The Draft .- Now that it is understood the Government hounty to veterin and raw recruite will be extended for several weeks, the President having recommended it, our citizens should bestir themselves. Ample time will thus be afforded to fill the quotas. of both town and township, if proper means and efforts are at once employed. More than two-thirds of the citizens have demanded of the Council, by petition, that an appropriation of $50 for each recruit be made, to fill the quota of the Borough. We understand the Council have passed a resolution making the appropriation, but are not willing that any money shall be paid out until the quota is filled, entire. Persons are not willing to risk the labor of recruiting with day of February. The stands is of non-effect. There can be no unfairness in the appropriation if the quota. should not be more than half filled. There would be that number less to draft, and the chances equal among all liable to be drafted. If the Council are really in favor of the appropriation why not put the matter in such hape that something may be done?

Death of young Waddles .- We are permitted to insert the following lines from D. S. Clarke, Assistant Surgeon, 25th Ill. Vols. to Mr. Geo. Waddles, of this vicinity, dated Rockford, Ill., Dec. 21st, 18634-

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

Proposed Amendments of the Enrolment Act. The Washington correspondent of the New York Post gives the annexed summary of the different amendments of the conscription law now under consideration:

The most radical amendment comes from strike out the commutation clause altogeth-er. Mr. Hendricks, of Indiana, proposes two amendments, one dividing persons liable to draft into two classes—the unmarried and the married-and the other providing that in all married men may pay the sum of $300 to at 730 the enemy had retreated in disorder. case the commutation clause is struck out, the Sccretary of War, for which sum they shall be exempt from service for the term of yearly income is less than $400 per year, and if his unincumbered property be less than $700; he shall be permitted to commute for the sum $150.

Senator Howe brings forward a nevel proposition, which is, that in any given disy divided among those persons who are Her officers and men stood to the guns until drafted and enter the service, the money to the enemy had retreated. She has twelve be paid in three installments, at the end of shots in her hull, one between wind and waeach year's service.

Senator Wilson has offered an amend-States who choose to volunteer into the service may do so, being entitled to all the benefits and privilages of existing laws, selecting what regiments they will join.

It is probable that the commutation feature of the existing law will be retained in some shape. If it should be rejected, then it is possible that one of Mr. Hendrick's amendments would receive considerationthat permitting married men to pay $300 or $500, receiving therefor a certificate of exemption for three years. If the commutaviding that any drafted person may colored man as a substitute:

The Right Spirit in Kentucky. Licutenant Governor Jacobs, in his address to the Legislature of Kentucky, uses the following noble and spirited language: "Loyalty to the Union, as in the past, is the only safety to ourselves, our property, A quorum of both houses will be here by and all the dear and sacred rights that we nion, and under the flag of Washington, with the millions of strong hearts and strong arms that we possess in the loyal North: Throw away these resources as the South madly did, we would be crushed as she will be, and as we would deserve to be, for being recreant to the great rights bequeathed to us by our fathers. No, no! Come what may, come what will, let Kentucky be true. It is not only the path of honor, but the path of safety; any other is the path of destruction.

She is not fighting for the preservation of Slavery, nor is she fighting for its destruction. Incidentally, if it goes down in maintaining the Union, well and good; incidentally, if it is saved in preserving the Union, well and good. What is slavery? What is any species of property to her in comparison with the blood of her heroic children? Yet she has freely offered up their lives without a murmur She will do so still | All she asks, let these cuormous sacrifices be not in defiance of the Constitution, but incidentally for a prosecution of a war for maintenance of the Union and the Constitution; and when these blessings are secured, the war should and ought to cease.
