A WORD TO THOSE INDEBTED. As the first of April approaches we find it necessary for us to make collections. Those Conference of the M. E. Church, recently therefore of our town patrons who are in ar- in session at Altoona, Pa., for Frederick rears will be waited upon next week by the District: carrier for the amount of their indebtedness. Our payments this spring are large and must be met. Paper costs two dollars where we formerly paid but one for it, with almost everything else in proportion. Our subscription, advertising and jobbing rates are the same as they were in time of peace. The reader must therefore see the necessity of prompt payment. Many have given evidence that they do appreciate our situation, that Richards. our expenses have been necessarily largely increased, by coming forward unsolicited and promptly settling their accounts, and in some instances paying as many as twelve months in advance. But nearly one-half perhaps are yet in arrears, some of them for six, seven end eight years. Of the honesty of this latter class, to speak plainly, we entertain but a poor opinion, and will be constrained to "cut" them unless payment is soon made.-Cash Receipts .- The following is a list To throw away both labor and material now is simply ruinous.

After the first of April we will commence lopping off "dead heads" by publishing their names and the amount of their arrearages -We think the man who is mean enough to receive a paper for a half dozen years or more and refuse to pay even a part of his indebtedness, merits at least a passing notice from the publisher.

Young Dahlgren.

Col Ulric Dahlgren, whose death is not fully ascertained; was a little over twentytwo years of age, a hero in history, and that part of history which will read like romance.
His career in the army was filled with exploit, his last crowning all. In the fall of 1862 he led a daring expedition into Fredericksburg, routing three hundred robel cavalry with but one fourth their number, and this act Gen. Sigel pronounced one of the most brilliant of the war. Under Hosker, his raids and dangerous but successfull mis- in the course of which, he reached a point sions, were many. On Lee's second inva-sion of Md. he took but 10 men, and de-position worthy of the name, and returned stroyed the enemy's pontoons at Williams with 1,100 mules, 4,000 contrabands, 500 port, and at a latter day, with about one hun- prisoners, and a large amount of supplies. dred, he went round the rebel lines, capturnearly all of whome regained the Union Banks delivered an address, in which he lines. In a gallant charge at Hagerstown, predicted the reduction of the insurrection on the 6th of July, he received the wound to three or four States on the Atlantic coast which cost him his leg, and gained him the by this season's campaign. He said: "Let Colonelcy, which he richly deserved. Like us remember that the re-inauguration we body entirely stripped, and thrown into a Governor Hahn's inaugural address re-swamp—outrage and ignominy the more gards slavery as the cause of the present un-keenly felt when we remember the military holy attempt to break up the Government, ry, chivalrous spirits, generosity, modesty, and kindliness of this young and unquestionable hero.

The Killing of Col. Dahlgren General Kilpatrick has come back with more positive evidence that Colonel Dahlgren was nothing less than most wantonly and inhumanly murdered at least such is the interpretation he places upon the mode but, with the blessings of God upon our ex-of his death. Besides other evidence he ob-grious, all will be soon right again, and tained was a letter found at King and Queen county Court House, written by a Mrs. Lumpkins to her husband, which letter was sealed a stamp placed on the envelope, and awaiting to be forwarded to its intended destina-

This letter, the original of which has been given to Admiral Dahlgren, is dated at Weir's Mills, near the Court House. It says that, learning of the approach of some of our cavalry, their boys, as she calls them, lay in ambush, and fired on them as they came up, killing, among others, the Yankee colonel who led them. The colonel, as he fell from his horse, exclaimed, "Oh. I am hurt so bad !" upon which one of their men said to him, "Damp you, make haste then, and die." A Mr. Arnold is mentioned as attempting to take off his boots, upon which Colonel Dahi'gren gave him a kick, causing him to desist. He soon died ,however, and then was stripped of every thing he had on except his drawers. In his pockets were $300 in greenbacks. After robbing and stripping him, a hole was dug at the forks of the road, and he was there buried. The next day Jeff Davis sent for his body, and it was dug up and sent on to Richmond .-In the letter allusion is also made to the artificial leg and toot of the deceased, leaving no possible doubt that Col. Dahlgren, and he only, was the subject of reference.
