens. It appears that the Maj. is very much incensed at a number of individuals, who he alleges signed a petition to Gen. Couch for his removal from the service. We believe such a petition was gotten up, and that the circumstances warranted it, but are not aware who the signers were. There is one thing that we do know, however, that the conduct of his men on the occasion of the Union meeting in this place was highly creditable to him as an officer, and the only excuse that can be offered in his behalf, on that occasion, is, that he was slightly "incubated" himself, that the soldiers took advantage of his situation, and hence the disorder. We are sorry that the Maj. gives no signs of reformation in this respect, for during his last visit, he carried a fair-sized "brick" in his hat. Apart from his "incubating" propensity, the Maj. is a clever fellow, and we think, under the circumstances, he has no just cause to complain of our citizens, much less to blackguard them.

Corn—Corners have always been popular—they are a great institution. The chimney corner, for instance, is held dear to the heart of all who have experienced its winter-gold of pleasures, from the earliest of the latest hours of existence. The corner cupboard! Oh! who would not feast again, as in youth, upon its store of goodies—how its shelves are graced with luxuries. But its glory has departed. The pantry and "cupboard" has robbed it of its identity, and it contributes no more to the desires of the appetite. A snug corner in a will. Who objects to such a thing? A corner is a woman's heart. Once get there and you will command the whole domain, if you are at all worthy, and respectable. A corner in the Temple of Fame! That's a corner which is worthy occupying, and which perchance may make you immortal. The corner-lots are always best. In fact the possession of a corner of anything, if retained with tenacity, is about equal to the possession of half of the globe. There are never any corners around a street corner yet become a "corner" and a subject for a corner's obituary.

Obituary—The obituary papers expect soon a reversal of operations from the besieging forces being sent to the relief of the city. It is said that the rebels are perfectly, and willers to lay down their arms. A boat recently captured by the Rebels was taken on board the Government's gunboat, and the crew was taken to the Government's camp. The same boat was taken on board the Government's gunboat, and the crew was taken to the Government's camp.

Gov. Curtin's majority is 15,325.
Agnew's majority over Howard for Senate is 12,308.
The Union majority in the Senate is one, and in the House four.

Removal of Gen. Rosecrans—A Washington dispatch states that Gen. Rosecrans has been removed from the command of the Army of the Cumberland at his own request, on account of ill health, and that he is to be succeeded by Gen. Grant.

Voluntary Exile—Since the election in Ohio, it is presumed that Clement L. Vallandigham will not object to submit to the banishment that he was condemned to, to save him from the just and more terrible punishment due to treason. His exile, heretofore compulsory, will now be voluntary. The people of Ohio, who he hoped, would reverse the decision of the court martial and the President, have pronounced against him with such an overwhelming voice, that a return to them would be very painful and embarrassing to him. He will probably prefer to remain in Canada, or voluntarily return to his friends in the Rebel States.

An Emancipation Convention—The Missouri Democrat publishes a call, signed by a number of the leading emancipationists of that State, and addressed "To the Friends of Freedom in the Slaveholding States," proposing a convention to meet at Louisville, Ky., on the 8th of January, 1864. The call is based upon the "truthful" assumption that there can be no permanent peace or security to this country, so long as the institution upon which the rebellion is predicated, and from which it derives support, maintains its existence, and corrupting power in the Government.

Contract for Removing the Dead—We understand that the contract for disintering the bodies on the Gettysburg battle field and at the Hospital, and again interring them in the Soldiers' National Cemetery, has been awarded to JOHN HOKES and FRANKLIN BRECKENRIDGE, at the dollar and fifty-nine cents per body. The work is to be commenced immediately, the Cemetery grounds having been appropriately laid out for the purpose.

The Rebel Papers expect soon a reversal of operations from the besieging forces being sent to the relief of the city. It is said that the rebels are perfectly, and willers to lay down their arms. A boat recently captured by the Rebels was taken on board the Government's gunboat, and the crew was taken to the Government's camp.

Execution of Dr. Wright—FRANKLIN MONROE, Oct. 23.—The body of an unknown man, apparently about thirty years of age, washed ashore on Old Point beach this morning. He has evidently been in the water six or eight days. The United States steamer Massachusetts arrived last evening from the fleet off Charleston, but brings no additional news. The execution of Dr. A. W. Wright, of Norfolk, took place at ten o'clock this A. M., on the fair ground, about one mile from the city.

St. Louis, Oct. 23.—One of the heaviest storms ever witnessed in St. Louis, began yesterday, ending with a clearing and a freezing night. The mercury stood at 24.9 nine o'clock this morning, being below the freezing point all day. The storm extended over a large portion of Missouri and Illinois, with six inches of snow.

San Francisco, Oct. 23.—The largest fire for many years occurred this morning. Only two small buildings are left standing in the block bounded by Davis, Sacramento, Demore, and California streets. The buildings were old frames of one and two stories, very combustible, and occupied as cheap lodging houses, drinking saloons, groceries, and small shops. The loss is about $250,000, without much insurance.

Execution of a Knight of the Golden Circle—SANDERS, Oct. 23.—Rouben, St. Louis, private in Company K, 69th Indiana, was executed to-day at the depot of prisoners of war, on Johnson's Island, for desertion and murder. He made a statement this morning that he was led to desert by the Knights of the Golden Circle, one of whom he became while a paroled prisoner.

St. Louis, Oct. 24.—It is reported that a private despatch received in this city to-day, states that General Burnside's cavalry have made a successful strike into Virginia, Lynchburg, capturing several thousand prisoners, and inflicting serious damage to the rebel lines of communication.

THE WAR IN THE SOUTHWEST

General Grant at Chattanooga—Chattanooga, Oct. 23.—General Grant arrived here yesterday, and reported that the Rebels were withdrawing. His reports are moving in large bodies to our left to-day, but their object is unknown. Rumors are afloat that Rome and Atlanta have been attacked in the year by our forces.

General Logan's Command—General Logan's command, with his command from Vicksburg, into the interior of Mississippi a week ago. He will soon be heard from to-day.

Cincinnati, Oct. 27.—A Louisville, dispatch of the 25th, to the Gazette, says the engagement of yesterday was a hot hand-to-hand affair for over four hours. The rebel force was estimated at 5,000, and they lost, in killed, wounded, and prisoners, over 300.

Col. Wolford's Regiment—Col. Wolford's regiment, and some of his men, but lost his battery. Our loss was nearly 300. Gen. Sanders advanced yesterday, and drove the rebels below Philadelphia.

Colonel Crawford's Return—Colonel Crawford has returned from his expedition to distribute arms through Virginia and North Carolina, and receive reports. He was successful in both, the people rising everywhere.

Messrs. Maynard and Brown spoke to twenty thousand people, and their ultra radicalism was received with enthusiasm.

A Recent Virginia Campaign—A correspondent of the Richmond Enquirer writing from Bristol, Station, October 15, says: "The Rebels have been very successful in their operations."

It is certainly true that Meade has managed his retreat most orderly, and that he has saved his stores, and lost but few men. Though I think it equally true that the Yankee army is considerably increased. And it is a fact that Birney did not sleep a wink Tuesday night, while camped at Greenwich, in Prince William county, but pitched the floor of the house in which his headquarters were almost incessantly, repeatedly consulting his watch and sending couriers to the pickets to know if they saw any Rebels.

There has been heavy firing all day to-day, and even into night, some distance below; but at this writing I have not learned the nature of it, though it is supposed to be an engagement between some portions of our cavalry and the enemy.

Our boys have been very disappointed in their expectations of captures, and from more than one of them you can hear such an expression as this: "We would have gotten everything we wanted. Alas! we have no Jackson now. Our boys, however, make the Yankees whom they capture pull out their shoes, which they at once convert to their own use."
