Lost.—A lady lost in this place, on Monday evening last, a morocco pocket-book containing about $1. The finder will be rewarded by leaving it at this office.

More Sales.—A number of sales of personal property appear in this issue of our paper, to which we call special attention.

On Hand.—A prime article of white hominy—also Timothy seed—at the flour and feed store of WALTER & ELDEN.

At Home.—Capt. J. B. KURTZ, of Co. G, 17th Reg. P. C. arrived in this place on Tuesday evening, on a short furlough. The Captain is in the enjoyment of his usual good health and in fine spirits.

Crowded.—Our kind patrons will please excuse the crowded state of our advertising columns. We are now in the midst of the "printer's harvest," which will be of short duration, when we will endeavor to make amendments for past delinquencies.

Important Notice.—Persons who have subscribed to the Township fund to fill its quota with volunteers are requested to make immediate payment to FREDERICK A. TRITZEL, at the store of Messrs. Amberson, Benefield & Co.

Quota Filling Up.—The Borough quota has at last been filled, and we learn the work is progressing rapidly in the Township, enough money having been subscribed to give each volunteer a private bounty of $100.—The part taken by many of our farmers in this matter is highly creditable to them.

CAMP MITCHELL, January 29, 1864.

A young man of respectability, at present in the employ of Uncle Sam, is desirous of opening a correspondence with some lovely young ladies, with a view to fun and moral improvement. He is between the age of 19 and 20, accomplished in every respect and considered by ladies remarkably good looking. Address

JOHN H. ERLY, Co. K, 107th Reg. P. V., Washington, D. C.

With the above modest card was enclosed a one dollar "greenback." No doubt some of the "lovely" young lady readers of the Record will respond.

American Exchange and Review.—We have received the January number of this excellent publication on Finance, Insurance, &c. It also contains an article entitled, "The Field of Gettysburg after the battle," which is highly interesting. The Review is edited by J. A. Fowler and published by Whitney & Co., No. 521 Chestnut St. Phila.—Terms per annum in advance, $3.

Conference.—The Maryland Conference of the United Brethren in Christ, will assemble this year in Boonsboro, Washington county, commencing on Friday, the 19th instant.

The office of the Northumberland county Democrat, a Copperhead paper, was thrown into pie, by returning soldiers, the other day, on account of its lying abuse of the government.

CONCORD, N. H., Feb. 1.—Governor Gilmore has issued a proclamation calling for volunteers to fill the additional quota under the last call of the President. New Hampshire has filled her quota on the previous call for 300,000 men.

500,000 Men Called For.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, Feb. 1st, 1864.
ORDERED.—That a draft for Five Hundred Thousand Men, to serve for three years or during the war, be made on the tenth day of March next, for military service of the United States, credited and deducted therefrom so many as may have been enlisted or drafted into the service prior to the 1st day of March, and not heretofore credited.

(Signed) ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—It will be recollected that in October a call for 300,000 men was made. This number has been a about half filled by volunteering and re-enlistments. The call now made for 500,000 men is interpreted by gentlemen acquainted with military affairs to include the 300,000 being in effect an additional call for 200,000 men.

The volunteering is supposed to be at present an average of 2,000 men a day. The order of the President makes a credit or deduction of so many as may have been enlisted or drafted prior to the 1st of March, at which time the $400 premium expires.—These arrangements completed, the total in the army will be half a million of men.

The following extract is taken from Gen. Jackson's Proclamation, which he issued while President, to the South Carolina Nullifiers in 1832:—

"I adjure you as you love the cause of freedom, as you prize the peace of your country, the lives of its best citizens, and your own fair fame to retrace your steps—Snatch from the archives of your State the disorganizing edict of its Convention. Tell its members that compared with Disunion, all other evils are light, because that brings with it an accumulation of all. Declare that you will never take the field, unless the Star Spangled Banner of your country shall float over you; that you will not be stigmatized when dead, and dishonored and scorned while you live, as the authors of the first attack on the Constitution of our country; its destroyers you cannot be. You may disturb its peace; you may interrupt the course of its prosperity; you may cloud its reputation for stability. But its tranquility will be restored; its prosperity will return, and the stain upon its national character will be transferred, and remain, an eternal blot, on the memory of those who caused the disorder."

There are quite a number of Copperheads who pretend to worship Andrew Jackson, who should carefully read the above which would induce them perhaps to become better and more loyal. The stain of the present attempt to destroy the Union will remain, "an eternal blot," upon the memories of all those who caused the disorder, or resisted the measures taken to check it.

Maryland to be a Free State.—The Legislature of Maryland on Friday took the first decided action towards the speedy emancipation of Slavery in the good old Commonwealth, and her halls of legislation rung with the advancing step of freedom. The bills for submitting to the people the call of a Convention to remodel the organic law of the State passed both the Senate and the House—the vote in the former being ayes 13, nays 2, and in the latter ayes 45, nays 17. The two bills thus passed do not materially differ from each other, and in all probability the Senate bill will be adopted by the House, with, perhaps, some not very important amendments. The Baltimore American congratulates the people of Maryland on this happy step forward in the great struggle for Universal freedom.

As Lincoln is now (and indeed has been all his life) hostile to the Union and the Constitution, and is using his best efforts to smash our country into pieces, he is the very man traitors and disunionists ought to go for.—Spirit & Times.

Old Abe has a sorry time of it—traitors in front and "copperheads" in the rear. The Spirit might be excused for such declarations in ordinary times but not under circumstances like the present. There is one thing about this comforting paragraph—to the rebels—from which we quote the above that we admire, and that is the editor's candor. In this particular his opinion is identical with those expressed by all the Rebel Journals.—We are glad that the quota of our Borough is full or about being filled; as the enlistment of volunteers into the Federal army is likely to be seriously impeded.

"Preserve the Tory Papers."—A paragraph under this head has been extensively circulated. It calls upon every one to label and lay by, for after reference, copies of the papers in the Free States which have been most notorious in helping the Rebellion by obstructing and denouncing and believing the Government. To this has been added another hint: Write down in black and white, what the Copperhead speakers have said, so that they cannot deny it. Many of them will hereafter claim to have been friends of the Government and of the War in this crisis. Just jot down, while fresh in memory, the very words they used and keep the paper among your choice documents.

The Hon. Jno. P. Penny, Speaker of the State Senate, has issued his writ for the election of a Senator in the place of Harry White, resigned. The last effort to secure his release from Richmond having failed, his father, in whose possession the resignation was, has handed it over, and in a very short time the Senate will be in a condition to transact business.

Gen. Kilpatrick is now 'alone' in the world. His father, mother, brothers, sisters and wife are dead, and his only child died at West Point, New York, on Wednesday last.

Good News Confirmed.

WASHINGTON, January 30.—The following dispatches were received at headquarters of the army to-day:—
Headq'rs Military Div'n of the Miss., Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 29.
Major General J. G. Foster telegraphed from Knoxville, Tenn., under date of 9 A. M., January 28, as follows:—
"I have the honor to report that the cavalry under General Sturgis achieved a decided victory over the enemy's cavalry yesterday, near Fair Gardens, about ten miles east of Sevierville.
"McCook's Division drove the enemy back about two miles, after a stubborn fight, from daylight to four o'clock P. M., at which time the division charged with the sabre and yell, and routed the enemy from the field capturing two steel rifled guns and over 100 prisoners. The enemy's loss was considerable, sixty-five of them being killed or wounded in the charge.
"Garrard and Wolford's divisions came up after a forced march in time to be pushed in pursuit and although their horses were jaded, General Sturgis hoped to be able to make the rout complete."
JOHN A. RAWLINS, Brig. General, Chief of Staff.

The Federal Raid on Brandon, Va.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 1.—The Petersburg Register, gives the following account of the destruction, by Yankee marauders, of the above-named place on James river:—
"What we published in our last paper as rumor about the iron-clad 'raid' on Lower Brandon has turned out, for we are sorry to say, to be sad reality. In fact, for this time, Reality has put Rumor far in the background. There is no doubt that all the buildings, kitchens, negro houses, etc., save the mansion, have been burned; that all the slaves but one, who secreted herself, have been carried off; that a thousand barrels of corn, all the long forage, together with a large quantity of meat, have been destroyed; and that all the mules have been carried off. In one word, we may say that this old estate has been deprived of all but a house rendered valueless to its owner, and the ancestral acres on which it has long stood, and in which true refined Virginia hospitality was for so long, without stint, dispensed to all who were worthy of it. It is estimated, by competent judges, that the loss sustained by the raid on Brandon will not fall short of $250,000 or $300,000. It is reported that Dr. Ritchie, the brother of Mrs. Harrison, the proprietress of the estate, was carried off by the brigands."

THE WAR IN WEST VIRGINIA.

Burlington and Moorfield Recaptured.
NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—A special despatch to the Herald, dated Headquarters, Department of West Virginia, Feb. 2d, 8 P. M., states that Colonel Mulligan, this morning, drove the rebels from and recaptured Burlington and Moorfield. At noon five hundred of Rossers' cavalry attempted to burn the North Branch and Patterson Creek bridges and to cut the telegraph. They were driven off without doing any serious damage, the fires put out, and the rebels pursued by Pennsylvania cavalry. The wires are being replaced, and a bridge-repairing train goes out to-morrow morning. We lost a few killed and wounded, and took some prisoners.

Another Rebel Raid on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 2.—Information received from the Upper Potomac to-night indicates that the rebels are making great efforts to destroy the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. The telegraph lines were cut about noon to-day, east of Cumberland, and the bridges at North Branch and Patterson's creek, were burned. Some fighting took place at the latter point. It was feared that an attack would be made on Martinsburg. A rebel force, about 500 strong, under General Rosser, made the attack on Patterson's creek and North Branch. After burning the bridge, they moved towards New Creek. Nothing further is known.

The President's call, for two hundred thousand more men, fixes the date for the 10th of March, so that thirty-six days remain for earnest work to raise this force by volunteering. It is beyond all doubt the determination of the Government that the coming draft shall be positively and fully enforced, and that the rebellion shall be crushed. The country will unanimously enter into this determination, and we cannot prove this to better advantage at present, than by devoting our whole efforts to the encouragement of volunteering.

Record Your Deeds.—Many persons are doubtless ignorant of the law requiring deeds for land, made within the State, to be recorded within six months, or they will be declared void against subsequent purchasers or mortgage for value. Ignorance of the law excuses no man, and therefore owners of property would do well to notice the requirements of the present statute.

A Significant Order.—Gen Pleasanton issued an order on the 18th, which reads as follows:—
"Every guerilla or other rebel wearing the uniform of a United States soldier, caught in the act of making war against any of the forces of this command, will be hung on the spot."

IMPORTANT SOUTHERN NEWS.—The Petersburg (Va) Express of Friday last, says:—

"seven hospital buildings at Camp Winder, near Richmond, were destroyed by fire on the 21st inst., and a large quantity of commissary stores and clothing destroyed." The same paper says:—An attempt was made to burn the Presidential mansion on Tuesday night."

The Richmond Enquirer of Jan. 18th says:—
"The Rev. Dr. Duncan calls the attention of our people to the condition of the 2d Louisiana Regiment, who are now in the snows of Virginia destitute of almost every comfort, and the whole regiment can muster only forty pairs of shoes. In this condition the regiment now walks nine miles to picket."

Our Presidents.

George Washington, of Virginia, was President of the United States for eight years; John Adams, of Massachusetts, for a single term of four years; Thomas Jefferson, of Virginia, was President for eight years; James Madison, of ditto, for eight years; John Quincy Adams, of Massachusetts, four years; Andrew Jackson, of Tennessee, eight years; Martin Van Buren, of New York, four years; William Henry Harrison, of Ohio, one month; John Tyler of Virginia, three years and eleven months; James K. Polk, of Tennessee, four years; Zachary Taylor, of Louisiana, one year and four months; Millard Fillmore of New York, two years and eight months; Franklin Pierce, of New Hampshire, four years, and James Buchanan, of Pennsylvania, four years. It will be seen that during the seventy-two years which elapsed between the inauguration of George Washington, and the inauguration of the Administration of Abraham Lincoln, the Slave States of the Union have had their citizens occupying the Presidential chair for forty-nine years and three months; while the Free States have had the same honor conferred upon their citizens, for twenty-two years and three months, considerably less than one third of the entire period.

The Rebellion and the Amnesty.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 1.—The American has the assurance, from a gentleman just from Richmond, who has gone to Washington to communicate with the Government, that the rebel authorities are taking steps to propose to the Federal Government to lay down their arms, provided that the President's amnesty proclamation be tendered to their leaders. "A general," according to later advices.

The Rev. John R. Shansfelt, pastor of Rush Baptist Church, in Milford county, Pa., who has been driven from the Church because he loves his old flag, gives the following reasons in his farewell sermon of the community against him:—
"I have publicly prayed for the Union—I have prayed for our rulers—I have prayed for success to our arms—I have prayed for victory to our brothers and sons—I have prayed for freedom to all the enslaved on earth—I have prayed for peace only on a basis that can be permanent. I am for the Government—the whole Government—the Government right or wrong. I love her flag I love to see it float in the breeze—I love to talk in its behalf."

Boston, Feb. 1.—About three hundred rebel prisoners arrived in this city at a late hour last evening. They were escorted to the navy yard and were paroled after taking the oath of allegiance and enlisting in the navy. Forty men of the 1st Illinois Regiment guarded them from Chicago to this city.

President Lincoln has pardoned Mr. Grif. fith, one of the Arkansas delegation now in Washington, who was a member of the convention which passed the ordinance for the secession of that State.

Gen Dumont, member of Congress from Indiana is the father of 19 children, ten of whom came into the world in couples.

Col. Wm M Stone, the new Governor of Iowa, was once a canal-driver between Roscoe and Cleveland, Ohio, at $3 a month.
